A JAILOR ATTACKED

Latest News of the City and Province.

By Reporters and Correspondents Everywhere.

CHARLOTTETOWN Engineers meet for drill in uniform this evening at 8 o'clock sharp. A full attendance is expected as squads will be told off for inspection. —By order.

The marriage took place at 2 o'clock Saturday of John C. Sims and Miss Margaret Fife, both of Charlottetown. The ceremony was performed by Rev. L. Williams. —Halifax Chronicle.

Mrs. JOHN McFARLANE Bedque who has been spending a few weeks with her sister Mrs. And' in Boston, returned home on Saturday last after having a very pleasant trip.

Capt. Montague Yates, who is in the city, says the Canadian Steamship line will not run their steamers the coming season. He states that the Atlantic and Lake Superior Railway has not yet furnished the terminal facilities that were promised and the steamship company will not run their boats until proper terminal facilities are provided. —Hx. Chronicle.

MR. JOHN D. MALCOLM, who has been a hard worker in the artistic department of The Youth's Companion, Boston, for the past six years, resumed his old place at the office on Thursday last, after having been absent four months on a visit to his home in Prince Edward Island. The color of his cheeks, and the light in his eye tell of renewed health, a condition in which he was sadly lacking when he went away, last June.

E. Le Roi Willis, proprietor of the Hotel Dufferin, St. John, and who is in Halifax at present, having driven his horse Special Blend in the free-for-all at the fair Friday, has been at Sydney in connection with his proposed removal there to manage the Sydney hotel. It is understood that Mr. Willis has sold his stable at St. John to Fred Monohan, of that city, for $1500. Mr. Willis has always been popular with Halifax, both as a horseman and a Boniface, and his friends here will wish him all success in the coal and iron town. —Hx. Chronicle.

SOME weeks ago it was learned that Mr. Geo. Munro was compelled to resign his position with Mr. Walter Matheson on account of ill health. Finding the fall air too severe Mr. Munro has decided to spend the winter in California and left for that place yesterday morning. George's many friends in Charlottetown and country hope that the bracing air of the balmily south will soon restore him to his old time vigor. A large number of friends were at the depot to bid him good bye.

The call from Duan Avenue Presbyterian church in this city to Rev. A Logan Gaggie of Truro N.S. was on-ided by a special session of the Presbytery of Toronto Friday evening and was concurred in. The call bears the signatures of 700 members of the congregation of Parkdale church. The call will be forwarded and proceeded with in the usual way at once. The vacancy in the church was caused by the resignation of Rev. D. C. Hossack. The call of Rev. A. L. Gaggie to Toronto, will likely be dealt with at a meeting of the Truro Presbyterians, to be held in Truro on Monday.

A JAILOR ATTACKED

By a Prisoner in The S'Side Jail.

INFLECTS UGLY WOUND

Other Prisoners Join In the Assault But Are Overpowered.

Three prisoners confined in the Summer-ids jail, awaiting trial attacked Keeper Gough last Saturday night. Mr. Gough went into the room occupied during the day by the three prisoners, and on ordering them to their respective cells for the night one of them, a prisoner named Gough, struck him on the face, inflicting an ugly bruise.

The other two joined in, but Mr. Gough, with the assistance of his son Mr. Gough, who happened to arrive in time, quickly overpowered them and looked them up securely.
