

OUR CIGAR DEPARTMENT

afford the smoker everything that is up-to-date and best in Cigars, Tobacco, Cigarettes and Smokers Articles.

We make a specialty of this particular line and know how to keep our stock in just right conditions at all times.

If you want to get a smoke that satisfies you in every way. Make your selection from our stock.

We can save you money on cigars by the box or cigarettes in quantities.

E. A. FOSTER Central Druggists

MOTHER!

"California Syrup of Figs" Child's Best Laxative

Accept "California" Syrup of Figs only—look for the name California on the package, then you are sure your child is having the best and most harmless physic for the little stomach, liver and bowels.

Children love its fruity taste. Full directions on each bottle. You must say "California."

Ask for Minard's and take no other.

Central Guardian

IT PAYS to buy in this province SOUVENIR OF PRINCE EDWARD ISLAND.—Beautiful illustrated descriptive souvenir ready to mail. Only 50c. by mail 57c. Charlottetown Guardian. 1863-7-6-11

SPECIAL SALE ALL THIS week of Summer Hardware at The Rogers Hardware Co. Limited 1866-7-27-31.

MR. INVESTOR, do you want to make a splendid investment? If so, then attend the auction sale on the 29th, of the Carvell Property on the corner of Hillsboro and Buxton Streets. 1863-7-27-31

CHURCH OF SCOTLAND.—Rev. James MacDougal will preach on Sabbath next at Summerside 10:30; Scarbath at 3, Desmarais at 7.

BETTER BE SURE than sorry. Attend the Carvell property auction sale, Thursday the 29th instant. 1863-7-27-31

THE AUCTION SALE of the Carvell property on Thursday the 29th has many splendid attractions. Comfortable house, open fireplace in almost every room, nice grounds. 1863-7-27-31

BENGAS increases speed but not the speed limit. Try it, Fennell, Chandler, Charlottetown, Brace McKay & Co., Summerside. July 27—d31

MAGNIFICENT opportunity to purchase a splendid home and make a good investment by buying the double dwelling house on the corner of Buxton and Hillsboro, to be sold Thursday the 29th, at twelve o'clock noon. 1863-7-27-31

ALL BUILDING MATERIAL is daily advancing, but you need not worry. If you want a comfortable home, buy the Carvell property on the corner of Buxton and Hillsboro, to be sold at auction Thursday the 29th instant. 1863-7-27-31

BENGAS We can refer you to a well known driver of any make of car from the flier to the Cadillac. Eight who will recommend BENGAS for Economy and Power. Ask us or better still try it. Fennell & Chandler. July 27—d31

BENGAS Truck drivers will tell you that they can take their load up hill on high with BENGAS. July 27—d31

BENGAS. Use BENGAS and eliminate the knock. Sold by Fennell & Chandler, Charlottetown, Brace McKay & Co., Summerside. July 27—d31

A PLEASANT OUTING.—Mr. A. W. McLeod, Garfield has made arrangements for the steamer Harland to leave Bruce Stewart & Co's wharf on Wednesday morning at 9:15 arriving at Halifax wharf 11 a.m. Parties with autos will accompany the boat will leave at 7:15 p.m. The races will be first class and the sea trip thoroughly enjoyable. Meals will be served on the grounds. July 27—d31

WEST PRINCE LIBERAL ASSOCIATION.—The annual meeting of the West Prince Liberal Association took place Monday. It was a real hand-picked Liberal gathering and the wind blew practical in the one direction the speakers generally being members of the provincial legislature. Resolutions were adopted commending the legislation enacted by them, faithful were warned against the wiles of the opposition, and the undigested and hasty opinions of agitators in the party.

WANTED.—TO RENT BY OCTOBER unfurnished house with all modern conveniences. Write to Guardian Office. 1870-7-27-31.

WANTED.—BOARD AND ROOM. Private family, preferred. Apply C. G. S. Box 117. 1881-7-27-31.

WANTED.—BY A SINGLE LADY house or flat containing seven or eight rooms. Apply Guardian Office. 1826-7-24-41.

WANTED.—PURCHASE.—BRASS instruments, cornets, alto, trombones, basses, drums, etc. Write stating prices, terms and conditions of instruments, to P.O. Box 375, Charlottetown. 1783-7-23-31. A. Gillis. 1706-7-19-61pd.

WANTED.—AT VICTORIA HOTEL day porter. Apply at once. 3.

Ignition of some rockets, which caused an explosion of a dozen aerial bombs, a tremendous explosion has occurred in a munitions dump in a former German military park in the St. Pierre region. "The inhabitants of the neighborhood are fleeing, as the explosion of a large number of gas shells is expected."

"Two hundred railway carriages are being held in readiness in order to evacuate the threatened districts."

LONDON, July 25.—Earl Beatty, receiving the freedom of Sheffield, said that, with the disappearance of the German fleet, they were released from the intolerable burden of competitive bidding, but they must bear in mind that the day must come when veteran ships must be replaced, and under the present financial conditions very little would cost a great deal. The navy, he said, was now reduced to the lowest limits consistent with prudence.

CASTORIA For Infants and Children In Use For Over 30 Years Always bears the Signature of J. C. Ayer & Co.

Makes Hair Grow

All drug stores sell DELMAY'S FRENCH HAIR TONIC, and it is guaranteed to grow hair or money back. The time to take care of your hair is when you have hair to take care of. If your hair is getting thin, gradually falling out, it cannot be long before the spot appears.

The greatest remedy to stop the hair from falling is DELMAY'S FRENCH HAIR TONIC, the Great French Hair Grower, first discovered in Paris. DELMAY'S FRENCH HAIR TONIC furnishes nourishment to the hair roots and acts so quickly that people are amazed.

And remember, it destroys the Dandruff germ, the little pest that saps the life that should go to the hair from the roots. DELMAY'S FRENCH HAIR TONIC a positive guarantee to remove Dandruff, is sold by first-class druggists under stop falling hair and itching scalp in ten days, or money back. A bottle costs $1.00. Sold by E. A. Foster, Central druggist, Charlottetown.

ORWELL.—Services next Sabbath August 1st at Orwell at 11 at Orwell Road 6:30. Rev. W. A. McQuarrie, B. D., of Beedeque will preach.

NORTH RIVER APPRECIATES TALENT.—Many eulogistic comments have been heard regarding the talented strangers who are kindly assisted in the "Rainbow" by Mr. J. Campbell, formerly of Clyde River, left nothing to be desired, the excellence of his work forcing him to respond to numerous encores. The accompanists, Mrs. Everett Holmes and Mrs. Everett Stevenson, are to be congratulated on the success of their efforts. The thanks of the committee are hereby tendered the above and all those who donated so generously, cream, cake, favoring, etc., not forgetting those who worked so untiringly through the evening, nor the chairman, Mr. Robert McKinley, who performed the duties exacted of him in a most efficient and pleasing manner. (Patriot Please Copy.)

ISLANDER'S FUNERAL.—A Butte, Montana exchange contains the following: The funeral of the late James G. McLeod, was held from the Shuman and Reid undertaking rooms at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon, the Rev. S. P. Martin officiating. Interment was in Mount Moriah cemetery. The pallbearers were: Jack Ingraham, Albert Hall, William Boyver, Lou Boyver, D. A. Martin and Tom McKinnon. Mr. McLeod was 74 years of age and had been a resident of Butte for more than 30 years. He was Color Sergeant of the First Montana regiment in the Spanish American war, and was for many years a member of the local Carpenters' Union. He is survived by his wife, one daughter, Mrs. James Griffith of Los Angeles and five sons, John H.; Dan, Angus, James J., Jas. Edward; also a brother, Rudwick at Hopk, Mo., and a sister, Miss Mary, at Montague, P. E. Island.

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

Artillery Salutes.—According to the Canada Gazette, "King's Regulations and Orders" (C. M.), 1917—in reference to artillery salutes and strength of battery firing, is amended as follows:—Insert: Para "1502 (a). The strength of a four gun battery firing salute should be as under:—1 Major, Captain (where it is required that the O. C. Battery shall attend at the Opening of Parliament, such as at Ottawa), 1 Lieutenant (in charge firing battery), 1 Medical Officer, 1 Battery Sergeant Major, 4 Sergeants, four Corporals or Bombardiers, 16 Gunners (1 Gunner and 15 Drivers to be added to this total if horses required to move guns into position). Where it is necessary to move the guns a considerable distance, the following should be added to the above strength; 8 Riding Horses; 24 Draught Horses."

A CHANGE.—"Argus," who conducts a column entitled "By the way," in the Halifax Chronicle, in yesterday's issue says: A few days ago I noticed a Prince Edward Island car with a license number well up in the thousands. It looked rather strange to me, as on my last visit to the little island some years ago, the motor car was taboo there and I was told the story of one owner who imported a car who had to amuse himself by operating it in the spacious grounds surrounding his own home. Any appearance on the Kings Highway would have meant at least a stern rebuke. The may not have been strictly true; but it is not very long since the "island" knew them not. Now to judge from the one I have observed they have some number and many of them cars much heavier than would be thought practical to use over light roads.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside at 322 Twentieth Avenue West.

BLAKE-KINNEAR WEDDING.—The many Charlottetown friends of the popular couple will read with interest the following clipping from a recent Calgary paper: "Notwithstanding the early morning hour, a number of friends assembled at St. Mary's Cathedral to witness the marriage of Miss Mary Kinnear, daughter of the late Stanley Kinnear of Halifax, to Edward L. Blake, son of the late Maurice Blake, of Prince Edward Island. Rev. John Moriarty, formerly of Halifax, performed the wedding ceremony. The bride who was unattended, was most becomingly attired in a travelling suit of embroidered navy iricoline with French flower hat, and was given away by Mr. D. R. Crichton. Following the ceremony the happy couple were entertained at a dainty breakfast at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Crichton, after which they left, amid the wishes of friends, on the Trans-Canada flyer for Vancouver and other coastal cities. The numerous and beautiful gifts received, not only from friends and relatives in Eastern Canada, testify to the popularity of the bride and groom. On their return to Calgary, Mr. and Mrs. Blake will reside