CHURCH MEETING.—The Annual Meeting of the Bedouque Congregation was held on Jan. 8th. Mr. Theodore Braces was appointed chairman. The reports of the different societies of the Church were very encouraging. The Treasurer Mr. Clement Carruthers reported $1371.66 raised for local purposes $1306.55 expended, leaving a balance on hand of $65.11. The Session reported a most satisfactory attendance at all the services of the Church. 27 Baptisms 10 added to communicant roll and 8 deaths. The Missionary Treasurer Mr. T. J. Humphrey, reported $950.00 as having been remitted to the Church agent which was $450 in excess of Presbytery's Allocation. The pastor Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie, reported on the work being done by the Ladies Societies. Great Mission Band being the leading Band at the last Presbyterian and North Bedouque Branches. The W. M. S. ranked second in the Province. The Financial Committee reported a most satisfactory condition in every section of the congregation and excellent prospects for the coming year. These reports produced considerable enthusiasm and everyone present felt that the work of the Lord was prospering in our midst. In all $2091.20 or over $20 per family was raised for all purposes of which more than half was given to Missions and other schemes of the Church. The stipend of the Pastor was increased from $1050 to $1200 for the coming year. The Lord is mighty blessing the pastorate of the Rev. W. A. MacQuarrie in this part of His Vinyard.

MRS. W. A. EISENHAUER

Many friends in Charlottetown will be sorry to learn of the death of Mrs. W. A. Eisenhauer (nee Clara M. King) which occurred Thursday at Lunenburg, N. S. Mrs. Eisenhauer had given birth to a child on Saturday, King, Hillsboro Street received a telegram stating that she was doing well. On Wednesday another message brought word that she had become very weak and Thursday she died. The late Mrs. Eisenhauer was well known here where she was engaged as a milliner for several years, afterwards going to St. John. She leaves to mourn besides her husband and infant, her mother and three sisters in Charlottetown, Mrs. Walsh and Mrs. Mary Ann, Martha, two married sisters and one brother Wilfrid in Lunenburg on Wednesday but unfortunately did not arrive in time to see her before she died. Deep sympathy is extended to the bereaved family.

MR. JOHN SWALLOW

The death occurred on Tuesday, January 29th, 1918, of Mr. John Swallow, Georgetown, aged 66 years. He was formerly lived at Annapolis, and moved with his family to Georgetown about six years ago. For several months prior to his death he was confined to his bed with internal cancer, and to the end of his great fortitude and patience, awaiting the release from suffering, he calmly passed to that blessed abode where suffering is unknown. By his kind and courteous manner he won for himself many friends in Georgetown. The deceased was interred in the Cemetery near his old home at Annapolis beside his two daughters Annie and Sadie. Rev. J. A. Greenlee, Pastor of St. David's Church, Georgetown officiated, to whom the family are deeply indebted for his presence and sympathy during the illness of the departed. Besides the bereaved widow the deceased leaves to mourn: Ephraim, Mrs. Wilfrid Moore and Mrs. James Penton all of Georgetown, William H. now of the 104th Battalion in England, James Harvie in Trenton, Mrs. Nicholas McLennan, Peter's Road, whose husband is a member of the 105th Battalion. The following predeceased him: Mrs. James McKenzie, St. Peter's Bay, Annie and Sadie before mentioned, also two sisters, Mrs. Wm. Tassell and Miss Sarah Swallow both of Little Pond. To the bereaved widow and family the sympathy of the community is extended. There is no death in Heaven: For they who gain that shore Have won their immortality. And they can die no more.

MRS. JAMES CAVANAH

Died at Glenfarming, Saturday January 19th inst. Mrs. James Cavanagh, Sr. at the advanced age of eighty four years. Deceased was the widow of the late James Cavanagh, Senior, who predeceased her some fourteen years. The late Mrs. Cavanagh was a good obliging neighbor of a kindly courteous disposition and for her willingness to help and comfort others in time of trouble will be greatly missed in her home circle and by her other friends. Although advanced in years she had always been smart and able to be about and was confined to her room but one short month. During this time she was most patient and bore her illness without a murmur or complaint. She was a devout Catholic and a true member of the Sacred Heart. Though her sickness she was attended by her pastor Rev. Father Gillis, who administered to her the last rites of the Catholic Church on January the 22nd inst. Her remains were followed by a large number despite the cold weather to All Saints Church, Cardigan, to pay their last tribute to a departed friend, to the memory of a departed friend, Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. Father Gillis and the remains were afterwards laid to rest in the adjoining cemetery beside the remains of her husband. She leaves to mourn the following daughters and sons, Mrs. McCarty, Lawrence, Mass.; Mrs. James O'Donnell, Rollo Bay, King's County; John in Chicago, Ill.; Patrick in Somerville, Mass.; James R. on the homestead with whom she had lived, also two sisters in the United States and a large number of grand children, the pall bearers were Patrick Rice, John T. Roche, John Fogarty, Alexander McDonald, James Quinn, Andrew Redmond.
