

GIRLS! STOP WASHING THE HAIR WITH SOAP

SOAP DRIES YOUR SCALP, CAUSING DANDRUFF, THEN HAIR FALLS OUT

After washing your hair with soap always apply a little Danderine to the scalp to invigorate the hair and prevent dryness. Better still, use soap as sparing as possible, and instead have a "Danderine Hair Cleanse." Just moisten a cloth with Danderine and draw it carefully through your hair, taking one strand at a time. This will remove dust, dirt and excessive oil. In a few moments you will be amazed, your hair will not only be clean, but it will be wavy, fluffy and abundant, and possess an incomparable softness and lustre.

Besides cleansing and beautifying the hair, one application of Danderine dissolves every particle of dandruff, stimulates the scalp, stopping itching and falling hair. Danderine is to the hair what fresh showers of rain and sunshine are to vegetation. It goes right to the roots, invigorates and strengthens them. Its exhilarating and life-producing properties cause the hair to grow long, strong and beautiful.

Men! Ladies! You can surely have lots of charming hair. Get a 25 cent bottle of Knowlton's Danderine and try it.

Practical Fashion Hints

If one has a straight skirt that is somewhat out of date, it is a simple matter to modernize it by adding a tunic or one of the new hip draperies that are so much favored just now. These draperies need not necessarily be of the same color or material as the dress, but may be of silk in a contrasting or self color as preferred. This combining of contrasting colors and materials is new and economical. No. 7202 shows two complete patterns, four distinct pleurms. Two designs are draped and two are plain. If you have a plain little dress of white voile or crepe from last summer that you would like to change a trifle one of these tunics in a flowered crepe, draped panner fashion, will make a fascinating addition, and the dress will practically be new.

This pattern requires for any size about 1 1/2 or 1 3/4 yards of 36 inch material. It is cut in 6 sizes; 22 to 32. This is a Perfect Pattern. Be sure to state right size, passing the tape tightly around the waist. It may be obtained by filling out the coupon and enclosing 15 cents in stamps or coin to the Pattern Department of this paper.

Coupon form for requesting the pattern, including fields for Name, Street and No., City and State, and Pattern No.

MISS ORFORD'S ELEPHANTS AT B. F. KEITH'S BOSTON

What is pronounced by all who have seen it to be the most marvelous and astounding exposition ever exhibited in this country is promised for B. F. Keith's Theatre next week, in Miss Orford's wonderful troupe of elephant actors. These two gigantic three and one-half ten performers, with a cute little baby elephant, go through a most astonishing routine of tricks including a domestic play-let in which they eat supper, put the baby to bed, and introduce various other phases of domestic life. The crowning feature of the exhibition is a thrilling fire scene, in which Miss Orford is rescued from a burning building by one of the elephants. This troupe was brought from Europe by Mr. Keith as a special attraction for his circuit, and is one of the most important importations of the year in vaudeville. Another big spectacular feature of the week will be supplied by Fred Karno's comedy company in "A Night in an English Music Hall," showing the various types encountered in one of these resorts, and with a company of sixteen comedians and a big stage setting. Other features, many of them new to Boston, will be Ray L. Royce, the famous comedian of "York State Folks," Mrs. Gen. Hughes and her company in "Youth," Devine and Williams, the two dummers; Leightner and Jordan, two Boston girls; Raymond and Bain, in a musical comedietta, "Locked Out;" Carson and Brown, the dancing dandies; and the Three Renards, daring feats on the aerial rings.

F. F. PROCTOR'S NEW YORK

Proctor's 5th Avenue will celebrate Washington's Birthday and Shrove Tuesday all in one, thereby providing excellent entertainment to overcome the dullness generally attendant upon the beginning of the Lenten season. An All-American programme will be presented headed by dual headline turns, Jos. E. Howard and Mabel McCane in one spot and Edmund Hayes and Company in "The Piano Movers" in another. Howard has composed two new songs for the Fifth Avenue engagement. Miss McCane promises an entire change of wardrobe, while Hayes has provided a complete routine of slang for his sketch. Others gathered under the Stars and Stripes will be Violinsky,

TELLS HOW IT CURED HIS WIFE'S BAD SORE

When Everything Else Had Failed

Rev. Henry J. Munton, of Blackfalds, Alta., writes: "My wife had a very bad sore foot, which it seemed impossible to get anything to heal. The sore would heal to a certain point and then reappear again, and so on. I procured a box of Zam-Buk, and after persevering with this herbal balm for some time the sore was completely healed. "We were so grateful for this cure, and Zam-Buk acted so differently to any other of the numerous remedies we had tried that I thought you ought to know of this case. I have since recommended Zam-Buk to several of my parishioners, and it always gives satisfaction." Another instance in which Zam-Buk proved of unequalled value is told by Mr. N. L. Gerry, of Brandon Man. He says: "I had my left foot run over by a wagon loaded with wheat. The foot was very badly crushed, and my little toe and the next toe were laid open. I applied Zam-Buk, and only had to miss work for two days. Zam-Buk healed the wound so quickly that on the third day I was able to put on my boot and walk to my work. In a very short time my toes were quite healed, and the foot is now as sound as ever, thanks to Zam-Buk." Just as good for chronic sores, ulcers, piles, blood poison, burns, scalds, eruptions, eczema, and all skin injuries and diseases. 50c. box at all druggists and stores, or Zam-Buk Co., Toronto. Try Zam-Buk Soap, too 25c. per tablet.

WOMEN RULE MEN

WASHINGTON, Feb. 23.—An Amazon elysium has been discovered among the Ekai tribe of southern Nigeria, according to a letter from P. A. Talbot, Africa explorer of London, received today by the National Geographic Society. The rule of the women is absolute. The ground is so fruitful that two weeks' cultivation provides food for a year and dancing and song are the chief occupations of the tribes.

Got Rid of Bronchitis

The worst feature of bronchitis is the tendency to return year after year until the system is worn out and gives way to consumption, or other ravaging disease. Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine owes much of its great popularity to the fact that it positively cures bronchitis, and this is about as severe a test as can be made of a medicine of this kind. Mr. W. H. Walker, Calmar, Alta., writes: "I am pleased to say that Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine has done much good to myself, wife and children. My eldest girl seven years, had bronchitis, and the doctor who attended her did not seem to do much good. We got Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine for her, and the soon got well. We always keep this medicine in the house now ready for use, and find that it soon cures coughs and colds." In fighting diseases of the throat and lungs half the battle is in having Dr. Chase's Syrup of Linseed and Turpentine at hand to be used promptly. This is why many people prefer to buy the large family size bottle.

the wizard of the strings; Ted Lorraine and Hatit Burks, premier dancers featuring the "Buena Vista Tango;" Meredith Sisters, the maids who made Hiawatha famous; Brown Brothers, knockout black face comedians; Herbert's Loop-the-Loop Dogs, clever acrobatic canines; Gormley and Cassray, the acrobats with the funny falls, and Proctor's Famous Feature Films at Intermissions.

B. F. KEITH'S THEATRE BOSTON

Arthur Hopkins, latest melodramatic travesty, Myrtle Clayton or "Wrong From the Street," comes to B. F. Keith's Theatre next week at the head of one of the strongest bills of the season. "Myrtle Clayton" is a travesty on the melodramers of the blood and thunder type that play the kerosene circuits. The scene shows the stage in a town hall or opy house, with a load of hay in the loft over the stage and a janitor who also plays in the band and does specialties between the acts. Four scenes, showing in rapid succession the explosion of the fireboat "Richard Croker," the hero and heroine clinging to a bell buoy off Sandy Hook, and numerous other funny scenes such as are usually found in one of these thrillers. B. A. Rolfe's "Porch Party" is a big group of singers, dancers and musicians, who present a most unique musical spectacle, and other features will be Wellington Cross and Lois Josephine late of the Winter-Garden shows; Bert Errol, the wonderful female impersonator whose gowns are said to be the admiration of every woman who sees them; Jed and Ethel Doolley, who perform a little bit of about everything in the amusement field; Dale and Boyle, songs and dances; the wonderful Weiss Troupe, greatest of all pole balancers; Pollard, the comedy juggler, and the Pathe Weekly with the world news in motion pictures.
