STANLEY TO RESCUE.—The C. S. Stanley has gone to Newfoundland in an attempt to float the steamship Ascania of the Cunard line. The Ascania is a vessel of 6,000 tons and was on her way to Montreal when she went on the rocks. The Stanley took some big pumps and is now at the scene of the wreck standing by to render any assistance necessary and there is hope that the Ascania will be floated soon.

"DIED OF PNEUMONIA.—A deep gloom is cast over Montague and Cardigan by the death of Mrs. William McEachern, formerly Miss Jessie Bears, Montague. Mrs. McEachern, who was taken ill with Spanish influenza about a week ago, and soon after developed double pneumonia, from which she died on Tuesday last, leaving a sorrowing husband and three young children, and a host of friends. The late Mrs. McEachern was a general favorite wherever she was known, she was of a lovable and sunny disposition, and to meet her was to love her. Her early death has cast a darkness over the community, and an empty loneliness in more than one home. Her parents Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Bears, Montague, also her brothers and sisters, besides the above mentioned have the deepest sympathy of the people here, as they mourn the loss of one so precious to all. Two other sisters are at present ill at Cardigan with the same disease, but are reported better.—T.

WEDDING BELLS.—St. Mallick's Church, Kinkora, was the scene of a happy event on the morning of Nov. 12th, when Ada Mulligan, daughter of Michael Mulligan, Newton, was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. Robert Glover, Spring Valley. The ceremony was performed by the pastor Rev. J. J. McDonald. The bride who is one of Newton's most popular young ladies looked charming in a gown of large silk with hat to match. She was attended by her sister Miss Adelaide. The groom was ably supported by his brother James. The wedding march was beautifully rendered by Mrs. Edward McCarroll, cousin of the bride. The groom's present to the bride was a beautiful brooch set with pearls, to the bridesmaid a gold chain and pendant and to the groomsmen a set of gold cufflinks. The evening was enjoyably spent in dancing and music. The following evening Mr. and Mrs. Glover drove to their future home in Spring Valley, where a splendid reception awaited them. The many and costly presents received both in Spring Valley and Newton testify to the popularity of the happy couple.

MACLEOD—BRUCE WEDDING.—A very interesting event took place on Wednesday evening, Nov. 20th, at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John D. Bruce, Valleyfield, when their daughter Catherine May was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Mr. John D. MacLeod, Orwell. The ceremony was performed by the pastor, Rev. J. M. MacLeod, assisted by Rev. Dr. MacEwan, Orwell. The bride who was attired in white broadcloth with georgette crepe was given away by her father and was attended by the groom's sister Miss Etta MacLeod whose gown was of pink silk, while the groom was supported by Mr. W. A. Bruce, brother of the bride. The wedding march was very acceptably rendered by the bride's sister Esther. After the ceremony the guests resorted to the dining-room where the table was decorated in a manner becoming the occasion and the dainties thereon temptingly appealing to the guests to do them justice. The gifts were numerous and costly, testifying to the popularity of the young couple. They left for their future home in Orwell at the close of the festivities amid shower of rice and all good wishes for a long and happy married life.

Sarsaparilla For a Time Like This, After Influenza, the Grip.

When purified blood, rebuilt strength and regulated bowels are essential.

In the after-effects of influenza, the grip and other prostrating diseases, Hood's Sarsaparilla has remarkable health-helping effect.

It expels the poisons that have weakened and depleted the blood, causing pallor, anemia, flabby flesh and lax muscles. It is the standard blood remedy with a successful record of nearly fifty years.

Many people—it is really astonishing how many—need a fine, gentle, easy cathartic in these trying times. We recommend Hood's Pills, used in the best families, and equally effective with delicate women or robust men.

CLASSER ORGANIZED.—The committee appointed at the Girl's Conference met Monday in the Y. M. C. A. and reported that 16 classes have been organized in the different churches to take up the Canadian Girls in Training Program.

ARMY AND NAVY CLUB.—A large meeting of the Army and Navy Club was held last night. A committee was appointed to act with a similar committee from the G. W. V. A. in the interests of returned soldiers. The object of the joint committee is to take united action in securing positions for returned men.

SUBMARINE CUT CABLE.—During the early part of last summer Newfoundland was isolated from the outside world for a couple of weeks, owing to the fact that the cable stretching across the straits was cut by a German submarine. This was one of the items of news suppressed by the censor.

Cadet L. G. Prowse, of the Canadian Engineers, son of Hon. A. P. Prowse, of Murray Harbor arrived home yesterday from England. He left the island in May last, having joined the Engineers in St. John's, Que.

He has been in England since June having been assigned to duty at the base office, Folkestone, not being permitted to go to France owing to physical disablement, which put him in Category B-2.

Cadet Prowse crossed from Canada to England in the S. S. Saturnia from Montreal with 1,500 soldiers. It was an exciting trip of which little was told in the Canadian papers at the time owing to the censor regulations then prevailing.

On the second day the ship was attacked by a submarine at 7 p. m. but she missed her mark. Next morning at 6.30 the pirate again was seen, but the gunners were prepared and before she had time to launch a missile the British gunners sent a fusillade of shells into her and she was seen to heel over and disappear.

Cadet Prowse came home by H. M. transport Aquitania, which reached Halifax last Thursday with over 4,000 soldiers. They were given a great send off leaving England and a royal welcome at Halifax.

It is with deep sorrow we have to record the sad death of Mr. Everett Garrett, of Cable Head West, on Nov. 18th at the early age of 22 years. The deceased, who was the eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. Joshua Garrett, had resided in Lowell, Mass., but had been in failing health for some time and early in the summer, he came to his father's home to regain his strength. Every thing was done for him that loving hands and medical aid could do, but in vain. All through his long months of sickness, he never murmured but was always patient in tribulation and put his trust in his Saviour whom he knew would take away his sufferings and pain. Mr. Garrett was a most estimable young man, of kind, gentle and cheerful disposition, loved and admired by all who knew him. To know him was to love him. He was a graduate of Union Commercial College, having graduated with high honours. One might be able to appreciate the high esteem by which he was regarded in the community by the tears that were shed by his friends and relatives at the funeral service, which was conducted by Rev. J. M. MacLeod, who visited him during his illness and who spoke very touchingly and most hopefully of his entrance into that life beyond, to be with Christ which is far better. The funeral which took place on Nov. 9th was largely attended and the remains were laid to rest in the cemetery at Migell. He leaves to mourn by his early demise, a sorrowing wife (nee Miss Granville MacVittie), and an infant daughter, six weeks old, a heart stricken father and mother and two brothers, Samuel and Alvan at home. The pall bearers were: Ivan Anderson, Duncan MacLaren, John Henry Simons, Simon MacLaren, Brenton MacLaren and Ashley

NAVAL PATROL DISBANDING.

The naval patrol which has been stationed at Louisburg, N. S., has been ordered to Halifax, where the crews will be disbanded. Mine fields along the southern coast have been swept up and other war-time harbor protections removed.

TO CENTRAL INDIA.—Miss Emmeline Compton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Compton, Morell, left yesterday for San Francisco, Cal., from which city she will sail on Dec. 20th for Honolulu, thence to Hong Kong and subsequently to Calcutta, India, to take up Presbyterian Mission work in that distant country. She is expected to be absent at least four years.

MEDAL RECEIVED.—Sergeant Harry A. McDougall, 2nd Canadian Siege Battery, C. F. A., who will be remembered as the courteous clerk at Patons, Ltd., has sent home the Military Medal won by him at the front. It is a beautiful silver medal, bearing on one side the King and his inscription as King of Great Britain and Ireland and Emperor of India. On the other side is the British crest and below it the words: "For Bravery in the Field." This is surrounded with the Maple Wreath. The gallant young officer is still in France.

FAREWELL PARTY.—On the evening of Nov. 12th a number of friends from Covehead and vicinity, gathered to bid farewell to Mr. William White and family who are about to leave Cove Head to make a new home in Milton. The evening was spent very pleasantly with music and social chat. Lunch was served in Mrs. White's good style and needless to say all did ample justice to the good things provided. As the evening was nearing its close, Mr. James Matthew took the floor and after thanking Mr. and Mrs. White for the pleasant evening, which was a reminder of many pleasant times together, spoke feelingly of the sorrow all showed at losing Mr. White and family from the community and the church where they have worked so faithfully and so willingly.

WEDDING BELLS.—An event of more than passing interest took place at St. Andrew's Church Wednesday morning Nov. 20th at 8 o'clock, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Eunice C., daughter of John J. and Mrs. McAdam, West St. Peter's, to Mr. James Vincent Murphy, Station Agent of Murray River. The bride who was attended by Miss Annie McDonald, looked charming in a blue-tailored suit with hat to match, while the bridesmaid wore a black plush coat with large picture hat, the best man being Mr. Roddie McAdam, brother of the bride. After the ceremony the happy couple left the Church to the strains of the wedding march played by Miss Hattie Gillis, of Charlottetown, and suffice to say that a fairer or more charming bride never crossed its portals, and the sun which had been hid from view by clouds for days previous, beamed forth in all its splendor as if auguring for the young couple a long life of bliss and sunshine. After a pleasant drive through the eastern part of the island in Mr. Murphy's car, the wedding party returned to the bride's home where a tastefully appointed and sumptuous wedding dinner was partaken of, the afternoon being pleasantly whiled away with music and song. In the evening a grand reception was held when one hundred specially invited guests came to offer felicitations on their nuptials. At 6 p. m. the guests were ushered to the banquet table laden with tempting viands and decked with scented flowers while gaily floating from the ceiling were streamers tastefully hung with flags and bunting leading to all a pleasant and patriotic air. The sumptuous repast which had been prepared in Mrs. McAdam's inimitable style assisted by willing hands, terminating, all present repaired to the brilliantly lighted dance room adjoining where the wedding reel was danced with grace and dignity, after which the remainder of the evening was pleasantly passed in dancing, music, mirth and song. The bride's costume for the evening was silver Tulle over pale blue satin with pearl trimmings, while the bridesmaid wore a gown of peacock blue satin. The numerous and costly wedding gifts from friends far and near bespoke the wide esteem of the newly married couple. Their cordial desire to please and their kindly greeting to all the guests suggested the origin of their popularity for "kind hearts are more than coronets." The groom's gift to the bride was a pearl peridot necklace, to the bridesmaid a cameo ring and the groomsmen a pair of gold cuff links. After the guests had enjoyed themselves to the fullest all charming young bride long years of happy wedded bliss, the bride being one of West St. Peter's most estimable and talented young ladies while the groom holds a lucrative position as telegrapher on the Railway. BUSINESS CHANGES.—The store of S. E. Gallant, Ltd., has undergone a change in its interior, the office which was at the rear end, being moved to the centre of the main store. The department formerly occupied by the office, has been converted to a shoe room.—M.

DR. McMILLAN RETURNING HOME.—His many friends in Charlottetown and throughout the province will be pleased to learn that Dr. W. J. P. McMillan expects to arrive home on Thursday evening and especially that he is returning in the best of health after his few weeks rest in Boston and other American cities. It will be remembered that after a somewhat severe attack of influenza he adopted this means of recuperation and with gratifying results.

WEDDING BELLS.—A very pretty wedding was solemnized at the Holy Rosary Cathedral, Regina, Sask., on the 12th inst., when Miss Mary McNeill became the bride of Mr. Thomas John Edwards, of that city. Miss McNeill was for a number of years before going West book keeper for the late firm of McGowan & Wright, Summerside, and is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McNeill, of this town. Her many friends throughout the Province will be happy in extending to her their best wishes for long and happy married life. Mrs. Edwards will be at home to her friends after Dec. 1st 1918, at 2034 Rae St, Regina.—H.

NEWS FROM TIBET.—The announcement of the birth of a eleven-pound girl to Mr. and Mrs. R. A.

MacLeod of Flora, Tibet, has been received and will be of much interest here as Mr. MacLeod is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Duncan MacLeod, Hartsville, P. E. I. Mr. MacLeod says "she sleeps during the day and does her nursing at night. She very effectively commands her "daddy." Her lightest whisper moves him more than all the ranged reasoning in the world." He writes about the general conditions in Tibet as follows:—Conditions are better than at present. Fighting has been suspended and peace plans are under way. A good deal of robbing is going on in the vicinity of Batang. The last mail we got was dated May 11 and there was very little of that. He asks for some sugar beet seed. His letter was dated August 17, 1918. It was received here November 20, 1918.

The Always Dependable Flour

Good Bread and Pastry Always

QUEEN CITY FLOUR has the delicacy, the sweet flavor of Ontario Wheat, and the good mixing quality that makes delightful pastry. For bread it contains the exact amount of gluten required to ensure splendid big loaves that rise right up out of the pans. The famous Queen City blend does not vary, because its uniformity is maintained by constant testing of wheat samples in our laboratories.

QUEEN CITY FLOUR

(Milled according to Government Standard)

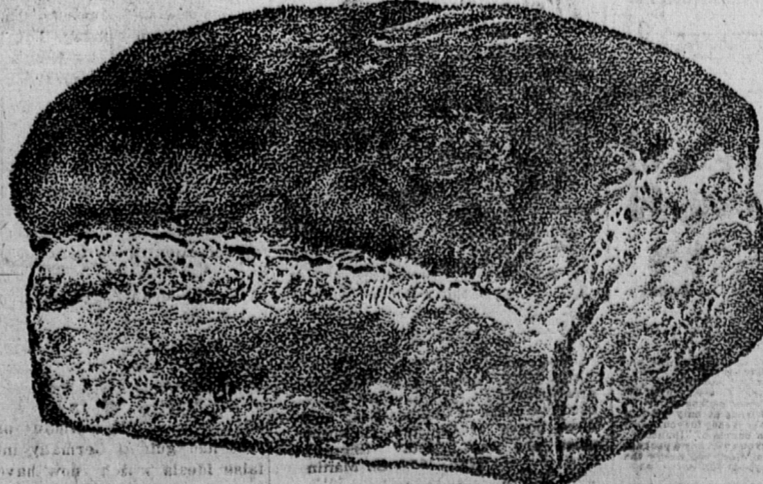

is a reliable flour for both pastry and bread. Our chemists, trained at the Ontario Agricultural College, make certain that Queen City Flour is never stronger one time and weaker another time, as is the case with ordinary blended flours.

Think of what this means to you. It saves expensive shortening. It saves puzzling disappointments in your baking, for, once you are acquainted with Queen City Flour, you always know what it will do for you. Try it.

Made in Most Modern Mills

Queen City Flour represents the perfected results of half a century of milling experience. It is made in mills equipped with every modern advantage that can make for better flour.
