S. K. AND MRS. BELL of St. John's Nfld left for Charlottetown, P. E. I. last week. Mrs. Bell is on an extended visit to relatives but Mr. Bell returns immediately.
A PARTICULARLY attractive musical meeting to which the public is invited, is to be held Thursday night at the Salvation Army barracks. Mr. Hawley is in charge.
The following members of the House of Assembly are registered at the Queen's—Speaker Douglas, J. M. Clarke, L. Wood, P. D. Bowlen, J. Agnew, Geo. Simpson, Benj. Gallant.
HON. S. E. REID returned from Summerside yesterday, where he and Mrs. Reid had gone the previous day to attend the funeral of Mr. Reid's uncle, the late Andrew Reid.
HON. GEO. SIMPSON was unable to attend at the opening of the Legislature yesterday—owing to his being at Malpeque attending the funeral of his sister, Mrs. Charles Taylor.
The Guardian has decided to inaugurate an Employment Bureau, where all possible information will be given regarding vacant situations and available help. Persons wanting work of any kind, or who are looking for help of any kind, should send their name and address with all particulars, or call at The Guardian Employment Bureau, or telephone 132 at New Prowse Block, Charlottetown.

The funeral took place yesterday at St. Georges of Benj. McCormack of Launcheon, who died on Sunday last after a long and painful illness. The deceased was a young man of fine character and his death at the age of thirty-four will be mourned wherever he was known.
At the Opera House last night the Waite Comedy Co. brought their seven night engagement to a close with The Winning Hand, rendered most capably by the popular company. The fun which ensued when three candidates presented themselves as contestants for the five dollars offered for the homeliest man in the audience was equal to a circus. The prize fell to Hector Stewart McDonald, a young man better known as "Dugald" a resident of King Street. He "won out" more on popularity than on merit for his competitors could give him points easily.
THERE was not a very large attendance at the hockey match between the Victorias, and Stars of Souris last night. The game was slow and rough all through. The score in the first half was 5-0 in favor of the Vics and in the second half they added nine more to their credit giving them the game with the total of 14 to 0. Harry Sterns of Souris refereed. The game between the Druggists and the Stars of Charlottetown was fair Hockey free from roughness, and resulted in favor of the latter with a score of 6 to 3. I. Reddin received a cut over his eye and had to retire to get two stitches put in. J. McMillan, refereed.
A GOOD time all round was the opinion of the large crowd that attended the basket and pie social at the Consolidated School at Hazelbrook last evening. A special train left at 7 o'clock with about 250 passengers on board. Dr. Dewar presided most efficiently as chairman. The program consisted of vocal solos by J. B. Haley (encored), and Elmer Ritchie, a trombone solo by A. Gaudet, a violin solo by Alfred Stewart (encored), a reading by Miss Rattray (encored), a character sketch by Austin Trainor, dancing of the Highland Fling and another dance by Guy Scott and his own swinging by F. Havant. The character sketch by Austin Trainor, and the readings by Miss Rattray, are deserving of special mention. Mr. Trainor's sketch consisted of nine different characters and to say he personated each to perfection is as mildly as it can be put. His delineations showed that he has the talent which goes to make an actor. Guy Scott's dancing of the Highland Fling simply brought down the house and Fred Howat captivated the audience with his baton swinging. Prof. Earle was—well everybody knows he's of the best. Miss Thorne shared the duty of accompanist. A feat the performance the sale of basket pie put up to barter by that inimitable auctioneer B. C. Prowse, took place, netting a good sum, which goes towards paying for the new piano recently purchased by the school. The train left for Charlottetown at 11 o'clock bringing a happy crowd which was loth to leave a "jolly good time."
