Red Wings Account For First Victory Of Season By Defeating Leafs 2-1

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) DETROIT, Nov. 24.—Detroit's Red Wings won their first National Hockey League victory of the season tonight, beating the Toronto Maple Leafs 2-1 in a game marked by rough play and a third period struggle which halved the contest for more than 10 minutes. A crowd of 11,000 saw the game. It was the third straight loss for the Leafs. Barry scored in the first period on a pass from Lewis and it was a Leo-Kilrea-Goodfellow pass that enabled Heo Kilrea to score the second Detroit goal in the second stanza. Nick Metz on a pass from Conacher, prevented the Leafs from taking a shutout with a third period counter. The third period controversy was the result of a penalty on Bowman, Wing defense man. Howe took his place in the penalty box and Bowman's time was up. Howe went on the ice. After officials and players had argued from one end of the ice to the other, play was resumed with Howe drawing a two minute penalty for taking Bowman's place without permission. Thirteen penalties were assessed, seven going against the Leafs. Hainsworth played brilliantly, kicking out 24 shots, while Smith in the Wing cage had 25 stops. The lineup: Goal, Hainsworth; defense, Hollett and Day; centre, Thoms; wings, Finnigan and Boli; subs, Horner, Blair, Clancy, Conacher, Primeau, H. Jackson, Kelly, A. Jackson, Metz. Officials—Goal, Smith; defence, Goodfellow and Bowman; centre, W. Kilrea; wings, Kelly and H. Kilrea; subs, Sorrell, Brunet and Howe, Barry, Aurie, Lewis, McDonald, Young. Officials—Eusebe Daigneault and Johnny Mitchell.

Rugby Success A Fickle Dame East And West

(By Elmer Dulmage) (Canadian Press Staff Writer) TORONTO, Nov. 24.—This has been a successful football season for United States coaches in the west and Canadian coaches in the east. It has been an even more successful year for American players in the west and Canadian players in the east. Prairie football seems to have reached a formative stage such as the other end of the country passed through two or three years ago. While the gridiron sport in Ontario and Quebec produced dozens of great native players, the best crop in many years, it hastened to the imports from the United States. There were notable exceptions, such as Abe Eliowitz of Ottawa, Pat Ryan of Montreal, Johnny Ferraro and Jerry Brock of Hamilton and Ormond Beach and Rocky Parsica of Sarnia. And Canadian coaches rose to the occasion to turn out teams that upset the well-drilled squads coached by Americans. It seemed just possible near the close of League hostilities that the influence of Uncle Sam may be greatly reduced by 1936. Having taught the Canadian to use the forward pass and improve blocking in the line, he may be turned out. This is unlikely to be the case with such coaches as Lew Hayman of Toronto Argonauts, Warren Stevens of University of Toronto, Art Massucci of Sarnia and Bill Storen of University of Western Ontario. But it undoubtedly will be the case with many players. Among coaches, the honors were bestowed upon Ted Reeve of Queen's who brought the Varsity its second Intercollegiate title during his three years' stand in Kingston. Fred Veale's start with Hamilton Tigers, shaky at first, became an overwhelming success when the Tigers came from behind to capture the Big Four championship. These had little edge on other Canadians, including Alex Porton of Balm Beach, whose team made a brave stand against Sarnia in the O. R. F. U.; Joe O'Brien, noted referee who took over McGill and made the Redmen a great early-season threat, and the veteran Bill Hughes, who rallied Ottawa Roughriders near the finish so that the capital team twice defeated Argonauts. Reeve's success with a big, willing, hard-hitting bunch of boys at Kingston was the more impressive because he started with a team that seemed destined for certain defeat from Toronto Varsity. It was on the books that any college team would stop a Varsity with Bobby Coulter, Joe Connelly, Hugh Marks, Cam Gray, Mike Valerico and Bob Ister on the backfield. Yet Reeve accomplished it after first holding the Blues to a 3-3 tie and then losing an 18-15 decision. He proved at the start that Toronto team, superbly coached by Warren Stevens, and he topped the Blues in a playoff. Veale, former Queen's outside wing, has spent several years coaching Hamilton's second team, the Oubs of the O. R. F. U. before he was given his big chance with Tigers this fall. He started with an all-star cast, including Frank Turville, and Spuck Welch on the backfield, and spent a most uncomfortable month during which the Bengals behaved like anything but champions. They dropped two of their first four games, both to Argos, and then Johnny Ferraro, 1934 coach, came back as a player under Veale. Turville was injured but even that didn't matter. The combination of Veale, Welch and Ferraro was unbeatable in the Big Four. One of the best forward pass instructors in the Canadian game, Bill Storen from Detroit made a success with the Western Mustangs. The former St. Michael's College coach, helped by Johnny Metz, 1934 all-eastern snub, built the Mustangs from not much of anything into a team that could battle the best in the college union at the finish. He'll be back next season. Sarnia's Art Massucci, who led Imperials to the Canadian title in his first year, held together his great team through a series of injuries and is again shooting for national honors. In the west, three exceptionally able coaching jobs were recorded. Bob Frits, brought in from Concordia College, Minn., did everything that was expected of him by winning the western title for Winnipeg in his first year in the Canadian game. Al Ritchie, as able as any of them, turned out what he described his best Regina Roughriders team and saw it fight gamely but vainly against the powerful Manitobans. At Calgary, Carl Cronin built from the ground and produced a bang-up western finalist in November. Perhaps Cronin's feat was the most noteworthy. The former Notre Dame quarterback of Rockne's days helped Winnipeg to the Canadian final in 1933, then disappeared back into the United States for a year. Hamilton Tigers wanted him and Cronin almost came east, but he didn't. At Calgary he taught his Bronks rough football. By next season he may present Alberta with a western title. This year's team was beaten only 7-6 by Winnipeg.

Verdun Still Unbeaten In Senior Loop

MONTREAL, Nov. 24.—Verdun Maple Leafs today defeated Ottawa Senators 4-2 to remain undefeated in the Montreal Senior Group after a contest with each of the clubs making up the seven-team loop. Ottawa remained in third-place tie with Canadiens and Victorias while Verdun drew three points ahead of the second place McGill University. Before the Verdun-Ottawa clash at the Forum Lafontaine's season took its first victory of the season but succumbed to Victorias last period rally which produced three goals in 10 minutes for a 5-3 win. ROYALS BEATEN 4-1 OTTAWA, Nov. 24.—Displaying speed and effective defensive work, Ottawa Senators defeated Montreal Royals 4-1 in a Montreal Senior Group Hockey game here Saturday night which kept about 5,000 fans on edge throughout the exciting tussle featured by fistfights. It was Ottawa's second straight victory over the Montrealers in as many starts.

Maple Leafs Bow To Powerful Maroon Team; Canadiens Beat Amerks

CANADIENS DEFEAT AMERKS 2-1 MONTREAL, Nov. 24.—The second-straight victory and third of the week in the record of Montreal Canadiens tonight, following their hard-fought 2-1 win over New York Americans at the Forum Saturday in a National Hockey League hockey game that saw the New Yorkers' desperate effort in the second period drive held to one goal. The win for Canadiens tightened up the race in the League's Canadian section as the first-place Toronto Maple Leafs lost to Maroons. It was the second triumph of the season for Canadiens over the last-place Americans but a vastly closer struggle than the 6-0 affair in New York a week ago. Americans had a slight edge in the rugged first period but Canadiens outplayed the New Yorkers by a wide margin in the second when they scored both their goals then brilliant work by Cude and the hard-hitting Art Lesieur was all that held the driving Americans to one marker in the third. The veteran Aurel Joliat started Canadiens winning spurt on a neat play with Paul Runge and Wildor Laroche. Runge carried over the blue line and passed to Laroche while Joliat parked outside the goal crease. Joliat took Laroche's relay and slapped it behind Roy Worters. Smooth-working Paul Haynes made the play for Canadiens' second goal when he sped into the left corner and passed out perfectly to Jack McGill whose short drive beat the goalkeeper. The little New York goalkeeper was unbeatable from then on. The Americans kept play in Canadian territory for most of the third period but the session was almost three-quarters gone before Eric Cotton started the play for the lone marker. He went over the blue line close to the boards and shot a rinkwide pass to the uncovered Harry Oliver. Oliver coasted in on Cude and beat him with a blazing shot to the corner. The score to the heights in the last five minutes when he stopped drives from Al Murray, Sweeney Schriner and Oliver when they were alone on him. Canadiens: Goal, Cude; defence, Lesieur, Bussard, forward, Joliat, dou, Goldsworthy, G. Mantha; subs, S. Mantha, Pusie, Joliat, Laroche, McGill, Haynes, Gagnon, Runge, Couture. Americans: Goal, Worters; defence, Chapman, Carr, Schriner; subs, Dutton, Murray, Stewart, Cotton, Oliver, Voss, Klein, Wiseman. Officials: Bell and Rodden.

his second goal in a play with Holey Smith to make the score 3-1 and half way through the period the Leafs' first line broke away from their checks and produced their only goal, Charlie Conacher scoring after a passing bout with Harvey Jackson. Leafs sent everyone up after that and most of the time had five forwards on the ice. In 19:24 Jimmy Ward caught them flatfooted for the first time, he and Northcott combining to beat the Leaf goalie. Only 21 seconds later and 15 before the game ended they repeated the stunt. Lineups:— Maroons: Goal, Beveridge; defence, Shields, L. Conacher; forwards, Gracie, Cain, Marker; sub, Wentworth. Saint John Forum Asks City To Guarantee Bonds

ST. JOHN, N. B., Nov. 24.—A request that, to prevent closing of the Forum, the city guarantee its bonds to the extent of $5,000, was placed before the Common Council yesterday by a delegation. Consideration of this was deferred until the council has time to study a statement of the rink's financial affairs, and also until it can be ascertained from the major bondholders whether they are willing to have the interest rate on the Forum's bonds cut, temporarily anyway, from six to three percent. As spokesman for the delegation, D. J. Corr, Forum manager, outlined the difficulties the rink had faced.

Briggs New Tiger Prexy

MIAMI BEACH, Fla., Nov. 24.—The presidency of the world champion Detroit Tigers has been assumed by Walter O. Briggs, industrialist and for 15 years silent partner of the late Frank J. Navin in the American League Baseball club. Mickey Cochrane, catcher-manager who steered the Tigers to two straight American League pennants and the 1935 championship, continues in his post and has also been named vice president of the club. The announcement of the Tigers' management came out of Briggs' winter estate near here Saturday after he had been in conference with Cochrane and other club officials. The sale, purchase, trade or release of players—everything in the playing department—will be in Cochrane's hands. Asked whether this meant a new contract for the catcher, Briggs said: "We don't have to talk about contracts." Exercising an option, Briggs purchased complete control of the club at Navin's recent death. Cochrane denied negotiations were underway to buy outfielder Al Simmons from Chicago White Sox, although he earlier admitted "I'd like to have another good outfielder."

Old Cricket Bat Is A Real Relic

WORCESTER, England, Nov. 24.—In his will, Albert Vivian Moore of The Hurst, Hagley, Worcester-shire, left to his son, Christopher Edward Moore, the "All-England cricket bat formerly belonging to my father, William Henry Moore." The story of the old bat, worn and to modern eyes, shapeless, was told by its recipient. "I wouldn't part with it for anything," he said. "In the tophat days of 1863 my grandfather was one of a Walsall 22 picked to play against an All England eleven. He scored a century and nearly made enough runs to win the match, but, in fact, was 11 runs short. "His side presented him with the bat, on which they engraved an inscription in silver."

London Tecs Strengthen League Lead

London strengthened its hold on the International League's western section lead with a 4-2 victory over the Falcons at Cleveland while the Buffalo Bisons were losing 4-3 in overtime to Rochester in Saturday night's twin bill. It was Rochester's first win of the season. Big Bill Gill, former Moncton Hawk, was on Tecumseh's lineup for the first time and turned in a fine defensive game and was backed up by the spectacular work of goalkeeper Herb Stuart. London's starting line of Ray Getliffe, Joffre Deslites and Walter Breneman was held scoreless but the former Saint John, N. B., trio was strong defensively. Kendall with two goals and Eric Pettinger and Kenny with one each accounted for London's goals while Daley and Vic Ripley scored for the Falcons. Why? Farrant was the star in Rochester's victory when he tied the score with less than three minutes to play in the third period then shot in the winning goal in the first minute of overtime. Les Cunningham, Bill Touhey and Roger Roth scored for Buffalo and Scotty and Bartholomew counted for Rochester before the former Toronto amateur came through. Rochester found it too tough playing on successive nights and lost 3-2 in overtime at Syracuse on Sunday night.

Upsets Feature U. S. Football

(By Herbert W. Barker) (Associated Press Sports Writer) NEW YORK, Nov. 24.—California's Golden Bears were lopped off the United States championship football last Saturday as another wave of upsets struck the sport, but Princeton, Minnesota, Southern Methodist and Texas Christian roared along the undefeated trail unchecked. The day's biggest crowd 90,000 saw Stanford's Indians ruin California's hopes of an unbeaten season, a Pacific Coast Conference title and a berth in the Rose Bowl game New Year's day. The Indians won 19-0 and clinched a share of the Conference title. Despite the handicap of a heavy snowstorm, Princeton's Tigers demonstrated their right to high ranking by crushing Dartmouth, previously undefeated and untied, 26-6 before a capacity crowd of 58,000. Minnesota, wallowing Wisconsin 33-7 wound up its third consecutive unbeaten season with a string of 17 victories in a row and no defeats in the last 24 games. The Gophers, undefeated Big Ten champions last year, will share the 1935 title, however, with Ohio State whose Buckeyes clinched an unbeaten conference campaign with an easy 38-0 rout of Michigan. Southern Methodist and Texas Christian, the southwest powers, both hung up conference victories and will settle their personal dispute next Saturday. S. M. U. was hard-pressed to turn back Baylor 10-0 but Christian outted Rice, the 1934 Conference champions, 27-6.

Urges Non Commercial Football

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire) SEWANE, Tenn., Nov. 21.—Banishment of "commercial" football from college sports is advocated by Dr. Henry Pritchett, President-Emeritus of the Carnegie Foundation for the Advancement of Teaching, in an article published here today. "It is not part of the service of an educational institution," he said, "to lend itself to a commercial exploitation of college boys, which is precisely what is done in American intercollegiate sports, and particularly in football." In England, he wrote, "football has remained a game played by boys and played with a joy of the game." He suggested Americans should follow the English example "and abolish the professional coach and gate receipts."

For that warning credit Dr. Chevalier Jackson, who perhaps has looked into as many throats as any man living. "The larynx is utterly ruined in football in many people every year," Dr. Jackson said in an address today.
