

You Risk No Money

Your Reputation and Money are at Risk of This Offer.

We pay for all the medicine used during the trial, if our remedy fails to completely relieve you of constipation. We take all the risk. You are not obliged to us in any way whatever, if you accept our offer. Could anything be more fair to you? Is there any reason why you should hesitate to put our claims to a practical test?

A most scientific, common-sense treatment is Rexall Orderlies, which are eaten like candy. They are very pronounced, gentle and pleasant in action, and particularly agreeable in every way. They do not cause diarrhoea, nausea, flatulence, griping, or other inconvenience. Rexall Orderlies are particularly good for children, aged and delicate persons.

We urge you to try Rexall Orderlies at our risk. Three sizes, 10c., 25c., and 50c. Remember, you can get Rexall Remedies in this community only at our store—The Rexall Store, The McKinnon Drug Co.

NEWS FROM OTTAWA DEBATE ON ADDRESS

OTTAWA, Nov. 25.—The debate on the address along with very little interest and will probably continue most of next week.

Mr. Doherty's resolution regarding public enquiries is believed to be preparatory to several investigations which the government now contemplates. Mr. Doherty desires wider powers for investigating commissions.

RATES TOO HIGH.

MONTREAL, Nov. 25.—The Board of Trade has decided to petition the colonial Railway to be subject to pro-Government asking that the Inter-visions of the Railway Act and that shippers be allowed to appeal to the Board of Railway Commissioners. It is claimed that in exclusive territory the Intercolonial rates are far too high.

MYSTERY SOLVED.

ELLSWORTH, Maine, Nov. 25.—The recovery of the bodies in Green Lake solves the mystery of the disappearance of four men on Wednesday last. Sheriff Webster and Deputy Finn left Ellsworth jail to arrest two men at Camp Comfort and were returning with the prisoners when the whole party met death in the lake by the boat being overturned.

The Ladies of Charlottetown May Now Grow Beautiful Hair.

G. E. Hughes, Chemist, backed up by the manufacturers of SALVIA, the Great Hair Grower, guarantees it to grow hair.

SALVIA destroys Dandruff in ten days. The roots of the hair is so nourished and fed that a new crop of hair springs up, to the amazement and delight of the user. The hair is made soft and fluffy. Like all American preparations SALVIA is daintily perfumed. It is hard to find an actress who does not use SALVIA continually. A large bottle for 50c.

On Sunday Nov. 5th, over sixty members, the largest number at any time, were received into the Metropolitan Methodist Church, Victoria, B. C., by the pastor Rev. Mr. Holling. Some had come from England and different parts of Canada. Among the number was Ella W. McMurray of the First Methodist Church, Charlottetown.

The congregation of St. Paul's Church were last night delighted with a sacred vocal solo by Charles Earl, Montreal, son of Prof. S. N. and Mrs. Earle, City, who is at present home on a visit to his parents. Mr. Earle was in excellent voice and his rendition of the piece was heartily appreciated. Rev. Mr. Murphy, conducted the services as usual, morning and evening.

All Guardians are discontinued promptly at the expiry date, unless requested otherwise by subscribers. A renewal notice and addressed envelope in which to remit are sent to each subscriber a short time before expiry, and if no response another renewal notice is sent out and the paper is discontinued promptly, subscribers having thus no cause to blame the management if their paper is stopped.

The death occurred at his residence at Hillsboro, Lot. 48, yesterday of William McKenzie, one of the oldest and most respected residents of that district. The deceased was in his ninety-first year and had been ill for about a year. The late Mr. McKenzie was widely known and had many friends all over the country. Mrs. Edward Davey, City, is one of the daughters. To the bereaved family The Guardian tenders its sympathy. The funeral notice will be found elsewhere.

In the Opera House Saturday night the Gladys Klark Company presented the drama Roanoke as their farewell play. The different parts were well taken and some of the costumes were superb. The play was the story of a young girl and youth who were despoiled of their inheritance by their cousin through the murder of their father. The story ended in both comedy to their own again. The specialties between the acts were worthy of the company. At the matinee in the afternoon the same play was put on and was enjoyed very much. Little Valman Balfour in song specialties was very cunning. He was entered a number of times. The acrobates and jugglers did their parts well and were very amusing.

The following resolution has been forwarded to the Committee on Resolutions from the Poultry Association to be discussed at the Farmers' Institute Convention on Nov. 26th and 29th. "Whereas there is great difficulty in getting poultry from this province to the Winter Fair at Amherst, and whereas they have to be shipped on Saturday and are not judged till the following Thursday, and whereas the cost of exhibiting is excessive and whereas this matter has been brought to the attention of the Maritime Poultry Association, which Association decided to allow P. E. Island to send their exhibits to Fair on Monday, and whereas the Committee of Management of the Winter Fair refused to agree to this proposal, therefore resolved that this convention ask that the contribution made by our Government to the Poultry Department of the Winter Fair be withdrawn and handed over to the Poultry Association of P. E. Island for their Winter Fair.
