—REEVES AND MILLS.—At the United Parsonage, Kensington, on Feb. 9, Miss Margaret Reeves, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Freeman Reeves, Kensington, was united in marriage to Mr. Walter Mills, Kensington, by Rev. George Ayers officiating. The bride was handsomely gowned in a dress of blue silk crepe du chene with a coat of channel red Velour with a hat of match. The bride was ably supported by Miss Mamie Hughes while the groom was supported by Mr. Roy Reeves, a brother of the bride. After the ceremony the happy couple returned to the home of the bride's parents, where a happy wedding supper was served. The bride was the recipient of many useful gifts. Mr. and Mrs. Mills will reside in Chermont. Everybody joins in wishing them a happy success in wedded life. Y.

—PROVINCIAL CAPTAINS — Steamer Andrea F. Luckenbach, in command of Captain McDonald, of Sauris, P. E. I., is to sail from New York today for San Francisco and will go up the Pacific coast as far as Seattle, returning to Philadelphia, New York and Boston with a heavy shipment of Oregon timber and sawn lumber, says Wednesday's Halifax Herald. She is taking to the Pacific coast ports a full general cargo, most of which was loaded at Boston and Philadelphia. Another of the big Luckenbach freighters in command of a provincial master mariner, is the Lewis Luckenbach, Captain Eldon Read, of Hopewell Cape N. B., which is due at New York next week from Seattle and other Pacific coast ports. She has lumber for unloading at Boston and Philadelphia. Both Captain McDonald and Captain Read have been in the employ of the Luckenbach Line for several years and the ships they command are the largest of the fleet.

—SEA VIEW NOTES.—Dancing has been in full swing in Sea View the past season, one of the dances in particular was the celebration of Jacob Burt's sixtieth birthday which was held at the home of her son-in-law, Mr. John Bassett, the presentation being a beautiful morocco chair. Another farwell party was tendered in Sea View Hall in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Adams. Mr. and Mrs. Adams are about to leave for their new home in Malpeque.
