THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN.

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

Miss Gertrude Vaughn, City, left yesterday morning for Boston.

The flower committee of St James Church meet in the Hall this evening at seven, for sprucing.

Miss Katie Gay will sing at the Union Commercial College closing in Kindergarten Hall this evening.

D.R.C. Archibald, was a passenger by the Stanley yesterday and is the guest of J. T. and Mrs. Melin.

A.L. Fraser, Souris, was nominated by the Conservatives yesterday for King's County for the Dominion election.

Any young boy who desires to run errands and make himself generally useful around an office should apply at The Guardian at once.

The Guardian has received from Hickey and Nicholson, City, one each of their exceptionally pretty calendars and pictures which they are this year sending to their customers.

There were 25 passengers going and 20 returning by the S.S. Empress yesterday. The outward cargo included 1000 bags oats, 500 boxes smelts, 100 boxes dressed poultry and one horse.

The remains of the late Mrs. George P. Tanton will arrive by the express train tonight from Somerville, Mass., funeral on Friday from the residence of Conductor Tanton, King's Square at 2.30 p. m.

Many persons were attracted to H. H. Brown's window, on Queen Street, City, yesterday to view the large candle, five feet six inches high. At the base of the candle is a ten dollar gold piece which will be given to the one who successfully guesses how long the candle will burn after it is lighted.

The Nickel was crowded last night and although good pictures are always put on the cinema was reached last night with "The Torpedo" which is a most realistic picture showing the torpedoes leaving the boats and one close view of the war factory being seen on its destruction. An officer of the Corps of Guides and a non-com of the Light Horse remarked that every military man and is not every British subject should see it. In the last picture showing the big ship flying the flag of Old England the crowd being brought down the house. The other pictures, both comedy, were good. The program will be repeated tonight with a new illustrated song, "I'd rather be a sep than a Bill."

A very pleasant event was celebrated at the home of R. L. and Mrs. Ramsay, LeCombe, Alta, December 4th, 1907, when Mrs. Ramsay's sister, Margaret M. Bernard daughter of John and Mrs. Bernard formerly of Danby but now residing in LeCombe, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to M. Garfield Christie. The bride was attended by Miss M. Traver, while the groom was supported by Leslie Bernard, brother of the bride. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. White of the Presbyterian Church. Many presents testify to the high esteem in which Mr. and Mrs. Christie are held in the community. Among people from this Province present were: John and Mrs. Bernard, S. and Mrs. Pillman, R. and Mrs. Pillman, J. G. and Mrs. Clarke, N. and Mrs. Morrison, P. and Mrs. Walker, Miss F. L. and Miss Bertha Beattie, D. MacKay, Ira McLeod, Dan Bernard, W. Harris and A. L. Craig.

"At Christmas tide the open hand scatters its bounty o'er sea and land."

Public attention will naturally be arrested on opening the pages of the magnificent Christmas number just issued by the Farm's Advocate and Home Magazine, of London, Ont., with the article on "Electrical Development in Ontario" by Prof. W. H. Day, of the Ontario Agricultural College, who has given an exhaustive and illuminating study of this vital subject which concerns farmers as well as capitalists of industry in the towns. Besides these there are articles on the National Live Stock Record, the English Dairy Short-horn, the course of trade in Canadian dairy products, the reviews of Canadian livestock and farm industries; Maritime types by A. E. Burke; the beautification of rural homes and highways, and the official report and awards in the split-log drag competition, for which (early in the year) two sets of cash prizes were offered by the Farm's Advocate. W. A. McLean C.E. of the Highways Branch, writes a comprehensive report, including the awards of the competition, which will give the cause of road improvement a tremendous impetus. There are masterly articles on every branch of agriculture, from fast horses and fruit transportation to a "laking" poem "The Khan." The illustrations of this issue are reproductions from actual photographs, the reality of which a discerning public will appreciate. To be thoroughly appreciated, we advise our readers to secure and carefully read this splendid holiday number which goes supplementary to all its subscribers, or may be obtained at 25 cts. per copy.

To secure the highest market prices for their goods is the aim of every shipper and this the firm of Healy & Lyons, commission fish merchants, 184 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, always succeeds in getting for their customers. They are large buyers and with the ready trade which is always their will handle and quickly dispose of some or all sent them from the Province. There is good call for Provincial shipments on the American market at present and intending shippers would do well to look up this firm as which appears in this issue, before making same.

From his City, in which he was a well-known figure, there will be missed John P. Tanton, whose death took place yesterday evening at his home, Malpas Road. The late Mr. Tanton had passed the three score and ten years of life, during which he, at various times, occupied many prominent positions in his native city of Charlottetown. He was a venerable and accurate Son of Temperance, having occupied the highest positions in that order, for which he always worked enthusiastically and with much success. He was elected to the City Council, for two successive terms and took a great deal of interest in civic affairs. He is survived by his widow, and by three sons, A. W. of Southport, and L. P. and H. A. of this City; and by one daughter, Mrs. Lowman Coombs also of this City. One brother William, a resident of Charlottetown also survives him. There will be general regret for his loss, in which The Guardian respectfully joins.
