

BOWLING
HOCKEY
WRESTLING

NEWS OF THE SPORT WORLD

BOXING
BASKETBALL
OTHER SPORT

FREE! BOOK ON HOCKEY

A Great Book "How to Become a Hockey Star" by T. P. "Tommy" Gorman, manager and coach of the Montreal "Maroons", profusely illustrated and containing many valuable tips on how to play the game.

also
AUTOGRAPHED PICTURES OF GREAT PLAYERS (mounted for framing)
Group Montreal "Maroons"
Group "Les Canadiens"
or individual pictures of:
Bobby Northcott Paul Haynes
Dave Trotter Marty Herry
How Hinton Pete Kelly
Earl Robinson Dave Kerr
Bob Grier How Wooten
Cus Marker "Axe" Hiley
John Moran Art Leiser
Johnny Gagnon Frank Boucher
Will Cude Marty Burke
George Mantha Alex Levinsky

• Your choice of the above •
For a label from a tin of "CROWN BRAND" or "LILLY WHITE" Corn Syrup—Write on the back your name and address—plainly—and the words "Hockey Book" or the name of the picture you want on the book or picture for each label. Mail the label to the address below.

EDWARDSBURG CROWN BRAND CORN SYRUP
THE FAMOUS ENERGY FOOD
A product of
The CANADA STARCH COMPANY Limited
P.O. Box 588, MONTREAL, Q.B.

Canada's Army Team Wins

TORONTO, Nov. 25—Canada's army team swept to victory at the Royal Winter Fair horse show tonight and captured the International officers' team challenge trophy, donated by G. Howard Ferguson, former Canadian High Commissioner to Great Britain.

The trophy concluding event in the officers' jumping competitions that featured the horse show, was won in a contest with army teams from Great Britain, United States, Irish Free State and Chile.

Indians Rally To Tie Falcons

SPRINGFIELD, Mass., Nov. 25—Springfield Indians rallied to tie Cleveland Falcons in an International-American Hockey League game here tonight.

A goal by Bob McCully in the third period offset the tally which Frank Deloy of Cleveland posted at 18:30 in the second round, and the final score was 1-1.

The overtime period was cautiously played as both sides seemed content to earn the single point with a draw.

Four Games Scheduled In National League Tonight With Leadership At Stake

Barney Ross Favorite In Welter Bout

By EDDIE BRIETZ
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 25—Champion Barney Ross and Izzy Jannazzo finished training today for their 15 round welterweight title fight in Madison Square Garden Friday night.

It will be Ross' first defence of the crown he regained from Jimmy McLarin in May 1935. The Chicagoan is a 3 to 1 favorite. Little or no Jannazzo money has shown up in the Broadway spots.

At Ferrante's Ross, apparently as good as ever, stepped through a snappy drill then hung up the gloves until he climbs into the ring with the East Sider.

Jannazzo took his last workout in a New York gym.

Both boys have agreed to give Coferrino Garcia, Los Angeles Filipino, a title shot within 60 days, if returned the victor Friday.

John Henry Lewis, just back from England where he beat Len Harvey, will engage in a couple of over-the-weight matches before returning to England to defend his light heavyweight title against Jock McAvoy, the British champion.

London promoters have guaranteed the Arizona negro $20,000—just what he got for trouncing Harvey—to tackle McAvoy, whom he defeated in a title bout last March in Madison Square Garden.

Preparations for the proposed Atlantic City duel between Jimmy Braddock and Joe Louis are at a standstill pending Braddock's appearance before the New York State Athletic Commission Friday to undergo a physical examination and sign to defend his heavyweight championship against Max Schmeling next June. Meantime, Braddock has resumed training in a local gymnasium.

Moncton Takes Series' Lead

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
MONCTON, N. B., Nov. 25—Moncton Maroons regained the lead in a pre-season series with their southern New Brunswick Hockey League rivals, Saint John Seagulls, by winning 4-1 tonight. This gave Moncton a game edge of 3-2.

Dizzy Dean Headed For Pittsburgh?

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
ST. LOUIS, Nov. 25—Two things were definite today in a welter of baseball trade rumors concerning the St. Louis teams—Peyton Traylor of Pittsburgh Pirates conferred with Branch Rickey of the Cardinals and Cy Slapnicka, representing Cleveland Indians, conferred with officials of the Browns.

Rickey admitted the Pirates manager visited him but declined to discuss a report a deal for Dizzy Dean was under way. It was rumored the star pitcher may go to Pittsburgh for shortstop Art Vaughan and pitcher Cy Blanton.

The trade talk in the Browns' office was believed to have centered around a possible exchange of catcher Rollie Hemsley for a Cleveland pitcher.

Talk around Philadelphia is that the Athletics will be set to fall in with the night baseball trade. The management is tired of playing before several hundred fans week days when some semi-pros knock right in the neighborhood are drawing into the thousands under the lights.

Abbies Hold Fast Workout

Abegweit senior hockey aspirants went through their second workout at the Forum last night under the guidance of Coach Hal Gross. The players were divided up into two teams and some lively scrimmaging ensued. Although it was only their second time out the boys hit a fast clip at times that was pleasant to witness. Every one of the eighteen players on the ice is anxious to catch a place on the squad and as a result are giving everything every minute they are on the ice.

Junior Rangers, 22 strong were also out in full force last night. Pointing for a Maritime title the youngsters reported for their first drill in fine fettle and all steamed up over their first chance to test their stuff. Last night's workout however was very light the boys just ironing out the kinks. But the word from the Ranger management is that from now on each and every turnout will be stiff practice sessions.

The following players reported for practice for the seniors:
Storey, Carmichael, Gaudet, Simpson, Coyne, Lawlor, Whalen, Cudmore, Saunders, Stewart, Smith, Whitlock, Blanchard, McKeown, Acorn, Carmody, forward; "Had" McInnis, goal.

In line with the efficiency instituted by the new Forum management, under Mr. Charles Archer, a matron will be on duty in the ladies' dressing room and an official in the men's section to look after belongings of patrons.

Down The Alleys

HOLY NAME HALL BOWLING

Big Four League

Holy Name All Stars:—

E. Doucette	214	230	203
C. LeClair	156	193	156
W. Murley	279	240	236
P. McQuaid	182	104	191
Rev. P. McMahon	208	303	260
Total	—3155

Old Timers:—

R. Duncan	182	286	276
V. Coyle	185	150	258
W. Coyle	205	277	196
E. McMillan	247	165	199
J. A. Bentley	223	186	147
Total	—3183

High single Rev. P. McMahon 303.
High three Rev. P. McMahon 771.
Next game Friday night at 8.30. Five Aces vs. Prince Grocery, Big Four League.

Commercial League

Twisters:—
M. Bolger	829	202	176
W. Mottelth	170	122	146
F. Bolger	176	168	227
R. McCarville	225	155	202
L. Gauthier	200	170	248
Total	—2818

Prince Grocery:—

C. Campbell	198	194	208
F. Egan	167	142	239
R. McLellan	138	261	249
R. Cameron	222	191	252
A. Sherven	150	209	150
Total	—2970

High single R. McLellan 261.
High three R. Cameron 665.
Tonight at 7 p. m. Laundry Clinkers vs. Maritime Electric.

LADIES BOWLING
Kelly & McInnis Trophy

Buenos Aires:—
S. Mallett	173	144	140
M. Tierney	113	111	120
B. Murphy	101	109	133
D. McDonald	205	169	128
J. Kirwin	121	117	107
Total	—1991

Wimples:—

E. McInnis	235	189	167
F. Flynn	177	175	158
F. Hogan	131	88	142
M. Dunn	170	150	184
H. Adams	101	106	107
Total	—2281

High single Edna McInnis 235.
High three Edna McInnis 591.
Tonight at 7 p. m. Style-Marts vs. Freeze-Outs.

Agree To Play Wide Open Game

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
BOSTON, Nov. 25—Ernest Savard, President of Canadiens Hockey Club, tonight notified the Boston Bruins management that he would forfeit $1,000 anytime his players failed to play a wide-open National League game in Boston.

In return, the Bruins will be liable for a similar sum if their team over-stresses defence on Montreal ice. Montreal Maroons have also accepted this $1,000 challenge, made recently by President Weston Adams and General Manager Art Ross of the Bruins.

English Cricket Team Of Veterans And Newcomers Seek To Regain Honors

BRISBANE, Australia, Nov. 25—(CP)—Attention of cricket enthusiasts throughout the world will be rivetted on this capital city of Queensland when the battles between England and Australia for cricket supremacy, inaugurated in 1876, will be resumed Dec. 4. Representatives of the two countries will meet in the first of five test matches.

Australia won the last series in England in 1934.

England's team led by the Australian-born Middlesex captain, G. O. (Gubby) Allen, is faced with a stiff task to duplicate the showing made by the Mother Country in the two preceding tours "down under." In the 1928-29 season, A. P. F. Chapman's team carried all before it, winning four tests and losing one, and four years later matches played by an eleven skipped by Douglas Jardine ended similarly.

Since the series started the two countries have met in 72 matches in Australia and 62 in England. The Aussies have the edge with 53 victories one more than England, while 29 have been drawn. Of games played in the Commonwealth, Australia has won 38, England 32 and two have resulted in stalemates. In recent years tests in Australia have been played to a finish.

Australia will have a new captain—none other than the world's leading batsman—Don Bradman of South Australia. William Woodfull, Melbourne schoolmaster who led the Aussies so brilliantly for many years, has retired from first-class cricket and a chorus of approval greeted selection of Bradman as his successor. The new skipper has played many fine innings this season, his best netting him 192 runs in a Sheffield Shield match against Victoria Nov. 14 despite handicap of a strained left leg.

Four amateurs and 13 professionals make up the strong English team touring Australia this season. While familiar figures of such favorites as Jack Hobbs, Herbert Sutcliffe and Pat Hendren will be missed by the sport-loving Australians, there are enough veterans to steady younger players in quest of "The Ashes."

Allen, R. E. S. Wyatt, Warwickshire and former England captain, and H. W. R. Robinson, Middlesex, have all seen duty in Australia, but it is a new experience for the Essex amateur, Kenneth Farnes, young Essex schoolmaster who is one of the team's first bowlers. He has played against the Aussies in England, however.

Walter Hammond, 33-year-old Gloucestershire all-rounder and England's cricket hero now that Hobbs has passed from the centre of the scene, and former England captain, and R. W. R. Robinson, Middlesex, who have played in previous tests in the Commonwealth are Maurice Leyland and Hedley Verity, Yorkshire stalwarts, George Duckworth, Lancashire and Leslie Ames, Kent, wicketkeepers and William Vice, Nottinghamshire's coal miner fast bowler. James Sims, Middlesex, and Joseph Hardsfild, are familiar with Australian conditions but have never played in test matches there.

New to Australia

Five men are getting their first experience on hard-baked Australian wickets. They are Charles Barnett, Gloucestershire, A. E. Fagg, Kent, Lawrence Fishlock, Surrey and T. Worthington and W. H. Copon, Derbyshire.

A terror to opposing players wherever he plays, Wally Hammond has a big reputation to sustain in Australia where he has scored six centuries in test cricket. During the present tour he has played top form and four times in four matches hit more than 100 runs. He is one of the best slip-fielders in England and his ability as a medium pace bowler has been proved on many occasions.

The problem of finding a pair of first-wicket batsmen to fill the shoes of Hobbs and Sutcliffe is causing England's captain some concern. Most likely candidates are Barnett, Worthington, Fagg and Wyatt. Some of the younger batsmen have not played with any degree of consistency during the tour to date but they are expected to round into form with a few more games.

Verity stands out among the number caused selectors to breathe more easily. In previous Antipodean tours he has proved one of England's most reliable bats and with Hammond is counted upon to make many runs when the fury of the Aussie attack has been worn down by the opening batsmen.

Allen, Farnes and Vice make a trio of clever fast bowlers; but none has the speed that made Harold Larwood famous in earlier years. Hedley Verity stands out among the team's spin bowlers. Robins has many Australian wickets to his credit and great hopes are pinned on Sims and Copson.

In Duckworth and Ames the touring team has two first-ranking wicketkeepers but Ames, while not up to the Lancashire man behind the stumps, has the advantage of being a prolific scorer. It is not unlikely that even if Duckworth is chosen for the tests, Ames will also be included because of his batting ability.

Bradman and the Australian selectors have a wealth of new material in addition to most of the stalwart that have played against England in the past few years. Of the older batsmen W. A. Brown, who has transferred his allegiance from New South Wales to Queensland is playing well and so is J. H. Fingleton, New South Wales' star. He topped Australia's best batting averages in South Africa last winter.

Although now 42 years old, Victor Richardson, South Australian captain will be considered. Stanley McCabe, New South Wales, is certain of a place on the team together with A. G. Chipperfield from the same state.

Two of the Commonwealth's outstanding prospects are E. L. Badcock, South Australia, and Don Tallon, Queensland. The former made 132 for an Australian eleven against M. C. C. recently. Tallon, in addition to being a hard-hitting batsman, is regarded as the best man to succeed W. A. Oldfield, veteran wicketkeeper.

A new goosly bowler is being watched by Australian selectors. He is F. Ward of South Australia and he has been coached by Charles Grimmett, outstanding "down under" at that type of delivery. Whether Ward will "make" the team to the exclusion of Grimmett himself is a matter for conjecture. Grimmett is now 44 years old but as subtle as ever.

Apart from this pair the Aussies have outstanding trundlers in W. J. O'Reilly, New South Wales, E. L. McCormick, Victoria and L. O. B. Fleetwood-Smith.

ever he plays, Wally Hammond has a big reputation to sustain in Australia where he has scored six centuries in test cricket. During the present tour he has played top form and four times in four matches hit more than 100 runs. He is one of the best slip-fielders in England and his ability as a medium pace bowler has been proved on many occasions.

The problem of finding a pair of first-wicket batsmen to fill the shoes of Hobbs and Sutcliffe is causing England's captain some concern. Most likely candidates are Barnett, Worthington, Fagg and Wyatt. Some of the younger batsmen have not played with any degree of consistency during the tour to date but they are expected to round into form with a few more games.

Verity stands out among the number caused selectors to breathe more easily. In previous Antipodean tours he has proved one of England's most reliable bats and with Hammond is counted upon to make many runs when the fury of the Aussie attack has been worn down by the opening batsmen.

Allen, Farnes and Vice make a trio of clever fast bowlers; but none has the speed that made Harold Larwood famous in earlier years. Hedley Verity stands out among the team's spin bowlers. Robins has many Australian wickets to his credit and great hopes are pinned on Sims and Copson.

In Duckworth and Ames the touring team has two first-ranking wicketkeepers but Ames, while not up to the Lancashire man behind the stumps, has the advantage of being a prolific scorer. It is not unlikely that even if Duckworth is chosen for the tests, Ames will also be included because of his batting ability.

Bradman and the Australian selectors have a wealth of new material in addition to most of the stalwart that have played against England in the past few years. Of the older batsmen W. A. Brown, who has transferred his allegiance from New South Wales to Queensland is playing well and so is J. H. Fingleton, New South Wales' star. He topped Australia's best batting averages in South Africa last winter.

Although now 42 years old, Victor Richardson, South Australian captain will be considered. Stanley McCabe, New South Wales, is certain of a place on the team together with A. G. Chipperfield from the same state.

Two of the Commonwealth's outstanding prospects are E. L. Badcock, South Australia, and Don Tallon, Queensland. The former made 132 for an Australian eleven against M. C. C. recently. Tallon, in addition to being a hard-hitting batsman, is regarded as the best man to succeed W. A. Oldfield, veteran wicketkeeper.

A new goosly bowler is being watched by Australian selectors. He is F. Ward of South Australia and he has been coached by Charles Grimmett, outstanding "down under" at that type of delivery. Whether Ward will "make" the team to the exclusion of Grimmett himself is a matter for conjecture. Grimmett is now 44 years old but as subtle as ever.

Apart from this pair the Aussies have outstanding trundlers in W. J. O'Reilly, New South Wales, E. L. McCormick, Victoria and L. O. B. Fleetwood-Smith.

Abbies Hold Fast Workout

Abegweit senior hockey aspirants went through their second workout at the Forum last night under the guidance of Coach Hal Gross. The players were divided up into two teams and some lively scrimmaging ensued. Although it was only their second time out the boys hit a fast clip at times that was pleasant to witness. Every one of the eighteen players on the ice is anxious to catch a place on the squad and as a result are giving everything every minute they are on the ice.

Junior Rangers, 22 strong were also out in full force last night. Pointing for a Maritime title the youngsters reported for their first drill in fine fettle and all steamed up over their first chance to test their stuff. Last night's workout however was very light the boys just ironing out the kinks. But the word from the Ranger management is that from now on each and every turnout will be stiff practice sessions.

The following players reported for practice for the seniors:
Storey, Carmichael, Gaudet, Simpson, Coyne, Lawlor, Whalen, Cudmore, Saunders, Stewart, Smith, Whitlock, Blanchard, McKeown, Acorn, Carmody, forward; "Had" McInnis, goal.

In line with the efficiency instituted by the new Forum management, under Mr. Charles Archer, a matron will be on duty in the ladies' dressing room and an official in the men's section to look after belongings of patrons.

Strang Pays Top Price For Duchess

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 25—(AP)—Bill Strang, in whose Brooklyn stable is quartered the winter-book favorite for next year's Hambletonian, laid plans for the 1938 renewal of the rich trotting horse stake today when he paid the highest price of the sale for a yearling filly at the 42nd Old Glory auction.

The Brooklyn horseman went to $7,000 to get The Duchess, little bay daughter of Peter Volo-Margaret Arion.

Last year Strang paid $1,000 for Twilight Song, a filly which proved to be one of the best investments of the year.

The sale of The Duchess, consigned by Dr. Ogden M. Edwards' Walnut Hall farm was the high spot of the day that saw the famous trotting Kentucky nursery dispose of 26 head for $32,845.

Altogether during the day, 86 head changed hands, selling for $2,805 to bring the two-day aggregate for 173 yearlings, stallions, brood mares and proven racers to $140,355.

Aaron Williams of Corning, N.Y., paid the second highest price of the day when he bid in Christopher, a full brother to the famous Volomite, for $4,000 from the Walnut Hall farms. Dr. Hugh M. Parrish, the country's leading driver

Veteran Leaf Goalie Is Given Outright Release

(C.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
NEW YORK, Nov. 25—Conny Smythe, Manager of Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League, announced tonight that George Hainsworth, veteran goalie, had been released outright.

Since the start of the season the Leafs have had two goalies, Turk Brod and Hainsworth.

"Brod has the job and it's his as long as he can keep it," said Smythe. The Leafs' Manager said Brod was just as good as Hainsworth and about 20 years younger.

Smythe also said Charlie Conacher, handicapped by a wrist injury since the start of the season, would be given a 10-day rest. Gordon Drillon must be brought up from Syracuse Stars to play right wing in Conacher's absence.

Dropping of Hainsworth marked the disappearance of the second veteran player from the Leafs' active lineup in two days. Yesterday King Clancy, the great defenseman, announced he was hanging up his skates, although he is remaining on the team's roster.

Hainsworth said he had no immediate plans for the future. He planned to try to finish out the season playing hockey if there was an opening.

Strang Pays Top Price For Duchess

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 25—(AP)—Bill Strang, in whose Brooklyn stable is quartered the winter-book favorite for next year's Hambletonian, laid plans for the 1938 renewal of the rich trotting horse stake today when he paid the highest price of the sale for a yearling filly at the 42nd Old Glory auction.

The Brooklyn horseman went to $7,000 to get The Duchess, little bay daughter of Peter Volo-Margaret Arion.

Last year Strang paid $1,000 for Twilight Song, a filly which proved to be one of the best investments of the year.

The sale of The Duchess, consigned by Dr. Ogden M. Edwards' Walnut Hall farm was the high spot of the day that saw the famous trotting Kentucky nursery dispose of 26 head for $32,845.

Altogether during the day, 86 head changed hands, selling for $2,805 to bring the two-day aggregate for 173 yearlings, stallions, brood mares and proven racers to $140,355.

Aaron Williams of Corning, N.Y., paid the second highest price of the day when he bid in Christopher, a full brother to the famous Volomite, for $4,000 from the Walnut Hall farms. Dr. Hugh M. Parrish, the country's leading driver

English Cricket Team Of Veterans And Newcomers Seek To Regain Honors

BRISBANE, Australia, Nov. 25—(CP)—Attention of cricket enthusiasts throughout the world will be rivetted on this capital city of Queensland when the battles between England and Australia for cricket supremacy, inaugurated in 1876, will be resumed Dec. 4. Representatives of the two countries will meet in the first of five test matches.

Australia won the last series in England in 1934.

England's team led by the Australian-born Middlesex captain, G. O. (Gubby) Allen, is faced with a stiff task to duplicate the showing made by the Mother Country in the two preceding tours "down under." In the 1928-29 season, A. P. F. Chapman's team carried all before it, winning four tests and losing one, and four years later matches played by an eleven skipped by Douglas Jardine ended similarly.

Since the series started the two countries have met in 72 matches in Australia and 62 in England. The Aussies have the edge with 53 victories one more than England, while 29 have been drawn. Of games played in the Commonwealth, Australia has won 38, England 32 and two have resulted in stalemates. In recent years tests in Australia have been played to a finish.

Australia will have a new captain—none other than the world's leading batsman—Don Bradman of South Australia. William Woodfull, Melbourne schoolmaster who led the Aussies so brilliantly for many years, has retired from first-class cricket and a chorus of approval greeted selection of Bradman as his successor. The new skipper has played many fine innings this season, his best netting him 192 runs in a Sheffield Shield match against Victoria Nov. 14 despite handicap of a strained left leg.

Four amateurs and 13 professionals make up the strong English team touring Australia this season. While familiar figures of such favorites as Jack Hobbs, Herbert Sutcliffe and Pat Hendren will be missed by the sport-loving Australians, there are enough veterans to steady younger players in quest of "The Ashes."

Allen, R. E. S. Wyatt, Warwickshire and former England captain, and H. W. R. Robinson, Middlesex, have all seen duty in Australia, but it is a new experience for the Essex amateur, Kenneth Farnes, young Essex schoolmaster who is one of the team's first bowlers. He has played against the Aussies in England, however.

Walter Hammond, 33-year-old Gloucestershire all-rounder and England's cricket hero now that Hobbs has passed from the centre of the scene, and former England captain, and R. W. R. Robinson, Middlesex, who have played in previous tests in the Commonwealth are Maurice Leyland and Hedley Verity, Yorkshire stalwarts, George Duckworth, Lancashire and Leslie Ames, Kent, wicketkeepers and William Vice, Nottinghamshire's coal miner fast bowler. James Sims, Middlesex, and Joseph Hardsfild, are familiar with Australian conditions but have never played in test matches there.

New to Australia

Five men are getting their first experience on hard-baked Australian wickets. They are Charles Barnett, Gloucestershire, A. E. Fagg, Kent, Lawrence Fishlock, Surrey and T. Worthington and W. H. Copon, Derbyshire.

A terror to opposing players wherever he plays, Wally Hammond has a big reputation to sustain in Australia where he has scored six centuries in test cricket. During the present tour he has played top form and four times in four matches hit more than 100 runs. He is one of the best slip-fielders in England and his ability as a medium pace bowler has been proved on many occasions.

The problem of finding a pair of first-wicket batsmen to fill the shoes of Hobbs and Sutcliffe is causing England's captain some concern. Most likely candidates are Barnett, Worthington, Fagg and Wyatt. Some of the younger batsmen have not played with any degree of consistency during the tour to date but they are expected to round into form with a few more games.

Verity stands out among the number caused selectors to breathe more easily. In previous Antipodean tours he has proved one of England's most reliable bats and with Hammond is counted upon to make many runs when the fury of the Aussie attack has been worn down by the opening batsmen.

Allen, Farnes and Vice make a trio of clever fast bowlers; but none has the speed that made Harold Larwood famous in earlier years. Hedley Verity stands out among the team's spin bowlers. Robins has many Australian wickets to his credit and great hopes are pinned on Sims and Copson.

In Duckworth and Ames the touring team has two first-ranking wicketkeepers but Ames, while not up to the Lancashire man behind the stumps, has the advantage of being a prolific scorer. It is not unlikely that even if Duckworth is chosen for the tests, Ames will also be included because of his batting ability.

Bradman and the Australian selectors have a wealth of new material in addition to most of the stalwart that have played against England in the past few years. Of the older batsmen W. A. Brown, who has transferred his allegiance from New South Wales to Queensland is playing well and so is J. H. Fingleton, New South Wales' star. He topped Australia's best batting averages in South Africa last winter.

Although now 42 years old, Victor Richardson, South Australian captain will be considered. Stanley McCabe, New South Wales, is certain of a place on the team together with A. G. Chipperfield from the same state.

Two of the Commonwealth's outstanding prospects are E. L. Badcock, South Australia, and Don Tallon, Queensland. The former made 132 for an Australian eleven against M. C. C. recently. Tallon, in addition to being a hard-hitting batsman, is regarded as the best man to succeed W. A. Oldfield, veteran wicketkeeper.

A new goosly bowler is being watched by Australian selectors. He is F. Ward of South Australia and he has been coached by Charles Grimmett, outstanding "down under" at that type of delivery. Whether Ward will "make" the team to the exclusion of Grimmett himself is a matter for conjecture. Grimmett is now 44 years old but as subtle as ever.

Apart from this pair the Aussies have outstanding trundlers in W. J. O'Reilly, New South Wales, E. L. McCormick, Victoria and L. O. B. Fleetwood-Smith.

Crucial Grid Contests In States Today

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)
NEW YORK, Nov. 25—The road to the Rose Bowl is strewn with thorns, appropriately enough, but tomorrow's Thanksgiving Day football slate may end all conjecture as to the rivals in Pasadena's annual New Year's Day gridiron classic.

Five of the six teams still granted a chance of gaining the two Rose Bowl assignments—Washington, Washington State, Alabama, Fordham and Pittsburgh—will meet their final important tests of the regular campaign. The sixth, Louisiana State, will wait until Saturday for its traditional finale with Tulane.

Almost certainly the far western Rose Bowl representative will be selected at Seattle where Washington and Washington State square off in the game that will decide the Pacific Coast Conference championship.

Should Washington's huskies, beaten only by Minnesota, win or tie tomorrow's crucial engagement, they can be considered Rose Bowl certainties.

Hudson Plays Part In Win

(C.P. by Guardian's Special Wire)
PITTSBURGH, Nov. 25—Pittsburgh Hornets, turned in the most decisive victory of the young season in either section of the International-American Hockey League tonight by defeating Providence Reds 9-0.

The Hornets' victory, their first shutout of the season, sent the Pittsburgh team back to first place in the western division of the minor circuit.

Ron Hudson, formerly with the Charlotte Hornets, in the Maritime Hockey League, started the Pittsburgh scoring spurge in the sixth minute of play on a pass from "Twinkle" Starr.

Brenneman Scores Team's Only Goal

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26—"Nig" Brenneman, formerly with Charlottetown in the Maritime Hockey League, scored Buffalo Bisons' only goal tonight as his team took a 3-1 lacing from Philadelphia Ramblers of the International American League.

The Ramblers' crack line of Clint Smith, Bobby Kirk and Bryan Hextall stormed the Bisons' goal right off the bat to slam in a goal before the game was three minutes old. Smith making the shot, Charlie Mason flipped in the Ramblers' second goal after taking a neat pass from Captain Danny Cox.

The second period saw the Bisons charge about the Ramblers' net until finally Brenneman teamed up with Norm Locking to score from a difficult angle.

The Ramblers bagged their third goal three minutes after the start of the last period, Smith again scoring.

Strang Pays Top Price For Duchess

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 25—(AP)—Bill Strang, in whose Brooklyn stable is quartered the winter-book favorite for next year's Hambletonian, laid plans for the 1938 renewal of the rich trotting horse stake today when he paid the highest price of the sale for a yearling filly at the 42nd Old Glory auction.

The Brooklyn horseman went to $7,000 to get The Duchess, little bay daughter of Peter Volo-Margaret Arion.

Last year Strang paid $1,000 for Twilight Song, a filly which proved to be one of the best investments of the year.

The sale of The Duchess, consigned by Dr. Ogden M. Edwards' Walnut Hall farm was the high spot of the day that saw the famous trotting Kentucky nursery dispose of 26 head for $32,845.

Altogether during the day, 86 head changed hands, selling for $2,805 to bring the two-day aggregate for 173 yearlings, stallions, brood mares and proven racers to $140,355.

Aaron Williams of Corning, N.Y., paid the second highest price of the day when he bid in Christopher, a full brother to the famous Volomite, for $4,000 from the Walnut Hall farms. Dr. Hugh M. Parrish, the country's leading driver

Strang Pays Top Price For Duchess

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 25—(AP)—Bill Strang, in whose Brooklyn stable is quartered the winter-book favorite for next year's Hambletonian, laid plans for the 1938 renewal of the rich trotting horse stake today when he paid the highest price of the sale for a yearling filly at the 42nd Old Glory auction.

The Brooklyn horseman went to $7,000 to get The Duchess, little bay daughter of Peter Volo-Margaret Arion.

Last year Strang paid $1,000 for Twilight Song, a filly which proved to be one of the best investments of the year.

The sale of The Duchess, consigned by Dr. Ogden M. Edwards' Walnut Hall farm was the high spot of the day that saw the famous trotting Kentucky nursery dispose of 26 head for $32,845.

Altogether during the day, 86 head changed hands, selling for $2,805 to bring the two-day aggregate for 173 yearlings, stallions, brood mares and proven racers to $140,355.

Aaron Williams of Corning, N.Y., paid the second highest price of the day when he bid in Christopher, a full brother to the famous Volomite, for $4,000 from the Walnut Hall farms. Dr. Hugh M. Parrish, the country's leading driver

Strang Pays Top Price For Duchess

By ORLO ROBERTSON
Associated Press Sports Writer
NEW YORK, Nov. 25—(AP)—Bill Strang, in whose Brooklyn stable is quartered the winter-book favorite for next year's Hambletonian, laid plans for the 1938 renewal of the rich trotting horse stake today when he paid the highest price of the sale for a yearling filly at the 42nd Old Glory auction.

The Brooklyn horseman went to $7,000 to get The Duchess, little bay daughter of Peter Volo-Margaret Arion.

Last year Strang paid $1,000 for Twilight Song, a filly which proved to be one of the best investments of the year.

The sale of The Duchess, consigned by Dr. Ogden M. Edwards' Walnut Hall farm was the high spot of the day that saw the famous trotting Kentucky nursery dispose of 26 head for $32,845.

Altogether during the day, 86 head changed hands, selling for $2,805 to bring the two-day aggregate for 173 yearlings, stallions, brood mares and proven racers to $140,355.

Aaron Williams of Corning, N.Y., paid the second highest price of the day when he bid in Christopher, a full brother to the famous Volomite, for $4,000 from the Walnut Hall farms. Dr. Hugh M. Parrish, the country's leading driver

Again THE BIKE SHOP Goes To The Front

THIS TIME WITH THE BEST IN HOCKEY SUPPLIES

COME IN AND LOOK OVER OUR STOCK WHILE IT IS COMPLETE

REMEMBER IT IS OUR BUSINESS IT PAYS TO PLAY

Crucial Grid Contests In States Today

(A.P. By Guardian's Special Wire)