DYING BY SLOW DEGREES.

Although not always aware of it yet thousands die by slow degrees of catarrh It first attacks the nose or throat, then the lungs, and finally spreads all through the system. Catarrhozone is the only remedy that will immediately prevent the spread of this awful disease. Every breath from the Inhaler kills thousands of germs, clears the throat and nose, aids expectoration and relieves the pain across the eyes. Catarrhozone erradicates every vestige of catarrh from the system, and is highly recommended also for Bronchitis, Asthma, Deafness, and Lung Trouble. Price $1.00; trial size 25c. all druggists. AT the Police Court yesterday morning His Honor gave an able and elaborate written judgment in the prosecution against Patrick Doherty, for a sale of liquor contrary to the provisions of the Prohibition Act 1900. In this case objection had been taken by Mr. Doherty's counsel that there was not sufficient information to warrant the issue of the summons. After reviewing the various cases cited, and the different sections of the Acts bearing upon the matter, His Honor gave it as his opinion that the information was sufficient to warrant proceedings thereon Two witnesses were examined, but owing to the absence of a third witness, the case was adjourned for one week. The case against Harry C. Connolly was dismissed.

MESSRS, Saunders & Newsom had at their stall yesterday three fine carcases of beef; one shorthorn heifer fed by D. McKinley, Esq., North River, one Holstein steer fed by Herbert Donalds, Esq., New London and one shorthorn steer fed by Hammond Toombs, Esq. North Rustico, The total weight dressed being 2758 lbs. Without doubt this has been the best display of beef since Easter. This firm cuts up a lot of very fine beef especially while the tourist trade is on. They had also on sale some very fine carcases of lamb, mutton and veal. An American gentleman who has visited all the great markets of the world including Smithfield Market in London declared that he never saw any meat that surpassed that which he saw in Saunders & Newsome's stall.

THE regular fortnightly meeting of the Cheese Board was held yesterday morning with a good attendance of salesmen. The buyers present were Messrs. Henry Aitken, A. J. Biffin, R. E. Spillett, Geo. Wheatley, Geo. E. Auld, Horace Haszard. The cablegram and Montreal firm, English market firm and advancing. Montreal 9½ to 9⅝, London 48 to 49, Brockville 9 9-16 firm and active. The sheese boarded was as follows: Lakeville 120, Stanley Bridge 280, St. Peter's 160, Cornwall 200, New Glasgow 210, New Dominion 235, Union 177. Orwell 230, Cardigan 70, Red Point 76, Red House 110, Hillsboro 200, New Perth 200, Dunstaffnage 155, Mount Stewart 90, Hazelbrook 150, Gowan Brae 85, Kensington 350, Dundas 150, Winsloe 140, East River 108, Wiltshire 115. The highest bid was 9½ by Mr. Biffin. His offer was accepted by St. Peter's, Orwell, Dunstaffnage, Hillsboro, Winsloe, St. George's Mt Stewart, East River, Lakeville, Gowan Brae and Dundas. At the same price Mr. Spillett purchased Stanley Bridge, Red Point, New Perth, Red House and Cardigan.

The third bid was 9 9-16 by Mr. Wheatley, but the remaining factories declined to sell. The next meeting will be on August 1st. After the sale of Cheese yesterday the following factories were purchased by John Wheatley. New Glasgow 210 boxes, Wiltshire 115 boxes.

DUNDAS Auxiliary of the W. F. M. S. is growing in membership and meetings are becoming more interesting. The country under study for July was India. In addition to the study of the various mission fields of the present time the society is studying the history of the missionary movement since the apostolic age following the course laid down in "Via Christi' and Earliest Missions in all Lands." Instructive papers on the different divisions of the subject were read by Mrs. Macdonald, Mrs. Robertson, Miss MacLure, Miss Millar and Miss Mathieson. These papers were commented on by the president and others. The following resolution was, on motion passed: That the thanks of this society are due those who so kindly assisted in various ways during Presbyterial meetings, to non members who entertained delegates, the gentlemen who made the tables, the ladies who provided the social lunch, those who carried delegates to and from the station and all who helped in any way.

THE rate-payers of the school at Granville at their annual meeting voted $80 for the improvement of the school, besides giving a supplement to their teacher Miss Mary B. Simpson who has given very good satisfaction during the year that is past.—Austin Taylor has the contract for building a new porch and repairing, painting, and otherwise improving the school building.—Rev. John Dystant preached his farewell sermon last Sunday week in the Methodist church here to a large and appreciative congregation. He has been going in and out among his people here during the past three years, and the Lord has blessed his labours. Both Mr. and Mrs. Dystant leaves Granville with the best wishes of all denominations for their happiness and welfare.—Rev. George Sellar his successor preached last Sunday evening from the words "If I be lifted up I will draw all men unto me". He handled his subject in a graceful and scholarly manner. —Our Sunday School is in a flourishing condition with a larger attendance than over before.—George Morris teacher of th Bible class, left last Tuesday for the North West, were he goes to labor for the Great Master. He will be very much missed as he was a zealous worker in everything tha pertained to the good of the community.—Mrs. Khann from Manchester, U. S., is visiting her old home, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. James Taylor.—Mrs. Henderson and daughter are also here frrm Providence R. I. they are the guests of her brother Edward Bergoyne.—Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Hecker of Wilmot made a flying visit to the home of his childhood which he had not seen for eighteen years. They were at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Henry.—Thomas Hinton and Leslie Wright of the firm of McGougan & Wright also were here this week, and returned to their homes in Summerside with well filled baskets of beautiful speckled trout.
