KING GEORGE CELEBRATES 42ND BIRTHDAY

SECRECY SHROUDS COMING NAZIS PARLEY

HITLER PLANS CONFERENCE ON POLISH BORDER

Observers Believe June 19 Gathering May Determine Policy Towards Free State Of Danzig.

(Associated Press)
MARIENWERDER, East Prussia, June 9.—Chancellor Hitler will address 600 of his oldest and trusted followers on Polish frontiers troubled here June 19.

He has chosen for his pronouncements this town of 14,000 inhabitants which borders the free state of Danzig, once Polish and once German and governed since the Great War under League of Nations supervision.

He will speak in the medieval castle of Marienburg, once the seat of the Teutonic Knights who conquered Little Danzig six centuries ago—and who later suffered crushing defeat at the hands of a Polish King.

The setting will be a symbolic reminder of the Nazi theory that National Socialism is a crusade as that of the knights of old, and that Nazis are members of an order.

Nazi leaders have emphasized strongly that the party is comparable to the old Teutonic Order, which had its origin in the 12th century Christian crusades.

CALLS STEEL STRIKE PARLEY

Governor Of Ohio Seeks Peaceful Settlement In Dispute.

YOUNGSTOWN, O., June 9.—(C. P.)—Governor Martin L. Davey of Ohio stretched a hand of peace to antagonists in the Great Lakes steel strike today to avert "the danger of preventable bloodshed in Ohio" as city officials in Monroe, Mich., sought a peaceful settlement of a strike there.

Governor Davey cited "the ominous chance of rioting, bloodshed and loss of life," in asking Tom Girdler, Chairman of Republic Steel corp. and outspoken foe of unionization, to meet in joint conference with Philip Murray, Chairman of the Steel Workers Organizing Committee.

While news of the peace overture spread down the picket lines in Ohio, Mayor Daniel A. Knaggs of Monroe had mobilized 100 civilians for the planned reopening tomorrow of the closed Newton Steel Company, allied with Republic.

The reopening was deferred from tomorrow morning, however until afternoon and representatives of company and striking workers agreed to meet with Governor Frank Murphy at Lansing before that time in an effort to reach a peaceful settlement.

The Lansing conference was set for noon. Striking C. I. O. members had announced they would mass a picket line to oppose the reopening planned for eight A.M. Agreement to defer it came after a conference of George A. Krogstad, State Labor Commissioner, with Mayor Daniel A. Knaggs, Charles Kiser of the C. I. O. and H. H. Holloway, district manager for Republic Steel.

INQUEST INTO FRANCIS DEATH TO CONTINUE

Twenty-one Witnesses Testify—Hearing To Continue Today.

Twenty-one witnesses gave evidence Tuesday as a coroner's investigation into the death of John Charles Francis, 55-year-old Scotch-fort resident, whose lifeless body was discovered in a roadside ditch at St. Avards early on May 23, continued. The hearing adjourned until today for evidence by Dr. Ralph Smith of Dalhousie University, Halifax, concerning stains, believed by police to have been blood spots, found on a Dodge coupe mentioned in evidence heard during the investigation.

The inquest, conducted by Coroner Dr. J. Yeo, would resume this afternoon at two o'clock, it was announced Tuesday. Since the hearing began on May 26th forty-one witnesses have been examined. Crown Prosecutor D. Edgar Shaw, K.C., has been acting for the Crown. Testifying Tuesday were: Leslie J. Stacey, William Murray, George Batt, Earl Phillips, Wendell Worth, Reginald Webb, Jeffrey Fitzgerald, Wilfred Duffy, John MacKinnon, Arthur Collins, Angus MacEachern, Frank Hennessey, Sgt. N. J. Anderson, and Inspector J. Fripps, all of Charlottetown; Earl Cook, Hamilton H. Brown, and Harry Vessey, York; Benjamin Mallett, York Road; Robert Duvar, Charlottetown; Royalty; Wallace Andrew, East Royalty; and Wendell Ellis, Donaldston, recalled.

First witness to give evidence Tuesday was L. J. Stacey, manager of Woolworth's Store, Charlottetown, who told that he went out the St. Peter's Road shortly before one o'clock on Sunday morning, May 23. He noticed an old model car parked on the right side of the road by the cemetery. Some people, he couldn't say how many, were about the car. Returning to town about ten minutes later from the Club House at Bellevue Golf Links where he had taken an express parcel he noticed the car was gone. That would be a few minutes after one. The night was foggy and it was difficult to see the parked car, which was without lights, until almost up to it, the witness said.

William Murray, book keeper at Martin's Garage, and George Batt, of the firm Batt and McRae, told

German Reprisal Tactics Repudiated

(C. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
LONDON, June 9.—The British Government today repudiated such tactics as the German naval bombardment of Almeria.

"Yes, we accept—always accept—the right of self-defence, but we should never subscribe to the right of retaliation," Foreign Secretary Eden told the House of Commons when questioned on efforts to rebuild the Spanish Non-Intervention framework.

Joachim Von Ribbentrop, German Ambassador, arrived here by plane from Berlin tonight after a conference at Berchtesgaden with Hitler. He is expected to discuss with Eden tomorrow the plan to re-install the four-power naval patrol around Spain.

Seek London Society Girl's Own Story Of Disappearance

LONDON, June 9.—A dress, a pair of gold evening shoes and a coat of burnout provided Scotland Yard detectives today with their only clues in the strange eight-day disappearance of Diana Batty, found this morning in a state of collapse.

The 21 year old society girl was unable to tell where she had been since June 1, when she vanished, until she was noticed early today sobbing on a doorstep next to her fiancé's home.

Investigators seeking to trace her whereabouts during the blank eight days learned that "Didi" was wearing a different dress than the one she had on when she vanished from the home of her childhood friend Viscountess Long.

BANKER SEES IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS

Mr. S. H. Logan, President Of Bank Of Commerce, Comments On Conditions During Visit Here.

SIR ROBERT BORDEN

OTTAWA, June 9.—(C. P.)—Condition of Sir Robert Borden was described tonight by attendants as "grave." Signs of "acute cardiac failure" became evident late today.

The veteran statesman and Canada's Prime Minister during the war has been ill at his home with a heart attack. He is 82.

Urges Church Face Squarely Social Problems

OTTAWA, June 9.—(CP)—Denunciation by a former moderator of the tardiness of the Church in facing squarely social problems brought about by the depression caused Commissioners to the General Assembly of the Presbyterian Church in Canada today to instruct a committee to lay before the next Assembly a strong, constructive program that would stimulate interest of congregations in human problems brought about by economic depression.

After the Committee on Evangelism and Church Life and Work had presented its report, Very Rev. W. G. Brown of Saskatoon, Moderator in 1931, let loose his broadside against its failure to bring in one proposal, or even touch upon unemployment.

Unemployment was the greatest problem the Church had to face. If the Church had not the courage to tackle it or try to mitigate its consequences then the Church alone was to blame if young people walked by its doors, he said.

Mr. Brown's motion that the Committee on Evangelism and Church Life and Work be instructed to make a survey of economic conditions, the causes of war and the conditions under which peace might prevail was endorsed.

The committee was also ordered to lay before the 1938 Assembly proposals for a constructive program "that will stimulate the interest of all our congregations in these great social problems."

Application of Rev. Joseph Thackeray, Cape Breton and Newfoundland Presbyter, for reception into the ministry of the Presbyterian Church was approved.

OTTAWA, June 9.—Despite a reported decrease in membership of the Presbyterian Church in Canada during the year, total contributions by congregations soared by $59,267 and the total mortgage indebtedness was reduced $187,759 Dr. J. W. MacNamara reported to the general assembly in a statistical and financial report tonight.

Total membership declined by 2,897 to 117,062. The Maritime and Manitoba Synods reported small increases. The Toronto and Kingston synod had the largest decline.

"Battle Of Cheers" In British House

(C.P. Cable, By Guardian's Special Wire)
LONDON, June 9.—A battle of cheers in the House of Commons ended in a draw today.

When Vyvyan Adams, Conservative, asked Foreign Secretary Eden if he would remain in the British Ambassador at Berlin, Sir Neville Henderson, that "this old democracy has not anything to learn from any foreign dictatorship" Labor members rocked the House with cheers, drowning out other questions.

Conservatives counter-attacked with an even more generous outburst when Sir Alfred Knox, a member of the "diehard" wing of the party, asked the Foreign Secretary why he had not congratulated to His Majesty's Ambassador for making a real contribution to peace.

The incident arose over a question concerning Sir Neville's speech in Berlin June 1, which Eden previously had described to the House as an expression of personal views. Sir Neville said Britain could "learn several useful lessons" from Nazi Germany.

ANGLO-U.S. PACT DEBATED

Discussion Involves Principle Of Imperial Preference.

LONDON, June 9.—Belief that a trade agreement between Great Britain and the United States would not be irrevocable with the principle of Imperial preference was expressed today in the House of Commons by Oliver Stanley, new President of the Board of Trade in succession to Sir Walter Runciman.

Stanley spoke in the course of a debate on the government's Finance Bill which also covered the new Anglo-Canadian trade treaty and developed into a wide discussion of Imperial preference. He declared he did not believe a United States agreement was out of harmony with the principle of Imperial preference, or that separate agreements with foreign countries would impinge on Imperial preference.

Sir Archibald Sinclair, Liberal, said he considered the Anglo-Canadian trade agreement a remarkable step forward from the Ottawa agreements. Economic weapons, such as tariffs and quotas, he said, bred military armaments such as battleships, tanks and bombers.

Opposition to outside agreements by Great Britain and advocacy of a strict policy of Empire preference came from Leopold Amery, Conservative and former dominions secretary.

Pope To Continue Fight In Germany

(A. P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
CASTEL GANDOLFO, Italy, June 9.—Pope Pius XI personally declared today he would continue the fight for German Catholics "no matter what becomes of us" and lamented the "menacing" conditions within Nazi Germany.

The Pope's pronouncement, made to a group of Bavarian Catholic pilgrims, was interpreted as an indirect reply to the last German note which virtually broke off diplomatic relations between the Holy See and Germany.

The Pope said conditions in Germany were "so grave, so menacing and so odorous" for Catholicism that "they cause one to weep."

Mr. S. H. Logan, President Of Bank Of Commerce, Comments On Conditions During Visit Here.

"For complete economic recovery which is required to relieve distress in various parts of the country we need uniformly good crops and continued favorable markets for agricultural products, together with a further increase in construction and better conditions for fishermen along the Atlantic Coast," Mr. S. H. Logan, Toronto, president of the Canadian Bank of Commerce, and President of the Canadian Bankers' Association said in an interview in Charlottetown last night.

"Farm purchasing power for all Canada has risen by about 8 per cent during the past year. Unfortunately, this improvement has not been general, for about one-third of the agriculture population suffered reverses, mainly through drought," the Bank President said. "Included in the remaining two-thirds of this population who enjoyed better crop returns were many in the Maritime Provinces."

Mr. Logan, who is making a tour of branches in the Maritimes and Newfoundland, arrived in Charlottetown yesterday afternoon. He is accompanied by Mr. E. Holmes of Toronto, chief inspector of the Bank; Mr. W. V. Gordon, Halifax, superintendent of the Maritime and Newfoundland branches; and Mr. George Taylor, manager of the Canadian Bank of Commerce at Halifax. Yesterday afternoon the visiting bankers went to Summerside. This is Mr. Logan's first visit to the province and he expressed himself as delighted with its beauty. He is a native of Springhill, N.S.

Last night Canadian Bank of Commerce branch managers and others gathered in Charlottetown. Those present included Messrs. R. S. P. Jardine, Summerside; A. G. Parks, Alberton; L.H. Coffin, Mon-

Gold Market Is Back To "Normal"

LONDON, June 9.—(AP)—The gold market returned today to what brokers called "normal."

A selling spree which reached unprecedented proportions last week on the offerings of nervous and profit-seeking hoarders died down after holders of bullion became convinced Great Britain and the United States did not contemplate immediate changes in currency policies.

More than $2,000,000 in gold was sold today, mostly for shipment to New York, despite increased prices which made gold exports less profitable.

Federal Aid Is Sought By Ranchers

SHAUNAVON, Sask., June 9.—(CP)—Faced with feed shortage and harassed by drought, Saskatchewan ranchers will ask the Federal Government, through the Saskatchewan Stock Growers' Association, that the Government's feeder freight policy instituted as an emergency measure last year, be again put into force "as soon as possible."

New Canadian Naval Training Ship Launched At Meteghan

METEGHAN, N. S., June 9.—(CP)—The Royal Canadian Navy's new training ship, H. M. C. S. Venture rested on a marine slip in this little St. Mary's Bay village tonight, her launching a complete success.

As the 190-ton schooner, almost the double of the famed Nova Scotia Bar Bluenose in her lines, slid down the ways at 11.20 A.M. A.D.T. today, Mrs. Norman Rogers, wife of Canada's Labor Minister, smashed the traditional bottle of champagne against her bow. A band played "The Maple Leaf Forever." Nearly 9,000 persons looked on.

Military Display Marks Observance In Empire Capital

Traditional "Trooping Of The Colors" Attended By King And Brothers At Horse Guards Parade

(By The Canadian Press)
Traditional salute of 21 guns boomed out from Parliament Hill and other saluting stations throughout the land as Canada joined the Empire yesterday in celebration of the birthday of King George VI.

It was the first official observance since the new monarch's accession to the Throne less than a month ago. Actual birthday of the new King is Dec. 11, on which date he was born 42 years ago, but when he ascended the Throne he expressed the desire it be observed June 9.

Dominion and provincial government offices, banks, stock exchanges and schools were closed for the day.

EARL BALDWIN TAKES SEAT IN UPPER HOUSE

(Canadian Press)
LONDON, June 9.—Stanley Baldwin, like Asquith, Balfour and Disraeli before him, entered the House of Lords today to finish out his parliamentary career amidst the Upper Chamber's quiet, assured surroundings.

Somewhat bewildered in finding himself the centre of a colorful pageant—changed from plain Mr. Baldwin to "Sir Stanley Baldwin, K.G."—Earl Baldwin of Bewdley, Viscount Cornwall of Corvedale in the County of the United Kingdom—the stocky country Squire stroked his forehead meditatively and felt for pockets that did not exist in his crimson robe as he stood at the threshold of the crowded lords.

Then, after a clerk in the language of olden days had "summoned" him to Parliament, the new Peer took the oath and was escorted to a front bench. There he remained standing and, placing his cocked hat on his head, bowed three times to the Lord Chancellor, Viscount Halifax, who acts as Speaker of the House of Lords.

Four Canadian girls were asked to leave the restaurant of the British Broadcasting Company today because they had bare legs.

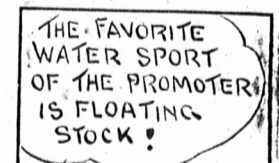

The girls were members of the contingent participating in the display to be given Saturday by the Women's League for Health and Beauty at Wembley Stadium. They entered the restaurant in their gym suits following a rehearsal for a television program.

The four were: Marion Gibson, Montreal; Alice Ellis, Ottawa; Natalie Platter, Toronto.

The restaurant attendant politely asked them to leave, explaining that bare legs were prohibited. They retired, changed to ordinary clothes and then returned for lunch.

"There is nothing indecent about the costume," said Miss Platter. "It is a workmanlike affair which gives girls specializing in physical culture the freedom they should have."
