TAKE "CASCARETS" IF HEADACHY, BILIOUS AND CONSTIPATED

BEST FOR LIVER AND BOWELS, BAD BREATH, BAD COLDS, SOUR STOMACH.

Get a 10-cent box.
Sick headache, biliousness, coated tongue, head and nose clogged up with a cold always give this to torpid liver; delays forming food in the bowels or sour, gassy stomach. Poisonous matter clogged in the intestines, instead of being cast out of the system is re-absorbed into the blood. When this poison reaches the delicate brain tissue it causes congestion and that dull, throbbing, sickening headache.

Cascarets immediately cleanse the stomach, remove the sour, undigested food and foul gases, take the excess bile from the liver and carry out all the constipated waste matter and poisons in the bowels.

A Cascaret tonight will surely straighten you out by morning. They work while you sleep—a 10-cent box from your druggist means your head clear, stomach sweet and your liver and bowels regular for months.

New Washable Tissues

In Muslins and Voiles. Plenty of new and pretty patterns to make selections easy and satisfactory. The patterns are mainly flowers and stripes. If you are planning a dress for your daughter or self it would pay you to inspect these. A complete dress can be bought for small cost.

Heavy Gun Practice By German Ships

LONDON, April 8.—The heavy firing heard on several evenings in Kiel Bay, west of Baginop, on the Danish island of Langeland, which has given rise to rumors of a naval battle, is explained by Reuters' correspondent at Copenhagen as having been due merely to German naval gunnery practice of unusual proportions. Many ships have been out each evening, firing at targets towed by fast cruisers. This practice always takes place after dark, by the use of search lights.

THE PREACHER'S FRUIT

(By Peter McArthur)

Once upon a time—you see I know how to begin a story in the right way—a barefoot boy danced by the roadside and shouted gleefully, "Canada, back in the nineteenth century, in the pioneer days. The little boy was healthy and freckled and what he lacked in clothes he made up in the kind of body one would have inside of clothes. And he was very, very happy. In fact he was so happy that he was going to stop to ask him the cause of it all.

"Hurray!" shouted he of the freckles.

"Why so happy?" asked the friend.

"The preacher is coming to dinner!"

"I didn't think you were so fond of him."

"Ain't, but whenever the preacher comes to dinner we always have peach preserves."

It really is not much of a story and I am giving it on account of its archæo-logical interest and not because it is so very funny. It dates back to the days when people merely knew that peaches are the best of fruits and had not discovered that Canada is the best place to raise the very best of them. The woman who was fortunate enough to get some from a sheltered orchard on from a long time ago was so fortunately situated that it escaped the frost put up a few to have for such special occasions as the visit of the preacher. In those days the minister was a much more welcome visitor on the farm than the agent of get-rich-quick concerns and mining promoters, and there is a moral to that if I only had time to work it out. Because peaches were saved for such extra special occasions a tradition has grown up about them in many parts of the country. Some households, otherwise very bright, had a credit to the Farm's Institutes to which they belong, consider it an extravagance to preserve peaches unless they get them at sacrifice prices. Yet these same women will pay from ten to fifteen cents a quart for currants and berries that need far more sugar to do them up than the already sweet peaches. As peaches usually come in eleven-quart baskets you will find if you divide the price by eleven that peaches cost less per quart than any other fruit. But because they were once so great a luxury their wives are slow to realize that they should have more of them than of any kind of fruit, for they are both the cheapest and the best. There is no reason why every farmer's wife in the districts where peaches cannot be grown should not buy them as freely as they do other fruits and have them laid out when the preacher comes to dinner but when the boys and girls come home from the city and at all other times when they want to have something luxurious on the table.

Also it should be remembered that for eating from the head the peach is the best fruit of all, but you should use for this purpose only the peaches that you buy in the full light of day. Once upon a time, or perhaps I should say "Once upon another time," a newly arrived Irishman went out with a friend to steal peaches. It was dark and Pat had been told to grope along the branches for the fruit. Presently he whispered, "Molke!" His friend answered "Phwat!" "Has patches got legs?" "Naw." "Then begoba I've swallowed a straddle bug."

The Crabbe Hardware Co. Ltd.

The Foreign Office states that as yet it has no information from the Admiralty regarding the Sussex, the Englishman, Foreign Office or at the Admiralty. Only one supposition is heard in official circles to account for the incident in case it should develop that a German submarine is concerned, and that is that the Sussex in ball re-sembled a transport or a cruiser. Another possible explanation is that the Sussex was taking a route used largely for the conveyance of troops.

BRITAIN ASKS HOLLAND TO PUNISH NEWSPAPERS

THE HAGUE, April 6.—The British Government has asked the Dutch Government to call the newspaper Avondpost to account for spreading a false report of a British ultimatum to Holland, thus sowing distrust between two friendly nations.

The newspaper Handelsblad claims to know that the Avondpost report was inspired by the German Consulate at Amsterdam. The German Consul excuses himself, saying that he "had heard it from The Hague."
