Postponed Harness Races Scheduled For Today

City Championship Rifle Shoot On Saturday Afternoon

The big harness racing program which was scheduled for the Covehead Track yesterday afternoon, but was postponed due to unfavorable weather conditions, will get underway there this afternoon at 1:30, providing weather conditions permit.

It will be the final half of the two-day program which got away to a highly successful start on Wednesday afternoon, and features the Free-For-All and three classified events which are all packed with top-notch entries.

The meet, which will be the final chapter to the long list of racing successes that have been held over the "Parlor Track" this season, is expected to come up with some outstanding racing and keen track battles that will be a fitting climax to a very successful season.

Although many were no doubt disappointed over yesterday's postponement, it is anticipated that an even bigger crowd will be in attendance today to take in the fine racing that is scheduled for the final afternoon program there.

AMERICAN LEAGUE

New York at Washington postponed rain (doubleheader tomorrow).

International (Playoff)

Montreal at Buffalo postponed rain.

Not only has this waiting around and killing time caused the loss of three valuable players on their roster, but it has also had a demoralizing effect on the whole team who are bound to become stale with inactivity.

But it always seems to be the same story where Island teams are concerned in Maritime play, not only in baseball, but in hockey as well, when local teams have to wait for the mainland at playoff time, and usually when it does come along, are compelled to rush through a hectic series at the last minute to meet some playoff deadline with hardly time to catch their breath between playing and travelling.

It seems a shame that such is the case, but there seems to be little that can be done about it, as most of the governing bodies that regulate these things are on the other side of the water, and the Islanders must content themselves with waiting while the mainlanders roll along in their own sweet time about getting around to the playoffs.

With the month of September gradually drawing to a close to make way for the real fall weather of October, which means football weather, many of the "piskin paraders" are starting to get into the spirit of things and are turning out to get in shape for the big game that are ahead of them this season.

The wearers of red and white at St. Dunstons' University have been turning out regularly since they returned to their studies at the "college on the hill" and have many of the old boys back in uniform as well as many new, likely looking prospects for the opening of their intercollegiate series with U. N. B. and Mount which is the forerunner to the Maritime title clashes.

The Prince of Wales College Welshmen, under coach Gordon Bennett, have also been out booting the ball around for the past week or so to get some of the old hands back in uniform and break in some of the newer candidates for this year's squad which will be again opposing the second line S. D. U. team for intermediate intercollegiate honors that always produces plenty of fireworks and close competition.

Although there have been no official releases yet as to when the various football schedules will get underway, it is believed that the N. B. E. series, which is being held home and home affairs between S. D. U., U. N. B. and Mt. A. will likely get rolling within the next week or so, with it is expected that the intermediates will not be long behind them in launching their gridiron battles.

keeping an eye on the Greek border is a possibility. It might be Dr. Tsang's objective. It would serve to keep the issues alive. And it would be an "out" for the U.N. The Chinese delegation, of course, has not confirmed that it will request any U.N. action. Dr. Tsang may be merely preparing against the possibility of a Moscow or Peking demand for his replacement by a representative of "all" China, meaning Communist China.

Funeral Of Lloyd O'Brien Saturday

The funeral of the late Lloyd O'Brien, fatally injured in an automobile accident at Foxboro, Mass., Sept. 20, will be held Saturday from the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry O'Brien, Alberton. The funeral will be at 10 o'clock to the Catholic Church at Alberton. Burial will be in the church cemetery.

The funeral will be a simple affair, and perhaps a few friends will be present. There may be a period when there will be a few Chinese.

King-Prada Bout Scheduled Tonight

NEW YORK, Sept. 23 — (CP) — "LIT" Arthur King of Toronto, the British Empire lightweight champion, meets Alfredo Prada of Argentina in a 10-round bout tomorrow night.

The fight is part of Madison Square Garden's "All-Star" show to open the long winter schedule. Enrique Bolanos, clever Los Angeles lightweight, is matched against Terry Young of New York in another 10-rounder.

REMEMBER WHEN

By The Canadian Press

New York Yankees' Charles (Red) Ruffing stopped Washington Senators' bid for the American League pennant 17 years ago today by handouting the Nats with three hits in 10 innings. The big redhead won his own game when he drove in the winning run with a single hit in the last of the 10th.

Sport Echoes From Prince County

On account of a bit of jumbled type or a line missing or something of the sort, we were presented with a terrific argument with ourselves in one of the last "Echoes." We wanted to say the following: "We don't think Summerside should have lost the game because they refused to play after six o'clock; they did, however, lose the game because after what was equivalent to eight innings of play they were five runs behind the Knights." We hope this clears up the matter and that no one will think we have a dual personality.

The melancholy days have just checked in their baggage and still there is no play-off game in sight for the idle Curran & Briggs baseball team. The C & B club has lost two of their most valuable players, Gordie Mackay and Alan Stewart, having gone to college, and it is about to lose another of its aces, Les Gaudet departing for McGill in a few days. Thus it looks as if the Island champions will go into the Maritime finals a badly crippled ball club and all because the mainland baseball authorities forget they are considerably north of the Big League centres and persist in playing ball as late as they do in the big time.

The R.C.A.F. Hurricanes and Pliers are dishing up some fairly smart softball mixed with rather glaring mistakes as they battle it out for the softball championship of Summerside. The Hurricanes led the regular league schedule but are now trailing the Pliers no games to two. One more victory for the Pliers will give them the championship. The Hurricanes' troubles seem to be caused by the fact that their ace pitcher, Lamourieux, who kept them on the top of the heap all year, has not been available for pitching duties during the final play-offs.

Those Pendergast boys from Kensington are not lightning on the loose in the ring, but when they tag an opponent the target quite often gets up off the floor wearing a glassy look. Their punches seem to lack snap, they don't appear to be hurting but ask some of the boys who have been on the receiving end.

Basketball is beginning to be a topic of conversation among the fellows who play this game. That's as far as it's gone as yet but it won't be long now before the boys will be shooting for the baskets again.

Report has it that the Summerside Hockey rink was hanged drawn and quartered during the summer season. Whether the tired old hulk can be whipped into shape for another hockey season is problematical. If it can't then we will have the unenviable distinction of being among the very few towns of our size in Canada that have no closed-in rink for hockey.

Caps Interested In Sudden Death Game For Title

FREDERICTON, Sept. 22 — (CP) — Kenneth H. Staples, president of the Fredericton Capitals baseball club, said tonight his team would be interested in a "sudden death" game with the Nova Scotia champions for the Maritime senior baseball title.

He said all the Capitals' imports had returned home. If a single playoff could be arranged for Fredericton or the year John the Capitals would have some of their outstanding men flown back and complete the team with Fredericton players.
