

Maritime Senior Hockey League Is Organized

Charlottetown, Moncton And Halifax Admitted - Dalhousie Out Of "Big Four" This Season Because Of Financial Difficulties

(Canadian Press)

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 26.—A Maritime senior amateur hockey league was formed at a meeting of representatives of Maritime hockey clubs here today and three teams were admitted, with the possibility of a fourth being entered in the second section of the schedule which will begin in January. The teams admitted were Halifax, Charlottetown and Moncton, and Saint John will be admitted early in the year providing that club can gather a team of sufficient strength to warrant their entry. Dalhousie Rangers declared they could not compete in a "big four" circuit unless they were given financial assistance from the other clubs, which was not forthcoming.

The following were elected as officers of the new league:

J. A. Hanway, Amherst, president.

Dr. I. J. Yeo, Charlottetown, vice-president.

Dr. A. F. Taylor, Moncton, vice-president.

The matters of referees and a schedule were under discussion tonight.

Is The World's Richest Bachelor

Fleets of Rolls-Royces. Oceans of fact. Slender, handsome, sensitive, immaculate, is the Right Hon. Sir Philip Albert Gustave David Sassoon, P.C., G.B.E., M.P., third baronet, richest bachelor and the world's only multi-millionaire secretary. He might have been a Disraeli; he prefers being a secretary. The salary doesn't matter.

He was Halg's mouthpiece (unpaid) at G.H.G. in France from 1915 to 1918. Purple-necked colonels and brigadiers tried hard to dislike him, but he smoothed them down. Sometimes even quelled them with an eye that can be cold and compelling.

LL.G.'s "buffer" at home and seaside, from 1918 to 1922, with the finest chef in London, he proved himself useful at lake and river and Lido conferences. Too good for the job, Sassoon has since found one worth while. Under-secretary this time, for air.

He will be 44 in December. He is determined to keep that school-boy configuration. Flying won't do it. Once he tried tennis with a constant partner, his sister. Doubtless he would have married long ago, if he had found anyone like her to propose to.

Mayfair dowagers have watched him for twenty-five years. His eligibility includes one palace in Park Lane and two in the Home Counties. One marvellous place at Lympne in Kent, near Folkestone, which forms most of his constituency of Hythe.

That house is a legend in the district, its pool, its pergolas, its luxury. One gasps when the Sassoon Rolls-Royces roll down the streets of Folkestone. All this splendor has no mistress.

Sassoon is recognized as the most confirmed bachelor in Europe. Yet women like him immensely. Is he disliked at all? Of course. By many men. A rich Jew has no business with such a good war record. He is not deferential to the right people.

Up very early in the morning, he rides in the Row. The best host in London, his dinners at 25 Park Lane are famous. They are often followed by brilliant speeches, by Sir Philip Sassoon. He keeps his eloquence for private life. A great connoisseur of the arts. He can teach the Duvenas a thing both of whom were "fagged out" after nine days of continuous duty. The minister declared that damage to the extent of $3,500 or $4,000 was done to furniture and fixtures, but injuries to individuals was slight, only three casualties having occurred. One man was shot, and two others hurt in the scuffles. The military guard had been reduced from 150 men to 50 men, Mr. Guthrie said.

Leave of absence has been granted to Inspector Smith (the acting warden) and the deputy warden,

Favors Single Game Sale

CHICAGO, Oct. 26.—After looking over the financial report of the Chicago Cubs' end of the world series, William L. Veeck, president of the club favors a change in the system of disposing of series tickets.

The plan of selling seats for three games, he says, kept numbers of customers away, and he favors disposing of them for a single game if the trade wants it that way. Singles were sold for the second game at New York and the second contest at Chicago, but too late to help much.

"I am in favor of opening boxes in the ball parks and downtown," he said, "and selling world series tickets just as we do those for regular season games. If a patron wants to buy for three games, all right, sell him. If he wants a ticket for any single game, supply him with it."

The temporary bleachers built over streets adjacent to Wrigley field for the series, failed to turn up a profit. They were filled two days, bringing in some $20,000, which, however, did not meet the cost of construction, insurance and ushering.

Holy Name Club Bowling

Last night on the Holy Name Club Alleys, the Stars met and defeated the Hawks by a good margin.

or two about old masters and French furniture. He knows his books, too. And he does not pretend to be what he is not. He is a patron of Jewish culture. He never pretended to be an English country squire, despite what they say.

A reverent collector of Jewish antiquities, a trustee of the National Gallery, Tate, Wallace Collection and British School at Rome, his own secretaries are busy. Alternately shy and self-assertive. If you seek him out, he retires into his shell. If you avoid him, he remembers you at Cambridge.

Eats sparingly in the daytime—but oh! what cooking!—in order to set a good example in the evening. Probably his greatest love is music. His sister shares it with him. You hear only the finest sung or played at 25 Park Lane.

That is a home as well as a treasure-house. That "intimate touch of a woman's hand" is entirely absent. No woman living can teach Sassoon how to run a household.

Settlers Effects

The export of settlers' effects in September was valued at $433,960, of which $357,201 went to the United States and $54,480 to Great Britain.

The export of settler's effects has declined considerably during the last year or two. The average per month during the twelve months ending September was about $300,000 and in the same period two years ago about $500,000, less now going to the United States.

These settlers go to many countries. Some return to the old lands, the place of their nativity. These old lands include Austria, Belgium, China, Denmark, Finland, Germany, Greece, Italy, Holland, Norway, Spain, Sweden, Switzerland and the Irish Free State.

But there are other and in a sense newer countries to which many of our Canadians have been going: Brazil, Cuba, Guatemala, Peru, Portuguese Africa, Alaska, Hawaii, Uruguay, British East Africa, British South Africa, Bermuda, British India, British Guiana, British Honduras, Barbados, Jamaica, Trinidad, Hong Kong, Australia, New Zealand, etc.

Gridiron Notes

Game Today

The Abegweit football squad which has had several good workouts this week will meet a team from H. M. S. Saguenay this afternoon at 3.30. The ship has a good strong team, and the sailors have already proved their ability in various other lines of sport since the ship came into port.

Dal Eliminated

By their 8-4 victory over Dalhousie yesterday the Acadia University squad eliminated the former team from further competition in the Halifax City League games. The Kelly clan has shown surprising strength this year and much interest will be taken when it clashes with the Maritime Champions, the Wanderers.

Are Winning

Although they dropped the first game of the season to the Guards A. C. the Caledonians have "come back" in most convincing style, and have scored victories over all other Cape Breton teams in a manner which clearly demonstrates that the MacTier Cup holders are still, as ever, in the championship class.

May Play Here

Rumors persist that the Mount Allison Academy team will show its wares on the local gridiron shortly, probably on Saturday next. The game will be a return match with the Prince of Wales College squad which gained a 6-0 victory over the Second Saints last week.

POLICE STATEMENT—An allegation in the local Liberal organ of a prisoner in Queen's County Jail having been released before serving his sentence of twenty-five days was emphatically repudiated last evening by Inspector. Friggs of the R. C. M. P. Other allegations in the newspaper report, the Inspector stated, are being investigated. Jail discipline, The Guardian representative was assured, is being well maintained, not only in Queen's County, but in Prince and Kings Counties as well.

B. I. S. SOCIAL—About one hundred and fifty people crowded the B. I. S. Hall last evening for the social evening entertainment. The winners of the auction forty five are as follows: Ladies, first, Mrs. A. Doiron; ladies, second, Mrs. Chas. Bolser. Gents, first, Mr. Jas. Mooney; gents, second, Mr. Patrick McGuigan. Lucky table, Mr. Louis Arsenault. On conclusion of the playing the dancing was begun by the floor director. As usual the orchestra was up to its high standard. Many remarks were passed on the artistic manner in which the Hall has been redecorated.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Alban Farmer returned to the province yesterday following a wedding tour to Montreal, Ottawa, and other Canadian cities.

Chemists Change Coal Oil And Other Solubles

Two university of Washington chemists, working on the classification of coals, have found that as much as 80 or 90 per cent of coal can be converted into oil and other soluble products, thus offering a possible source of gasoline and oil.

Fourteen kinds of coal were tested, says Popular Mechanics Magazine, the best grades giving the highest oil yields, but even with inferior lignites one-third of the products was converted to oil. In Germany where coal is more plentiful than petroleum, gasoline is already made from the solid fuel by the hydrogenation process, but the present low cost of petroleum in this country makes the application of such a process here seem remote.

and which tied the Academy team on their home grounds some time ago.

M. A. A. A. LEADS

The M. A. A. A. squad from Montreal is leading in the English football league in that City. The city team on which the renowned Ritchie McCoy is a half, has on many occasions been McTier Cup contenders, and have held the championship on a number of occasions.

Use of Subs

The use of substitute players in the games of the N. B. Rugby League, notes a New Brunswick exchange, has been put in practice by all three teams forming the organization, is a distinct violation of the letter and the spirit of the rules. It has been adopted for the purpose of working out as many players as possible. The rule governing the number of players states distinctly "not more than fifteen." Teams which get into the play-downs for the Maritime title will be up against regular rules and fifteen men must play and compose the teams from first whistle to last, unless something unforeseen occurs. Then one team may equalize by dropping a player in the event of a man being injured on the other side. Some years ago rugby football in the Maritimes suffered severely through tinkering with the rules and attempting to graft features of other types of football upon it. When the attempts were abandoned and the game played with adherence to the rules a great improvement followed.

RUMORKRUEGER

bine, came new "clues" described as supporting the theory that Krueger fled into exile after setting the stage so the world would believe he was dead.

Wax Effigy of Himself

Those responsible for spreading the belief, insisted that no one but Krueger's closest associates had seen his body. They insisted that he had obtained a wax effigy of himself, and with the connivance of associates, placed this in a sealed coffin shortly after his "death."

Paris police, however, have certified the death and after a formal autopsy, returned a verdict of suicide.

This declaration proved insufficient to quiet the rumors. A few weeks after the funeral, came a report that a prominent London cigar maker had received a large order for cigars of a special blend that only Krueger smoked.

A Groundless Statement

For several days this was looked upon by many as proof that the suicide was faked, but former close friends of Krueger came forward with the statement that he never smoked cigars in his life and that the tale of specially blended Havanas at fabulous prices was groundless.

Mme. Eberth's lifelong friendship with Krueger, first came to light with publication of his will. He left her a large sum, but what was left of his personal fortune was grabbed up by his numerous creditors.

Mme. Eberth later told of her acquaintance with the former match king, revealing how he spent many evenings with her after hard days at the office, playing the piano by the hour in her lavishly furnished apartment in Stockholm.

CENTRAL ROYALTY

The monthly meeting of the Women's Institute was held at the home of Mrs. Harry MacAusland with an attendance of ten members and two visitors. The President, Mrs. Major MacRae opened the meeting. After the roll call the minutes of the last meeting were read and adopted. During the discussion of the District Convention Mrs. James Roper was elected to reply to the address of welcome at the coming convention. Mrs. Henry Chown reported visiting the school and she advised the purchase of tape to mend maps. The new committees appointed were: school, Mrs. W. P. MacLeod and Mrs. Alec Agnew; sick, Miss Bessie Saunders and Mrs. Fred MacRae; program, Mrs. Henry Chown and Mrs. Major MacRae. The Institute News were then distributed. The roll call for next meeting is to be answered by the membership fee.

The meeting is to be held at the home of Miss Laura Cullen. The following program was then much enjoyed. Reading, "Betty and the Bear" by Mrs. W. P. MacLeod; paper, "Housekeeping a Hundred Years Ago" by Mrs. James Roper; recitation, by Mrs. Henry Chown; contest, "Judging Citron Weight" won by Mrs. Fred MacRae. A delicious lunch was then served by the hostess.

Rog. Hornsby Returning To Cardinal Fold

ST. LOUIS, Mo., Oct. 26.—The return of Rogers Hornsby to the St. Louis Cardinal fold after a somewhat hectic trip around the National League circuit, may solve some of Manager Gabby Street's problems in reorganizing the former world champions for next year's pennant race.

Losing the powerful batting attack of Chick Hafey, and with Sparky Adams on the injured list, Street was confronted with the problem of reorganizing the team. Announcement came today of the signing of the 'Rajah' by the Cardinals on a one-year contract.

HAS PROBLEMS

The hole at third base, with Adams gone, it wide open, but Hornsby is a second baseman. President Sam Breadon predicted that if Hornsby wins the second sack, berth Frankie Frisch, a Cardinal mainstay, will be shifted to third base and with Jim Bottomly at first complete the triumvirate. If Adams comes back physically fit, it will be difficult to bench him, however.

jected loudly. His remark was the signal for a running fire of interruptions from left-wingers. At this point Mr. Lloyd George, with a bland smile on his face, stepped into the fray. While he had sharp criticism for the Government he directed most of his remarks to his old Liberal colleagues.

Sir Herbert Samuel, leader of the Free-Trade Liberal group, had previously tweeted Mr. Lloyd George with being a successful farmer largely engaged in production of fattened calves which did not always find consumers.

The white-haired little Welshman, amid roars of laughter from the House, thanked Sir Herbert for his "synthetic humor" and proceeded with the declaration free trade was doomed from the moment Sir Herbert agreed to the last general election without sufficient guarantees.

One of the main difficulties of the parliamentary Liberal party, he continued, was that it could not escape responsibility for what was done in the last 15 months. It was entangled by commitments, he said, and a hobbled horse could not make much progress, especially if it had only one leg free.

Sir Herbert, he declared, had fallen flat in a no-man's land and was caught on barbed wire he himself had helped erect.

Then, with the crowded benches still laughing, Mr. Lloyd George divided the two Liberal wings in categories he called Pharisees and Sadducees.

The Sadducees, he said, looked across at the Simon Liberal supporters of the Government, took a broad, not to say worldly, view of the doctrines of the day and had not the slightest belief in the resurrection.

The Pharisees—and he looked at the Samuel group—were narrow and self-righteous, straining at such gnats as constitutional points but swallowing "huge camels." And the Pharisees, he said, professed a working belief in the resurrection.

He ended by suggesting the Government should meet the unemployment situation by embarking on a scheme of slum clearance, dock renovation, settlement on home land and similar public works.

Winter Cruises On Lady Liners

(Special to the Guardian)

MONTECAL, Que., Oct. 26.—Several special arrangements of schedules for the well known "Lady" liners, so as to permit a series of winter cruises from Halifax via Boston to Bermuda and the British West Indies and thence back to Halifax and Saint John, via Boston, are announced by officials of the company. These cruises of one week two weeks, three weeks and one month will take the place of Bermuda and Caribbean cruises operated by the Canadian National last winter directly from and back to Boston. Three additional days at sea without extra charge are offered for passengers taking the cruises from Maritime Provinces ports and disembarking at these ports. There will also be a continuation of the connection by Lady liners between Halifax and Boston, both ways and from Boston to Saint John. The ships concerned are the Lady Somers, Lady Nelson, Lady Rodney, Lady Drake and Lady Hawkins.

Most attractive among the 1932-33 cruises by Lady liners are three weeks to Bermuda, Nassau and Jamaica with three days in Jamaica, one week to Bermuda with two days in the Capital, Hamilton, 12 days to Montserrat and intermediate islands, three weeks to Barbados and ports enroute, with three days in Barbados, 27 days to British Guiana (South America), and ports enroute with two days at the Capital, Georgetown, 27 days to Trinidad with five days at the Capital, Port of Spain, and calls at ports enroute, three weeks to the Bahamas via Bermuda with nine days at

LAUNDERING CREPE DE CHINE

Crepe de Chine is better washed without soap, so it should not be allowed to get too soiled before it is laundered. Warm water in which powdered borax has been dissolved is quite an adequate cleaner. Let the garments soak in the water for a time, then squeeze gently in the hands until they look clean. Rinse in two waters at the same temperature, also containing borax, wring as dry as possible with the hands, then roll in a clean towel.
