Address And Presentation

Mr. and Mrs. James A. Murphy Emerald, Honored by Neighbors and Friends.

On Friday evening, March 6th, the friends of Mr. and Mrs. James A. Murphy, Emerald, assembled at their home and presented them with the following address accompanied by a well filled purse. Mr. W. H. Deighan acting as chairman, for the occasion, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy were delightfully surprised by the kindness of their friends. Mr. Murphy expressing his thanks in a few well chosen words telling of their regret in parting and the warm esteem in which they would always look back on the happy days spent in Emerald.

Following is the address: Mr. and Mrs. Murphy and family. Dear Friends:—We your friends of Emerald and surrounding districts, have assembled here tonight to show you by our presence the esteem in which you are held by one and all, and also, to tell you that we feel very deeply the loss that we and the whole community are sustaining in your departure from Emerald, to make for yourself a new home near the Western Ocean.

We know that it is not the love of money nor the hope of better times that is taking you West for in your comfortable home you had all that you could desire. We feel too, that you are not tired of your associations in Emerald,—the home of peace and good-will. We believe that you sacrifice home and friends with the cherish-ed hope that the warm breezes of the Pacific will bring back the glow of health to Mrs. Murphy. That it may quickly do so, is our "heart's best wish." With this hope in mind, we part with you, not forever, but for a short time. We know you will make many friends in the land of the setting sun, but we feel confident that the friends of your childhood days and the land of your birth will not be forgotten, but will always find a tender spot in your affections. May the dear friends you are leaving have such attractions for you that you will always long for the happy day when you will again take up the toll of life in the land of your birth. Until that happy time, we say "farewell" and wish you God's blessing, peace, happiness, health and prosperity in the home you will make in Western Canada. Please accept this gift as a token of friendship and good-will. Signed on behalf of the people of Emerald.
