Grain

WINNIPEG, Aug. 9—(CP)—No export business was reported today at the Winnipeg Grain Exchange.

In the coarse grains futures market, oats and barley prices showed a firm trend with fair buying, attributed to shippers and mills. Hedging sales were well-taken although early trade was slight.

Rye declined on sales influenced by a higher-than-expected crops estimate. There were offerings by commission houses and occasional buying by American interests.

Class two wheat prices were up one cent.

Livestock Report

SUMMARY

Cattle deliveries were light in the past week due largely to the Monday holiday observed in most Provinces. In the absence of real export buying interest, domestic demand kept prices to fairly steady levels for the top grades of slaughter cattle, and in a few cases sent quotations into higher ground. Lower grades of grass cattle were still in poor demand. Hog prices were up to $1.00 per cwt. lower in the east but generally unchanged in Western Canada. Lamb sales took a severe price setback of $2 to $4, the heaviest decline occurring at Toronto.

Slaughter Cattle

Toronto had 4400 fresh cattle plus 700 carried from the previous week and looked for a carryover of 300 head of plain cattle at the week-end. Good to choice steers and heifers sold at 25c to 50c higher, mediums about 50c better, and other grades generally steady. Some choice weighty steers brought $23 to $23.25, choice fed yearlings $23 to $23.60, and good light steers $21 to $22. Plain steers and heifers sold down to $16, and boners were plentiful at $12 to $15. Good cows, mostly $14 to $14.50. Good bulls, $16.50 to $17.

At Montreal cattle receipts were 1,182 head and were traded at steady prices on the better grades of steers and cows, but more common grades were in poor demand. Some good and choice steers were weighed at $21 to $22.25, good kinds generally $20 to $21, and mediums $16 to $20. Good cows $14 to $15, common down to $10, canners $7 to $10. Good bulls, $14.50 to $15.50.

Stock for sale at Winnipeg included 4,427 cattle plus 200 carried over from the previous week. No carryover was in sight at the close of trading. The price trend was lower on cows and bulls but other slaughter classes moved reasonably steady. Choice, light steers rated $22 to $22.50, good $19 to $21, and some heavy steers sold to a top of $23.50. Good cows were $13 to $13.50 and canners as low as $9.

Calgary had 2,135 cattle and expected a holdover of 65 head at the week-end. Offerings were generally plain to medium grassers and feeders, but trade was active, and the market closed with a strong undertone. A few choice, dry-fed steers sold at $22, odd choice heifers $20, and some light cows $13.50. Most choice steers were $21.25 to $22, good $20 to $21 and mediums $18 to $19.50, and good cows $12.75 to $13.

Edmonton had 1,865 cattle, all sold. Medium and low grade cattle continued to predominate but daily clearances were effected, with medium to good butcher steers talking $18.50 to $20. Cows, however, were fully 50c lower with a practical top of $12. Choice light steers made $21 to $22, good $19 to $20, mediums downward to $17.50. Good cows $11.50 to $12.50.

Saskatoon cattle receipts were 670 head, all sold, with good steers $19 to $19.50, mediums $16.50 to $17.50, good cows $13, canners down to $9.50. At Prince Albert, 440 cattle were received and sold to a slower trade, with medium steers $15.50 to $19, common lightweights $10.50 to $14, and some good light cows $13, good heavies making around $12.50.

Moose Jaw received and sold 360 cattle, with medium quality commercial steers and heifers $15.50 to $17.50, common around $14, and good cows $12 to $13. Common to medium cows rated $9.50 to $11.50, and good light bulls up to a top of $14.50.

Regina had 229 cattle and placed best light steers at $20 to $21, good cows $13 to $13.50.

Stocker And Feeder Cattle

Stocker and feeder cattle were firm to a shade higher, particularly in the west. Toronto, however, was slow, some picked feeders making $17 to $17.50 and the general run of stockers $12 to $16. Winnipeg assembled several loads for United States shipment at prices strong to 50c higher on best grades. Good feeder steers were taken at $15.50 to $17. Calgary was steady to a shade firmer also, with odd sales at $17.25 and good feeders generally $16 to $17. Edmonton paid $14.50 to $16 for good feeders; Saskatoon $15 to $15.50; Prince Albert $12.50 to $14 and $14.50; Moose Jaw $14 to $15.

Let's Talk Things Over

Money doesn't go a long way in these days. That's what a friend said to me the other day. My reply was that it all depended on how he spent it, and I told him that I could put him in the way of securing a sizeable estate, say $10,000, for a down payment of a few dollars. What is more, even if he were to die anytime soon after the first down payment, the whole estate of $10,000 would belong to his family without the spending of another penny.

And, let me tell you, many large estates of several thousand dollars have come to the rescue of Sun Life beneficiaries following a first and only payment of a few dollars by a husband and father who realized the uncertainty of the future but knew how to make the best use of savings.

Let's talk things over—today!
