

MONDAY

DEATH OF MISS PROFITT, R.N. The death occurred at the P. E. Island Hospital, Friday night, of Miss Mamie Profitt, a trained nurse under particularly sad circumstances. Miss Profitt was one of the nurses who cared for a number of Para-Typhoid cases in the city and succeeded in bringing them safely through, but contracted the disease and passed away on Friday. The remains were removed from Wright's undertaking parlors Saturday afternoon and taken to her former home in Alberton by train.

PRISONER REMANDED. The man Rose or Wolfe, who was arrested Friday, was brought before the Magistrate Saturday and his case adjourned. The prisoner asked if he could not be tried as he intended pleading "guilty." He was informed that the Attorney General was looking into the case. A man appeared in court and claimed the prisoner secured bills from him to collect, but he was informed he had better not do so if any money was collected. The prisoner also worried about his car, but his Honor gave the machine in charge of officer James Walker who will store it while matters are being straightened out.

Following is the result of the G. W. V. A. Popularity Contest:— 1. Miss Gusale Acorn 156390 2. Miss Adele McLellan 120,880 3. Miss Helen Power 71,040 4. Miss Ruby Moton 33,550 5. Miss Laura Brothers 31,210 6. Miss Helen Hogan 26,200 7. Miss Sadie Head 22,630 8. Miss Reta McDonald 12,710 9. Miss Beatrice McKenna 6,590

The winning candidates are requested to apply to the G. W. V. A. Rooms to receive an order for their prizes. Mrs. G. E. Serren who nominated the First Prize Winner, receives a ten dollar gold piece. Owing to the fact that Miss Reta McDonald, left the city for St. John early in the contest her name was withdrawn but as the names were printed on the ballot it had to remain on the list.

FAMILY RE-UNION.—The arrival here of Mr. Franklin C. Cotton and the Rev. Walter Aidan Cotton has effected a reunion of the family of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Cotton, of this city, now in the fifth year of their married life. Mr. F. C. Cotton, with his wife and family of three boys, came from St. Peter's, Cape Breton. They crossed from Pictou in the S. S. Magdalene on Saturday evening. The Rev. W. A. Cotton has been in his native city throughout the past ten days. Seventeen years have elapsed since he went to England. Previously he was for several years Rector of Georgetown and Cherry Valley, and assistant priest at St. Luke's Cathedral, Halifax. In England he was for two years a curate of St. Michael's Church, Croydon—just outside of London. Then he went to Miffield in Yorkshire, entered the Community of the Resurrection and afterwards went to South Africa as a missionary among the Kaffirs and Zulus. Father Cotton is now Principal of a college in Rosettenville, Johannesburg, for the education and training of native clergy for the Anglican church, in South Africa, and he is enjoying a holiday. The reunion of the two absent ones with their parents, brothers and sisters resident in this city, is an event in the life of the family that is pleasant for all.

In St. Paul's Church yesterday morning Rev. Canon Troop spoke upon the vital subject of Christian Unity as distinguished from Church Union. The vision of Christian Unity and the vision of the second coming of Christ, as distinguished from the end of the world came to him slowly, but with wonderful significance, years after he had been ordained, through an article in the New York Churchman, pointing out the bond of union in Christian baptism. One cannot be baptised into a sect of Christianity but into the whole Christian society.

Baptism and Communion are on a level as instituted by Our Lord. One stands for the new birth and the other for Christian sustenance.

and no Christian body has a monopoly on these institutions, just as no Christian body has a monopoly on the Bible.

The speaker had the profoundest sympathy with the Presbyterians, Methodists and Congregationalists in their great endeavor to unite in what is called Church Union but he did not believe that Christ's prayer, that the Church might be one, referred to this union, but to Christian unity of spirit. Other wise we must suppose that the Saviour's prayer has remained unanswered. But Christ already has his one flock, though man has divided or tried to divide it. He said that His Church would be composed of wheat and tares, that both would grow together until the harvest, and that no man could separate them until that time. No one could gather together all Christ's flock in the city of Charlottetown, for no one knows that flock but the Savior Himself, and membership in Christ's flock does not depend upon membership in any particular church.

Even if we could unite every Christian body in one large church it would not be the answer to Christ's prayer. We would just have an enormous church, with the wolves still present in sheep's clothing. We had Church Union for a thousand years before the Church was divided, east and west but that was not Christian Unity. At the evening service Rev. Canon Troop preached a powerful sermon on the story of his own enlightenment as to the true import of "The Second Coming of Our Lord and Saviour Jesus Christ."

The funeral of the late Mrs. Michael Burke, took place Wednesday morning at 9.45 from her residence, 57 King St., under the direction of Mr. Frank Hennessey, to St. Dunstan's Cathedral thence to the Roman Catholic Cemetery. The Requiem High Mass was celebrated by the Rev. Father Rooney and Rev. Father Maurice McDonald officiated at the grave. The pall bearers were Mr. Simon Joseph, Mr. Robert Kirwin, Mr. Robert Woods and Mr. Nicholas Thistle.

She leaves to mourn a sorrowing husband and two adopted children Mrs. Ernest Fraser, Polamou, C. B. and Charlie at home, two sisters Mrs. William Harris, Boston and Mrs. William Decoste, city. They have the heartfelt sympathy of the community in their sad bereavement.

A REMARKABLE SWIMMER.—The following item clipped from a Worcester, Mass. paper will be of interest to many friends here. The little lady here mentioned is a niece of Mr. Justice A. E. Arsenault and of Mr. J. E. Gallant, druggist, Summerside. Estelle Gallant, 7 years old, daughter of James F. Gallant, manager of the Quinsigamond Boat Club, and a swimming protegee of Jack Barnicle instructor at the Worcester Rowing and Recreation club, is receiving congratulations from members of the club for her recent remarkable stunt of swimming across the waters of Lake Quinsigamond at a point near the Rowing Club. Estelle is the youngest child ever to accomplish the swim, according to Coach Barnicle, who says she has remarkable endurance for one so young and may possibly develop into a champion girl swimmer. The young lady accomplished the swim unaccompanied in the water but was followed in a rowboat by Coach Barnicle.

A BAD ACCIDENT.—While helping a neighbor at making hay last Saturday evening, Mr. Alex. Anderson of Orwell-Brush Wharf was seriously injured in the face by falling on a hay rake. Dr. Keeping of Vernon was phoned for and promptly came in and did all possible with the means at hand. Kind friends volunteered to take Mr. Anderson to the city, arriving at the P. E. I. Hospital at midnight where the wound was further treated, and the patient made as comfortable as possible and up to last evening was doing as well as could be expected.

AT ST. JAMES' CHURCH.—At St. James' Church yesterday Principal Fraser, of the Montreal Presbyterian College preached to a very able congregation. In the evening he spoke on the significance of the song of Israel: "Spring up, O Well; sing ye unto it;" a beautiful little lyric found in the book of Numbers. To the oriental mind the well was the symbol of abject toil and the song illustrated the genius of the Hebrew people, who reached a religion which made the humblest duty a joy. The speaker went on to show that the life of Christ, though full of routine and labor, was full also of aspiration and idealism. His whole life, like Nature, was one of response in action. The sacrament of eating and drinking in remembrance of Him, was symbolic of His elevation and consecration of the commonest things of life.

On the morning of August 8th there passed peacefully away Augustus T. Cairns son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cairns of Baldwin's Road. The deceased was a talented young man who was highly admired for his good qualities.

During his illness which he bore patiently and cheerfully he was attended by his pastor Rev. I. R. A. McDonald. Gus when a boy attended Queen Square School, Charlottetown and later St. Dunstan's University and Prince of Wales College where he stood out as a brilliant student. He taught school successfully for a number of years till he received the appointment of School Inspector which office he resigned owing to ill health. He was a prominent member of the Charlotte town Council, Knights of Columbus and a member of the P. E. I. Yacht Club. He was buried in St. Teresas Church where a Requiem High Mass was sung by Rev. I. R. A. McDonald. Rev. P. D. McGuigan was present in the sanctuary. Rev. Theo Gallant presided at the organ while Rev. Bernard Gillis assisted the choir. Besides his sorrowing father and mother he leaves to mourn one brother and six sisters.

The following brother Knights were pall-bearers, Martin Monaghan, W. W. Coyle, Louis Wynne, Pictou, McCormac and Francis Hennessey. Mass Cards were received from the Charlottetown Council, Knights of Columbus, Mr. and Mrs. John Cairns and family, Mr. and Mrs. James Pratt, Miss Florence Cronan, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. McInnis, Miss Margaret and Helen Towan, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Monaghan and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McPhee, Mr. Jack Morrissey, Eliza Alex and J. J. McDonald Miss Agnes Murnaghan Mr. Pictou Mr. W. A. Hynes, Miss Alice Goodwin, Miss Kathleen McCarville, His Newport friends.

As previously announced His Excellency the Governor General visited Mount Carmel on Friday afternoon for the purpose of unveiling the memorial gateway to the cemetery. His Excellency was accompanied by his secretary and aides de camp, Capt. the Hon. F. W. Erskine and Col. D. A. MacKinnon, D. S. O., and by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor, His Worship Mayor Lidstone of Summerside and a number of other visitors. The decorations at Mount Carmel were equal, if not surpassing those in Summerside and Charlottetown. All along the route through Mount Carmel flags were flying, and the display of flags and bunting at Mt. Carmel church lent an air of gay festivity to the occasion. On his arrival His Excellency and party were met by the genial pastor of the parish Rev. Father Arsenault, Mr. Adrian Arsenault, M. L. A., Rev. J. A. Macdonald, Grand River and other visiting clergymen and laymen, and accompanied to the balcony of the Parochial House which had been gaily decorated for the occasion. Here Mr. Justice Arsenault on behalf of the Acadians of the Province, after "O Canada" had been sung in French, read an address in French in which His Excellency replied in the same language. His Excellency spoke in French fluently and the large assemblage were greatly delighted to hear the reply in their own tongue a mark of courtesy which they will not soon forget. After the reply His Excellency from the balcony pulled a cord which unveiled the monument. A little boy and a little girl, brother and sister of young men who had served in France made a presentation of a beautiful rug the work of ladies of the parish and a number of other friends. His Excellency then wished to mark the occasion by granting the school children of the parish a holiday on his birthday the 11th September next. The mothers and fathers of boys who had served in France were next presented as well as all the young men present who had served after which all present who wished to do so marched past and shook hands with His Excellency. The monument was then visited after which the assemblage sang the National Anthem and His Excellency departed amidst cheers.

We are informed that His Excellency was much pleased and although he had to rush in order to catch the boat at Borden his remark was "Well it was worth it." Ont.

TUESDAY A VERY ENJOYABLE ice cream festival was held in the Town Hall, Georgetown, on Wednesday evening, August 22nd, proceeds in aid of the Building Fund of St. James Church. A large number entered with zest and enjoyment into the spirit of the occasion. Miss Helen Boyce of Dorchester, Mass., delighted the audience by dancing the "Highland Fling." A good sum of money was realized.—A.

BRIDAL SHOWER.—On Friday evening, a miscellaneous shower was tendered Miss Margaret Drummond (whose happy marriage is to take place Wednesday) at the home of Mrs. John B. McKay, Springfield. After the bride-to-be was brought to the parlor little Rhoda McLeod dressed in bride's costume, wheeled in the prettily decorated and heavily laden carriage containing silver, cut glass, and pyrex ware. Miss Florie Hickey cut strings, while Miss Bessie McKean read the verses. Mr. Drummond responded in a few words, thanking her friends for their kindness and expressing her complete surprise. After singing, "For She's a Jolly Good Fellow" a dainty lunch was served by the ladies, and a quiet social evening was spent.

Owing to unforeseen circumstances it was necessary for Major Shearer to cancel his seaplane trip to Summerside on Friday. Mr. J. L. Roy Hume motored to Charlottetown and personally took up the matter with Commandeer Shearer explaining to him the many disappointments occasioned by nonfulfillment of previously contemplated visits and urged him to make the trip on his return from the Magdalene Islands. Major Shearer appreciated fully the situation and kindly consented to make the visit early next week. He expects to fly to the Magdalene on Sunday and will return on Monday. He will telegraph the hour of his arrival in the Western Capital which will likely be on Tuesday morning weather permitting. He will take a bird's eye picture of Summerside make a demonstration landing then proceed to Pictou via the Nova Scotia coast.

WELCOME VISITOR.—Rev. Fr. Michael Francis left Pictou on Friday morning, Aug. 10th after spending a few days with his uncle Mr. George Shelton. He was indeed a welcome visitor to Tignish and all did their utmost to make his visit as pleasant as possible. Mr. Shelton invited a number of the young priest's friends, both old and new, to supper on Sunday evening, Aug. 5th in honor of his guest. Among those present were: Father Mullally, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Morrissey, Mr. and Mrs. Chester P. McCarthy and Messrs John Buote and Leo Nelligan. Father Francis sang High Mass on Sunday morning and preached a very instructive sermon on the Gospel of the day. The manner in which he developed his text would have done credit to a much more experienced preacher and indeed augurs well for his future success in the pulpit.

CLAIMS TO BELONG HERE.—John Byers, a youth who is said to be from Prince Edward Island, was before Magistrate Crowe in the police court on Thursday morning, charged with stealing a pair of pants and a coat from a boarding house on Walker St. He was remanded till the following day. Byers was taken off the north bound Maritime Express Wednesday afternoon by Chief of Police Fraser after he had satisfied himself that the coat and the trousers worn by Byers matched a piece of cloth from the vest which belonged to the suit the coat and trousers of which were missing. A man called at the boarding house referred to above on Tuesday and asked for a Mr. Brown which was not the name of anyone at the house. Later it was discovered that a pair of pants and a coat belonging to one of the boarders were missing. The latter was reported to Chief of Police Fraser and he began an investigation.—Truro Citizen.

Rheumatic Sufferers May Obtain Relief by Enriching the Blood Supply In the days of our fathers and grandfathers, rheumatism was thought to be the unavoidable ailment of middle life and old age. Almost every elderly person had rheumatism, as well as many young people. It was thought that rheumatism was the mere effect of exposure to cold and damp, and it was treated with liniments and hot applications, which sometimes gave temporary relief, but did not remove the trouble. In these days there were many cripples. Now, medical science understands that rheumatism is a disease of the blood, and that with good, rich red blood any man or woman of any age can defy rheumatism. There are many elderly people who have never felt a twinge of rheumatism and many who have conquered it simply by keeping their blood rich and pure. The blood enriching qualities of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills is becoming every year more widely known, and the more general use of these pills has robbed rheumatism of its terrors. At the first sign of poor blood, which is shown by loss of appetite, dull skin and dim eyes, protect yourself against further ravages of disease by taking Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They have helped thousands—if you give them a fair trial they will not disappoint you. You can get these pills through any dealer in medicine or by mail at 50 cents a box from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

VISITED PROVINCE.—Mr. J. E. Dalrymple of Montreal, Vice President of the Canadian National Railways accompanied by Mrs. Dalrymple, also by Mr. Dalrymple's brother-in-law, Mr. J. H. Marceau, of New Hampshire, and the latter's daughter, Miss Marceau, arrived in Charlottetown on Saturday evening, and left on Monday for a return to Montreal. The party were taken on a motor trip by Mr. W. K. Rogers and Mr. P. W. Clarkin in two cars to the Western part of the Island. There were eleven in all, including Mrs. Rogers, Mrs. Clarkin, Mrs. Bonnyman of Amherst, and Mrs. Langton of New York. They drove to Summerside via the South shore, and Victoria, and after having lunch at the Western Capital, proceeded to India River, Malpeque, French River, Stanley Bridge, North Rustico and Cavendish, and thus were enabled to get a view of typically fertile and beautiful sections of Prince Edward Island.

The death occurred in Boston, Mass., of Douglas McIsaac, a very highly respected resident. Deceased was in his 84th year, and had a wonderful strong vitality and bore his illness with Christian patience. All that loving hands and careful nursing could do, was done to relieve his sufferings, but Divine Providence willed other wise. His death bed was a tranquil one, his loving pastor being with him and his soul was fortified by all the rites of his Holy religion. He passed peacefully away to his Creator and Judge assisted by the prayers of those loved ones present. His kind disposition endeared him to all, and he was loved and respected by all who knew him. He is survived by a sorrowing wife in Boston, Mass., a brother John McIsaac living in Mitchell River and also a sister, Mrs. Allan Currie of Georgetown, and a stepson, Hugh Macdonald, Boston, Mass. The body was taken to Mrs. Currie for burial and the funeral took place on Sunday, Aug. 19th. Rev. Father Kiggins officiated. The remains were conveyed to the cemetery where all that was mortal of a kind and loving husband was laid to rest there to await the glorious resurrection.—A.

Citizens generally will be gratified to learn that the splendid work which has been carried on by the Kindergarten will not be discontinued although the building in which it has hitherto been situated has been taken over by The Guardian. The new quarters of the Kindergarten will be in the handsomely equipped new school rooms of the Methodist Church, where every facility for the teaching of the junior and primary classes will be provided. The Kindergarten will open on Tuesday, September 4th with Miss Carvell in charge and with an assistant teacher under her. In addition to the bright sunny classrooms on the south side of the building the spacious social hall upon which the class rooms open will be utilized by the Kindergarten. The polished hardwood flooring of these rooms is practically on a level with the street, having been raised over three feet in the recent alterations made to the building. The Kindergarten entrance will be on Prince Street. The space between the church and the Hertz Hall, it has been suggested, would make an excellent lawn and play ground for the children. The trustees of the Kindergarten are to be congratulated upon having secured these splendid quarters, where there will be an abundance of sunlight and plenty of room for the children to work and play. The Kindergarten, which has always been undenominational, will be conducted under the same conditions as before and a large attendance of pupils is expected when the classes open next month.

At her home, Kingdon, P. E. I. in the afternoon of Aug. 2nd, 1923 Mrs. Golding Smith departed this life to enter upon the higher service in the house not made with hands eternal in the heavens. Mrs. Smith was born at Cascumpee P. E. I. in 1872 and during the intervening years enjoyed life above many being endowed with a strong and healthy constitution. Her first illness was experienced about the middle of June. The best medical aid was secured and loving hands ministered to her needs but all in vain. The vigorous, healthy body began to manifest dissolution; that slowly but surely the earthly habitation was being taken down. During the days of extreme weakness she possessed her soul in patience, enduring without a murmur or complaint and manifesting Christian fortitude and courage. She expressed to her husband the surprise which had dawned upon her when impressed with the fact that her remaining days upon earth were but few. Nevertheless she submitted to the will of her Heavenly Father believing that His plans were best. When the twilight of life was approaching on that beautiful August afternoon and the gleams of the city of light were bursting upon her vision she began to sing some of her favorite hymns and in a brief time crossed over to join the choir invisible and to unite with the glorified ones in that song which shall never end. She leaves to mourn their loss, her husband, one son and one daughter, Lorne and Hazel, both at home, also her father, J. J. Rayner and one brother, Robert Rayner living at Cascumpee, P. E. I., and four sisters, Mrs. William Smith of East Royalty, Mrs. Pope Newman, New Haven, Mrs. Daniel MacLean, Tyne Valley and Mrs. Sandford Phillips, O'Leary. The funeral services conducted by Rev. H. Pierce of Cornwall on Aug. 4th were largely attended and favorite hymns were sung by an augmented choir. The pall bearers were Frank Norwood, Bertram Younker, Daniel Fraser, George Crews, Edson Easter and William Crews. All that was mortal of our departed friend was laid to rest in the beautiful plot in the people's cemetery.

SADIE MAGDALEN McAULAY. The Angel of Death, after so short an interval, has again entered the home of Mrs. Rosetta McAulay, Donaldston, and carried hence the spirit of her youngest daughter, Sadie Magdalen, a bright, good and lovable girl, but 26 years of age. But death, which declines to discriminate between the young and the old, and the ill and the talented, on Thursday August 9th, at 1.45 p.m., calmly laid its icy hand on her dear form, which like the fairest flower, bloomed only to fade, and claimed her for its own. Almost up to the day of her death she entertained the highest hope of recovery, but the grim disease gradually undermined her strength, and convinced her that her short sweet sojourn on this earth was at an end. All that medical skill and the untiring care and devoted love of the family for her, but all seemed in vain. She was well and happily prepared by her devoted and zealous pastor, Rev. J. B. McIntyre, and passed peacefully away. Though her life was short it was well lived. Ever gentle, kind and considerate, she won for herself a host of friends. As a flower, too delicate, too pure for this earth, to bloom here for a season and then fade to burst in all its beauty and purity in the city of God. Such was her life. The esteem in which she was held was evinced by the very large number who tearfully followed her remains on Saturday morning to St. Bonaventure's Church, where Mass was celebrated by Rev. Fr. McIntyre; thence to the cemetery, where beneath those lofty trees, which stand as sentinels over the narrow houses of our departed ones, we laid our dear friend beyond "where there shall be no more death, nor pain." Her pall bearers were her own choosing, namely, George McDougall, Ellis Lacey, Harold Lacey, Bruce McAulay, Leigh Court, and Pius McBride. Her mother, three sisters, Annie, Mrs. Patrick Smith, Compeer, Alberta, Florence, Mrs. Adrian J. Keenan, and Etta, Donaldston; one brother, George P. Spokane, Wash., are left to cherish her memory.

Many floral tributes and spiritual offerings testified to the respect in which deceased was held. The following are the floral tri-Anchor, mother, Etta and Florence, heart, Elmer J. McDonald; heart, Ellis Lacey; wreath, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce McAulay; cross, Annie and Florence Power; spray, Mr. and Mrs. Alex. McKenzie; spray, Mrs. A. E. Best; spray, Mrs. Jos. McAulay; spray, Mrs. P. K. McKenna. Spiritual bouquets, mother, Etta and Florence, Elmer J. McDonald, Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Powers and daughters Mary and Helen, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Powers and family.

WEDNESDAY A most enjoyable dance was given Monday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank R. Hertz by their daughter Miss Ruth in honor of Miss Beckwith of Boston, who is her guest. A large number of people were present. The music was furnished by Mr. Dixon's Orchestra with Mr. Blanchard at the piano. In the refreshment room a dainty luncheon was served. Mr. and Mrs. Hertz are very popular entertainers and parties at their home are eagerly looked forward to and always remembered with pleasure. The beautifully decorated home and lawn and the placid waters of the harbour with a full moon shining on an unclouded sky made a charming picture. The baloon and confetti dances were among the most enjoyable numbers on the program and were personally conducted by Mr. Hertz. Everybody had a delightful time, and the party broke up about 1.30. Yesterday a number of witnesses es were examined; when the adjourned at 1 o'clock the location of Parker Moore, is proceeded with. Messrs. J. J. Johnston, K. W. E. Bentley, K. C., appeal the suppliant. Messrs. G. S. Inman, K. C., Palmer, K. C., and C. J. Mill Regional Council, C. N. R. M on for the Crown.

SAD SUICIDE AT RUSTICO VILLE.—A very sad suicide occurred on Sunday morning at Rusticoville, the unfortunate victim being Mrs. Benjamin Doucette, aged about thirty-five years. Mrs. Doucette had been ill for some time past, and had been acting rather strangely. On Sunday morning she evaded the vigilance of her watchers, left the house through a window, and entered her father's stable, where her body was found shortly afterwards. She was still breathing, but all attempts at resuscitation failed. The event is greatly deplored in the community. She leaves a husband and four small children to mourn.

MR. O'CONNELL ON MARITIME TOUR.—Mr. J. D. O'Connell of Camaguey, Cuba, universally known as "Orphan's Friend" is now in Moncton on his annual tour and is giving orphans picnics as usual in various places throughout the Maritime Provinces. Mr. O'Connell, who is accompanied by his sister, Mrs. Pierce Lanagan, of Seattle, Wash. left Cuba early in the year and has been travelling through the Southern States and along the Pacific Coast. He came east a few weeks ago from Vancouver and has already given several picnics in Nova Scotia. Mr. O'Connell gives over 65 picnics annually, 45 of these picnics having been annual events for all time through his generosity.

Perhaps one of the most interesting cases to come before the Exchequer Court is being tried before His Lordship L. A. Audette of Ottawa in this city. This is a case of the widow of the late Frank Howard Hale, who leaves shortly for New York to tend a nurses' training school at home; (Pasella) James P. Pratt, Vernon Bay, Lily, teacher at Millicote; and training school, City Hospital, Ruth at home. To these we offer our best sympathy and pray that the departed Augustus has merited a place in Heaven which his excellent life and patient suffering has merited. Requisite in fact.

—AUTOMOBILE ACCIDENT—While going home from Church on Sunday morning Mr. Mosey Arsenault was run over by an automobile and had the misfortune of having one of his legs broken below the knee. The car was going very slow but in some way Mr. Arsenault, who is partly deaf did not hear the horn. He was immediately removed to the P. C. Hospital where the injuries were attended to and from the last report received he was resting favorably.

Seldom do we chronicle a sad death than that of Augustus Cairns, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. John Cairns, Baldwin's Road, who passed away at his home on 8th at the age of 29 years. The deceased was an exceptionally fine young fellow just about into manhood. He was a bright student at Queen Square St. Dunstan's University. He had a future stretched before him full of promise. He became Inspector of St. John's at an early age and did his faithfully and well always facing himself for his work. He made friends far and wide and these few short years of hearts of those who loved were saddened when the news of his death was published. His friends, and in particular his father, mother, brother and sisters are soled by the thought that the life of their dear departed was example to all young men.

He was a prominent member of the Knights of Columbus. His funeral to St. Cuthbert's Church, St. Teresa's was under the direction of his Brother Knights. The funeral service was touching to the hundreds gathered there that morning to pay silent tribute to their departed friend. His pastor, Rev. J. R. A. Donald who was a frequent visitor during his illness, said Requiem High Mass and conducted the funeral services assisted by Rev. P. D. McGuigan, Vernon Bay, Rev. Bernard Gillis, Cape Breton and Rev. Theodore Sturgeon.

He leaves to mourn his sorrowing father and mother, brother and five sisters, Edward, teacher; Missie, leaves shortly for New York to tend a nurses' training school at home; (Pasella) James P. Pratt, Vernon Bay, Lily, teacher at Millicote; and training school, City Hospital, Ruth at home. To these we offer our best sympathy and pray that the departed Augustus has merited a place in Heaven which his excellent life and patient suffering has merited. Requisite in fact.

SATISFACTION A seemingly low price for an article is always attractive, but unfortunately frequently misleading. How often is heard the remark—"I would rather have paid a little more and got the quality I wanted." As a matter of fact that "little more" was necessary to obtain the better quality. Good goods require a higher price to be good. There are cheaper teas than "KING COLE"—but would you be satisfied with their quality?
