The bonds of the company, amounting to $3,000,000, will not be touched, but an issue of stock will, if present plans carry, be brought out which it is understood will amount to about $2,500,000 and will go entirely to the members of the syndicate.

After the benefit of last evening New Wonderland resumes its usual way. Tonight the regular cheap and good entertainments are again under way, with five cents the price of admission. Mr. Brown has a Tile loose-might suggest that it was a Vanat room any where from brains to the roof of a house. But the latter being the fact, it is worth while going to see at New Wonderland tonight, how the unfortunate owner of the tile that got loose, succeeding in getting it fixed again. Paralytic's Revenge contains more than the usual thrill of terror when the story develops, showing how a man who could not move watched a woman's treachery, followed the whole plot throughout, and in order to avenge his son's honor, made one supreme effort to destroy the traitor who had entered the home. He succeeds-but at the cost of his life. Championship of England in the Foot Ball match of 1902-and Wanted -A Colored Servant are the other pictures. TWELVE LINERS ENTERED PORT

MONTREAL, Sept. 30-Twelve ocean liners, the largest number to enter the port of Montreal in one day in the history of St. Lawrence navigation, arrived today. The net tonnage of the twelve totalled 44,480 tons, and they have been for a week endeavoring to cover the 160 miles between Quebec and Montreal in the dense fog and smoke. The large number of arrivals gave work to a much larger number of longshoremen than are usually employed, as on account of the protracted delays work will go on night and day loading and unloading in order that the lines may catch up with the schedule. In addition to the twelve liners a little fleet of colliers came in and helped to make it one of the busiest days in the history of the port.

ROYAL FEAST AT THE Y.M.C.A.

Given to the Old and New Members by the Ladies' Aid of the Y. M. C. A. Humorous Speeches by Directors and Others

Invitations were out for some time for a reception to the members of the Y. M. C. A. and friends, but no one ever suspected that they were being invited to a veritable feast. This feast was prepared by the Ladies' Aid of the Y. M. C. A. and many were the favorable comments passed and some unfavorable ones too, for some had satisfied the inner man before going to the feast, and could only sit back and bemoan their fate. Besides a hearty vote of thanks was tendered to the ladies, who best know how to call forth a man's admiration. After the repast, humorous speeches were given by the President W. S. Louson; the leader of the winning membership team, Colin McNeely; A. C. Duchemin, Dr. Ayers, J. P. Gordon, G. F. Hutcheson; the secretary, L. W. Archibald; and last but not least, the faithful old friend of the Y. M. C. A., John T. McKenzie. The city press was fully represented and John Inman, City Editor of the Examiner, in a most felicitous speech thanked the Y. M. C. A., and especially the ladies for their kind invitation. The speeches were all humorously sarcastic and by the returned applause the members and visitors enjoyed them as much as the feast. Rousing cheers and a tiger in each case were given for the winning team, L. W. Archibald, John McKenzie and others. The company then joined hands in an extended circle and sang "Shall we gather at the river," after which Mr. McKenzie was most enthusiastically applauded, it being his birthday, and one of the oldest members in the good work.

SHAH'S TROOPS WERE DEFEATED.

BERLIN, Sept. 30-A despatch from Teheran to the Local Anzeiger says that the imperial troops have suffered defeat at Tabriz, and on the advice of some members of his cabinet, the Shah has decreed that parliament be opened on October 30. This is an earlier date than had been anticipated, but the Shah hopes by this means to secure tranquility. Considerable nervousness exists in court circles and the troops stationed around the palace refuse to obey the order to march on Tabriz. The Minister of War has been vainly endeavoring to raise the money to pay the soldiers, but the population of Teheran show utter indifference. The forces of the Shah sent to subdue Tabriz have not succeeded in their object and the city continues to defy their ruler. The Nationalists refuse to lay down their arms until they receive a guarantee from all the foreign legations at Teheran that parliament will be re-opened on the European basis of representation.

The matter was speedily arranged, and he is expected to report tomorrow morning, when he will be assigned to a desk in the dimly office building, which is hot in summer and cold in winter. He will at once begin studying under Mr. Higgins, Superintendent Lyford and purchasing Agent Horace Brainard how the wool is washed, bleached and spun in the woolen department.
