—DOUBLE WEDDING — An event of wide interest took place at Kensington on June 22, 1948, when Edythe Catherine and Willa Ruth, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund Stavert, were the charming brides at a double wedding ceremony, at the Presbyterian Manse. Speaking the solemn vows before Rev. J. A. McGowan, Edythe Catherine and James David, son of Mr. and Mrs. Allan Brown, Long River, were joined in the holy bonds of matrimony, while Willa Ruth became the wife of Robert George, son of Mr. and Mrs. Colin Mountain, Darnley. Both brides wore becoming suits, Edyth's blue, with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses and Ruth's turquoise with black accessories and fuschia roses. Following the ceremony, the bridal party motored to Summerside to sit for photos, returning to the home of the brides' parents at Kensington, where a delicious wedding supper was served at 5:30. About 75 invited guests were present. The dainty pink and white color scheme was carried out, in the dining room, with streamers, candles and cut flowers. Beautifully decorated wedding cakes, topped with miniature bridal couples adorned the tables. Those assisting in serving were four aunts of the brides, Mrs. W. L. Johnston, Mrs. William Stavert, Mrs. James H. Andrews, and Mrs. Freeman Paynter, and their cousin, Mrs. Lewis Moase. For the reception, Mrs. Brown chose a gown of green crepe, with which she wore white roses, while Mrs. Mountain's choice was turquoise crepe, with a corsage of fuschia roses. Each bride wore her bridegroom's gift, a gold locket. The brides' mother wore a becoming gown of black with silver trimmings. The grooms' mothers were each attractively attired, Mrs. Brown in a two-tone blue crepe with a corsage of white roses, and Mrs. Mountain in floral silk jersey. The following morning, both happy young couples left on a motor tour, taking in various points of interest in the Maritimes. Bur.

Address And Presentation

On July 13th Mr. and Mrs. Jack Nicholson and winsome little daughter left on return to their home in Dryden, Ont., where Mr. Nicholson holds a responsible position as foreman in a large pulp mill there.

While here they visited many places of interest. As it was Mrs. Nicholson's first trip here, she was more than delighted with the beauty of P. E. I.

On the evening previous to their return home, the members of the Nicholson family, numbering up to sixteen, held a reunion at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hedley MacPherson, Hampshire, in honor of their mother, Mrs. Hugh Nicholson's birthday.

A very delightful supper was served by her daughters, Mrs. Donald McDonald and Mrs. Hedley McPherson, the center of interest being a beautiful birthday cake lighted with candles.

Later in the evening all gathered in the living room, where an address was read by Mrs. Jack Nicholson, and a chest of silver and a well-filled purse was presented to her.

Although taken by surprise Mrs. Nicholson, in a few well-chosen words thanked her children and their family for their kindness and best wishes to her.

After singing "For She's A Jolly Good Fellow", the remainder of the evening was spent in social intercourse, with music being furnished by Mr. Donald McDonald and Mr. Rollie Ward.

Following is the address.

Mother: On the occasion of your birthday Monday, July 12th, 1948, we your grateful children wish to convey to you in this small way our appreciation for your ever-loving kindness and untiring care.

Now, dear mother, when your thoughts dwell on each of us and though at times we may seem neglectful, we think of you always as one precious to our hearts, and we ask you to accept these small gifts not for their value but to convey to you our love and to show the high esteem in which you are held by each of us.

Your Family.

Howlan

Mrs. Gaspie Arsenault has as her guest her neice, Mrs. Dominick Arsenault, of Bedeque.

Miss Dora Blanchard, Lot 7, has been visiting in Howlan at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Arsenault.

Master Camillus Gallant of Duvar was in Howlan on Wednesday.

Mr. Elmer Gallant, Piusville, was guest of his cousin, Paul Gallant.

Mr. and Mrs. Fulton Tomson of Charlottetown are visiting in the western part of Prince County.

Mr. and Mrs. Toni Power of Summerside motored to Howlan on Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. Tennis Peters and Mr. and Mrs. Jos. B. Arsenault spent Sunday p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ben L. Arsenault.

Mr. and Mrs. John F. Gallant and Mr. and Mrs. John Finnan spent a pleasant p.m. at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Arsenault.

Robert Doiron called on his relatives in Howlan on Thursday before returning to Saint John, N.B., where he is employed.

Mr. and Mrs. Oswald Lanthorne are now spending their vacation at the home of her parents, Mr and Mrs. Oliver Peters, of Duvar.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Gallant, accompanied by Mr. and Mrs. Henry Perry and their six children, all of Charlottetown, motored to Howlan on Friday afternoon, returning to town on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. Felix Doiron, accompanied by her daughter, Mrs. Anthony Finnan, also Ruth and Pauline, went on a few days' visit to Halifax to visit Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Gallant.

Mr. Earnest Brown, who has been employed in Halifax is now home on a vacation. Earnie, as he is better known, had an accident resulting in a broker vertebrae in his neck, so that he is wearing quite a rigid cast. Here's hoping that he will soon be freed from this cast and well again. Earnie is a veteran of World War II.

Mrs. Jos. F. Arsenault and children, of Duvar, who were visiting at her parents' home, Mr. and Mrs. Jos. M. Gallant, Urbanville, were called home on the sudden illness of Mr. Arsenault, the result of which Mrs. Arsenault and little son had to cancel their trip to St. Anne's Pilgrimage in Quebec. Here's hoping Mr. Arsenault who is now in Summerside Hospital, will soon be able to return home to his wife and family, well again.

Mrs. Robert Day of Toronto, Ontario, were visiting recently in Norway, the guests of Mrs. Heffel's and Mrs. Day's mother, Mrs. Clifford Shea and Mr. Shea.

Mrs. Thomas Matthews, Belmont, Mass., who came to visit her mother, Mrs. William Gaudet, Pleasant View, was a week-end guest of her sister, Mrs. W. J. Shea and Mr. Shea, Tignish Village.

Mr. Kenneth Fraser, C.N.R., Station Agent, at Bradalbane, is now enjoying his annual vacation, and spending it along with Mrs. Fraser and their baby daughter, Catherine, at Tignish, with Mrs. Fraser's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Morrissey.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Foley and children, Leonard and Edward, of New York, N. Y., spent a week in Tignish recently with Mrs. Foley's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Peter J. Burke. They also visited with Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Cameron and family, Tignish.

Mr. Clarence King, Moncton, N. B., is in Tignish renewing aquaintances, and while here he is the guest of Mrs. John R. Gavin and family. Clarence was accompanied by a friend, Mr. Wilbur Watson. Old friends of Mr. King are very happy to have a visit from him and extended a hearty welcome to Mr. Watson.

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Huebel left Tignish on Friday last to return to their home in Allston, Mass., after a pleasant two weeks spent with Mrs. Huebel's father, Mr. John Hogan, Christopher's Cross. Mr and Mrs. Huebel made the trip by automobile.

Mr. Patrick Hogan, Christopher's Cross, who for two weeks was a patient in Western Hospital, Alberton, has been transferred to Prince County Hospital, Summerside, where he is to undergo an operation. Mr. Hogan's friends are anxiously awaiting the news of his improvement in health.

—A most successful ice cream festival was held in Tignish on Saturday evening, July 17th. This festival was sponsored by the Tignish C. W. L. and the Athletes Club of Tignish. The festival was held on the vacant lot directly behind the store of Myrick and McIntosh, and electric equipment and lights were furnished for the evening by the firm of Myrick and McIntosh. Besides the ice cream booth, there was a general salon, a salon where sandwiches, hot dogs, and steamed clams were sold, a booth where bingo was played. There was also several other games on the grounds. A jute-box furnished music for the evening and helped much to keep the crowd in a happy mood. The executive of both soceties are most grateful to all who helped to make this evening the splendid success it was.

Little Miss Peggy Shea celebrated her seventh birthday on Monday, July 12, with a party held in her parents home at Tignish. All Peggy's little girl friends arrived at her home about two o'clock in the afternoon and had a most enpoyable time playing games on the large, shady lawn until at four o'clock, Peggy's mother, Mrs. W. J. Shea, announced that refreshments were being served. The children then gathered in the dining room, where the little hostess was presented with lovely gifts, after which all partook of the dainty supper, prepared and served the young ladies, by Mrs. Shea. The centre of attraction was a beautiful cake aglow with seven candles, which graced the centre of the table, and was cut by Miss Peggy. After supper, Peggy very sweetly thanked her little friends for their lovely gifts and for coming to her home to help make her birthday a really happy day.

Tignish Activities

Mrs. Barrett Larkin and son, Paul, Watertown, Mass., are visiting Mrs. Larkin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hogan, North Cape.

Miss Elaine Ready, nurse-in-training at City Hospital, Charlottetown, is spending her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Ready, Christopher's Cross.

Sister Margaret Pierre, of St. Paul, Minnesota, is visiting her father Mr. Peter McIvor at Kinkora, and her brother William and Mrs. McIvor at Borden.

Mrs. Louis Hackett of Borden received the sad news on Sunday last of the sudden death of her brother-in-law, Mr. Joseph Israel of Saint John, N. B., following a heart attack.

We regret to learn of the illness of Mrs. James Campbell of Borden and hope that she will soon be around again.

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Inman and Mr. and Mrs. George Burch, of Borden, are spending their holidays motoring in Nova Scotia and Cape Breton.

Mr. and Mrs. Hector MacKenzie and son Gordon, of Borden, left last Monday morning for Portland, Maine, where they will visit Mrs. MacKenzie's uncle, Mr. John Ross. They will also visit relatives at Boston and Hopkinton, Mass.

Mrs. Earl Willis of Detroit, Mich., is visiting her mother, Mrs. W. H. P. Irving, at the home of her son, Capt. Wylie and Mrs. Irving, Borden. A

GOFF-GREENAN NUPTIALS

A very pretty July wedding was performed on the 14th. at St. Anthony's R. C. Church, Bloomfield, when Rev. Fr. M. J. Rooney united in the holy bonds of matrimony Marie, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Holsen Goff of this parish and Frederick, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Greenan of Kellys Cross. The young bride looked charming in a floor length gown of white satin with overskirt of net adorned with satin bows and a shoulder length veil held in place with pearls also wearing a pearl necklace and earrings of pearls.

Her bouquet was of American Beauty Roses. She was attended by her cousin, Marie Corcoran, who wore a floor length gown of ivory organdy over white satin and shoulder length veil also carrying a beautiful bouquet of flowers. The groom was carefully attended by James B. MacDonald of Brae. The beautiful marble altar was very tastefully decorated with bouquets of early summer flowers. C. J Gallant played the Wedding March and also presided at the organ for the nuptial mass assisted in the choir by Pius Furnan who so capably rendered beautiful hymns appropriate for the occasion.

Following the ceremony the bridal party with their immediate relatives and friends motored to the home of the bride's parents where a sumptuous wedding breakfast was served. The bride's table was decorated with roses and a beautiful three tier wedding cake topped with a miniature bride and groom

The cake was cut in the tradi tional manner. Afterwards the bridal party went on a tour of the province. On their return a reception was held at the home of William Greenan of Brae to a large crowd of relatives and friends They received many useful and beautiful gifts including a nice sum of money. Everyone departed wishing the bride and groom many years of happiness and prosperity
