Costly Film Is Coming to The Prince Edward

"Hunchback of Notre Dame" is Changed to Avoid Offending Any Creed.

At the Prince Edward Theatre next Monday night will be held the local premier of "The Hunchback of Notre Dame," the pictorial version of Victor Hugo's classic which has come down through the ages with unimpaired lustre. Aside from the natural interest in the screening of such a notable masterpiece, there is a general interest to see the production which required more than a year to film and on which more than $1,000,000 was expended.

WOMEN IN LEFT SIDE AND BACK

Troubles Women Often Have Relieved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Lachine, Quebec.—"I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I suffered with pains in my left side and back, and with weakness and other troubles women so often have. I was away about six months. I saw the Vegetable Compound advertised in the Standard and I have taken several of it. I was a very sick woman and I feel so much better I would like to see it. I also use Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash. I recommend the medicines to my friends and I am willing for you to use my letter as a testimonial."—Mrs. M. W. Ross, 580 St. Anne Street, Lachine, Quebec.

Provost, Alberta.—"Perhaps you will remember sending me one of your books some time ago. I was in a bad condition and I suffer awful pains at times and I could not do anything. The doctor said I could not have children unless I was under an operation. I read testimonials of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the papers and I was recommended to take it. After taking three bottles I became much better and now have a bony baby four months old. I do my housework and help a little with the chores. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and am willing for you to use this testimonial letter."—Mrs. A. A. Ross, Box 54, Provost, Alberta.

ISLAND LADY BURIED.—The funeral of Miss Lucy Howatt whose accidental death was recorded at length in yesterday's Guardian was held on Sunday afternoon at 2:30 p.m. at Fairfield Cemetery, Fairfield, Cal. The Rev. Amigo Auditorium where the services were held was packed to overflowing by sorrowing relatives and friends assembled to show in some degree the love and esteem in which they held her who for nearly five years had given her best in the schools and in the homes of the sick and distressed. There was not room in the front of the stage for the great wreaths and clusters of flowers, so they were banked in the rostrum and the pedestals on either side. A large American flag covered the casket and as the head and front ex-service men displayed the Legion Emblem and colors, escorted by an honor guard. Two beautiful numbers were sung by the high school chorus accompanied by Mr. J. W. Mills, piano; Harold McDougall, cousin of Miss Howatt, sang with feeling "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere." Miss Anna Kyle, accompanying. Rev. Alfred Pearce of the Congregational Church delivered the eulogy touching upon the life work of Miss Howatt and depicting her fine Christian character. During the service Miss Marion Grace, a sister nurse of Valrico, and a companion of Miss Howatt in the training camps in France, told of her mother's love and devotion to the nurses and soldiers of the war-torn area of Europe. Through a drenching rain members of the American Legion who had charge of the rites and other ex-service men went to the cemetery for the interment and Post Ceremony. Thirty ex-soldiers and sailors were present, the largest number ever to don their uniforms on any occasion since the Armistice.—Miss Howatt was born in Victoria, P. E. I. forty-two years ago and was a daughter of the late James A. Howatt and niece of Miss Libbie Howatt of Augustine Cove and Mr. C. S. Howatt of Summerside.

FORMAL OPENING OF HOUSE.—The formal opening of the second session of the Fortieth General Assembly of the Provincial Legislature takes place this afternoon at 3:00 p.m. The House of Honor, which proceeds from the Assembly at 2:35 p.m., will consist of one hundred men from the Prince Edward Island Regiment, and commanded by Capt. W. J. Macdonald. His Honor Lieutenant Governor Herzog will leave Government House at 2:45 p.m. and the royal salute will be fired immediately on his arrival at the Parliament Building. The Grand of Honor will be preceded by the regimental band.

W. M. S. SOCIAL.—The Women's Missionary Society of St. Herbert and Clifton Methodist Church, held a very enjoyable birthday social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Mutch on the evening of March 13th. Mrs. Albert Mutch of Charlottetown, who organized this branch of the W. M. S. in the year 1889, and who has been such a faithful and earnest member and leader since that time, very ably filled the role of hostess. An interesting program well rendered was enjoyed by all. Luncheon was served to almost one hundred people. The proceeds amounted to $35 which is very helpful financially to this branch of the society. The members of the society are very grateful to those who so willingly helped with the program and to all who helped make the social such a successful and enjoyable affair.

WINS LAWSUIT.—Capt. T. G. Hayter of Murray River has arrived home from Providence, R. I., where he won an important lawsuit in the Superior Court of R. I. in Dec. 1924. Having gone over there in November last, he spent the winter in New England visiting relatives and friends. His many friends on the Island will give him a hearty welcome home. He is at present visiting his brother Evangelist J. W. Hayter for a few days before going home.

ST. PATRICK'S DAY.—Today, the Feast of St. Patrick will be celebrated by the Benevolent Irish Society by a parade to St. Dunstan's Cathedral where High Mass will be celebrated at 10 o'clock and a sermon preached by Rev. A. L. Sinclair. The parade, headed by the League of the Cross Band, will leave their hall on Queen Street (formerly the K. of C. Hall) at 9:30 and parade up Queen Street to Richmond to Great George to the Cathedral. After Mass it will return and proceed along Great George to Water Street, along Water to Prince of Wales to Grand, along Grand to Queen to their hall. The Society will be marshalled by Mr. P. Kelly. In the evening the three act comedy drama "The Kerry Road" will be presented in the Prince Edward Theatre.

TRACADIE AND VICINITY.—Owing to the recent snow the roads are still in a bad state. As the season's skating is over, many young sports find cycling on the ice a pleasant pastime for the time being. Miss Mary McCormack, teacher of Suffolk school, spent the week end visiting friends in Tracadie. Her friends hope that she will soon return again as she is a good sport.—Miss Bridie McKenna who has been the guest of her home in Scotchboro, expected to return to her studies in P. W. C. this week.—Mr. George McDonough of St. Dunstan's University, visiting his parents in Blooming Point.—The remains of the late Mr. Alexander McAskill, Maine formerly of Tracadie arrived Tuesday evening, and were interred in St. Donat's Cemetery Friday afternoon.

PLEASANT GROVE SCHOOL.—The 25th annual examination of the Pleasant Grove School was held on Thursday, Jan. 29th. Despite the wind and weather quite a number of visitors were present. The pupils were examined in the usual subjects by their teacher, Mr. L. O. Leonard, assisted by Grand of Honor, Mr. J. W. Mills, and his brother, Louis graduate of St. Dunstan's University and Miss Isabel McDonald, teacher of Grand Tracadie. The people were unanimous in their praise and appreciation of the good work which has been done by Mr. McDonald. The pupils and visitors being treated to candy by the teacher. The examination was brought to a close by singing the National Anthem.

Many Attend Funeral of Mr. G. A. Thompson

The funeral of the late Mr. Geo. A. Thompson, who died last Friday afternoon was one of the largest ever seen in that part of the Province, people from different sections of the Province turning out to pay their tribute to one who was so greatly respected and esteemed.

At a short service at the house the body was taken to the Presbyterian Church, where service was conducted by Rev. John Stirling, assisted by Rev. Mr. McLaughlin of Valleyfield, Rev. C. E. Armstrong, Pastor of the Church of Christ, Montague, Rev. Mr. Britton of the Baptist Church and Rev. Mr. Rowley of the Methodist Church.

The interment was in Lower Montague Cemetery.

The honorary pall bearers were Chief Justice Munro, G. S. Inman, K. C., Col. H. M. Davidson, George A. Poole, W. L. Poole, John Lemon and Russell Clark.

The active pall bearers were: Maynard P. Macdonald, M. P.; P. J. John, M. P.; Macdonald, D. J.; MacLean, J. W.; Carstairs; William MacLean and James W. Murdoch.

There was a large representation of the Masonic order, and a number of the brethren from Georgetown met the funeral at the cemetery and united with the Montague brethren in the impressive services at the grave, which were conducted by L. M. MacKinnon, Past Grand Master in addition to the regular religious services conducted by Rev. Mr. Stirling.

The floral tributes included remembrances from friends not only in this province but in other parts of Canada and the United States. There were also many telegrams of sympathy received.

Rev. John Stirling for his funeral sermon took as his text: Psalm 90:1—"Lord Thou hast been our dwelling place in all generations." He paid an eloquent tribute to Mr. Thompson as one of the prominent business men of the Province, a man of splendid intellect, and a richly stored mind, and a lover of the best literature. He was widely known for his kindness of heart, his tolerance, his sympathy, his interest in all activities leading to the welfare of the community, and his exceedingly friendly feeling for all. It was in the home, however, that the best side of his nature was revealed. In this connection, Mr. Stirling said that the loss of an earthly father in the home suggests the heavenly home referred to in the text, the revised version of which would be: "Lord Thou has been our home in all generations." The joys of the earthly home are but a forecast of the joys of the home eternal.

During the services the choir rendered the familiar hymns: "Lead Kindly Light," "Shall We Gather at the River," and "One Sweetly Sounded Thought," and Mrs. William Gerrick sang very sweetly the solo, "Crossing the Bar."

Following were the floral tributes:

Pillow: From the family and Miss Townsend.

Wreaths: From W. L. Poole and family, St. Andrews Lodge, A. F. & A. M.; Staff of Poole & Thompson's; Senator McLean, Harry D. McLean and Roy C. McLean; Southgate Import and Export Co., Norfolk, Va.; G. S. Inman, K. C. and Mrs. Inman; Mrs. W. W. Stanley and family, Ottawa; Col. H. M. Davidson and Mrs. Davidson; W. H. Townsend and family, Rollo Bay; The Sherwin Williams Co., of Canada; S. S. Hessian.

Crosses: Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Poole; Mr. S. R. Jenkins and Mrs. Jenkins; Berie and Ralph Beattie; Mr. and Mrs. T. G. Ives; Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Ferguson; Mrs. J. D. McIntyre; E. MacFarlane and family, Annapolis; Mr. and Mrs. Harry Brown; Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Hyndman.
