Y. M. C. A. AT KENORA. CANADIAN PACIFIC RAILWAY'S

The railway managements of America are taking greater interest in social and educational work among their employees and in a far larger measure than heretofore are drafting the Young Men's Christian Association to assist them. Some of the Railways hold special meetings for their men during the noon recesses, while others give them illustrated talks and lectures on the Bible. Among the railways interested in the scheme is the Canadian Pacific which annually sets aside a large sum of money for the maintaining of its railway Y. M. C. A's.

AN APPRECIATION.

To John MacLeod, Past Master I. O. L. No. 126, Dorchester, N. B., Formerly of this Province. Dear Sir and Brother—We your Brothers of Dorchester, N. B., Loyal Orange Lodge, No. 126, have learned with very sincere regret that you have been transferred to the work of your department in an institution in the far West, and that you are soon to remove from the place that you have called home for more than a dozen years. While we have stated that we greatly regret this proposed move, it must be understood by you, that we do not regret anything that comes to a Brother by way of promotion, but our regrets are wholly because we lose a member, and a Brother that we have learned to value very highly. We note with profound satisfaction that your sympathies are very closely wedded to the principles of our illustrious Order. May your faith in the great institutions of our beloved Empire become stronger and stronger as the days of your life multiply, and may it be said of you, my Brother, that as a true Orangeman, you never turned your back on anything that was truly Protestant. We ask you, brother, to accept this Past Master's Jewel as a slight token

THIRD WEDDING IN THE GOULD FAMILY

NEW YORK, April 30—The wedding of Jay Gould, second son of George Jay and the third of his children to be married in a little more than a year, and Miss Annie Douglas Graham, daughter of the late John Graham, took place in St. Thomas' church yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock.

The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Dr. Ernest M. Stires, rector of the church. Outside the church the usual crowd attendant at such affairs was being herded by Capt. O'Connor, of the East Fifty-first street police station, who had twenty-five men under him. About a thousand women stood about the church as the wedding party came up.

Jay Gould has given to his bride a house in the immediate vicinity of the home of his parents at 857 Fifth avenue. Mrs. George Jay's Gould's gift was a double chain of diamonds, and her husband gave her a pair of diamonds with a pear shaped pearl pendant, and from Mrs. Charles C. Kingdom came a marquis ring set in diamonds. Kingdom Gould sent a set of silver plates, and the sisters of the bridegroom, Edith and Gloria, gave a robe of seal pearls. A set of crystal candelabra came from Mr. and Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, jr., and there was a Louis XVI. clock from George J. Gould, jr., a large table inlaid with many kinds of Hawaiian woods from the bride's grandmother, Mrs. Convey, of Honolulu. A necklace of diamonds and pearls from Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Gould and a diamond bar pin from Princess de Talleyrand were among the presents.

The only members of the George J. Gould family absent from the wedding were the recently married Lord and Lady Astor, and the bride's sister, Mrs. Anthony J. Drexel, jr.

The wonderfully-soothing vapor of Catarrhazone instantly reaches the furthest recesses of the lungs, produces a healing, curative effect that is impossible with a tablet or liquid, which goes merely to the stomach, and fails entirely to help the throat or lungs. To permanently cure your winter coughs, your colds, and Catarrh, by all means use a tried and proven remedy like Catarrhazone. Beware of the substituter and imitator. SCORES AMERICAN STANDPATTERS

WASHINGTON, May 1—In a speech lasting more than three hours, Senator Stone, of Missouri, in the Senate today, denounced what he declared to be an unjust propaganda to defeat the Canadian reciprocity bill. The attempt, he said, was being made to alarm the American people by painting that ruin would follow the free importation of Canadian goods, the products of cheap labor. This contention, he declared, was absolutely untrue, and he submitted statistics gathered by both governments designed to show that both labor and live stock were higher across the border than in the United States.

When Mr. Stone concluded, Senator Gallinger asserted that the Missouri senator had proved conclusively that there would not be the reduction in the cost of living which it had been considered reciprocity would bring to the United States.

Mr. Stone replied that he had not contended that itself reciprocity would be of great benefit, but had undertaken to show that it would prove no great injury.

"And yet we give away $10,000,000 of revenue," Mr. Gallinger retorted. Mr. Stone urged that coming into reciprocal relations with Canada would be to encourage freer trade with that country, opening the way to freer trade with the world. He said he hoped to have an opportunity to vote for the house free list bill.

Mr. Cummings agreed with Mr. Stone's conclusions regarding prices in Canada, and said he was convinced that the passage of the bill would not effect a reduction in the cost of living.

Mr. Stone contended that American labor is in no especial danger from labor in Canada, and replying to Mr. Page, of Vermont, he said that it appeared to him, from government figures, farm wages in Canada are fifty per cent. higher than in the United States.

Counting out the lowering effect of the small wages paid the negro labor in southern states, Mr. Gallinger declared that the American wages paid near the boundary line are from 25 to 50 per cent. more than across the line. He contended that generally prices were higher in Canada than in this country.

Messrs. Gallinger, Smoot, Warren, Jones, Heyburn, Cummins, Martin, Bailey and Bacon discussed the range of prices on dairy cattle, at times to a specific attack upon or support of the free list bill which has been pending for six days and gives promise of continuing for several more. At times less than a score of members were on the floor to hear the speech making. Democratic leader Underwood, in adjournment, expressed the hope that a vote may be reached Thursday or Friday, but many members wish to speak and all the desired time will be given.

WASHINGTON, May 1—Speeches on the farmers' free list bill in the house today again sounded the note of Canadian annexation, traversed the whole range of argument concerning Canadian reciprocity, already proposed by the house, and came back at times to a specific attack upon or support of the free list bill which has been pending for six days and gives promise of continuing for several more.

WASHINGTON, May 1—In a speech lasting more than three hours, Senator Stone of Missouri, in the Senate today denounced what he declared to be an unjust propaganda to defeat the Canadian reciprocity bill. Mr. Stone replied that he had not contended that itself reciprocity would be of great benefit, but had undertaken to show that it would be of no great injury.

"And yet we give away ten millions of revenue" Mr. Gallinger retorted. Mr. Stone urged that the great benefit derived from entering into reciprocity with Canada would be to encourage freer trade with that country, opening the way to freer trade with the world. He said he hoped to have an opportunity to vote for the House Free List Bill.

Mr. Cummings agreed with Mr. Stone's conclusions regarding prices in Canada, and said he was convinced that the passage of the Bill would not effect reduction of the cost of living. He contended that generally prices were higher in Canada than in this country. Messrs. Gallinger

Mr. Madden, of Illinois, in an hour's speech today touched the annexation issue. "My hope is that we can have closer commercial relations with the people of Canada," he said. "Some day this relationship may blend the two peoples into one harmonious whole and that the territory lying north of us may become a part of the United States, as it should be. I have always believed we should be one people, under one flag and under one form of government; and it will be better for us all when such a thing happens, if it ever does."

Messrs. Gillette, of Massachusetts and Dyer of Missouri attacked the free list bill because it put jute bagging, used to bale cotton with, upon the free list, thereby threatening the bag-making industry of this country. Mr. Gillette said the industry would be transferred to India, where cheap labor would make the bagging and that the saving to the cotton raiser in this country would be about three cents on a $70 bale of cotton.

Democrats questioned Mr. Gillette sharply about the "Bagging Trust," but he declared it did not exist.

Mr. Burleson, of Texas, demanded to know if the whole bag-making industry was not controlled by three firms that parcelled out the quantity each should make. Mr. Gillette did not have this was the fact.

Mr. Cox, of Indiana, supported the bill and attacked opponents of the reciprocity measure recently passed. Mr. Longworth, of Ohio, assailed particularly the Democratic proposal to put boots and shoes on the free list. He said American machinery, upon which America's advantage had rested, was being installed abroad and the United States can be flooded with foreign shoes.

Mr. Tucker, of Colorado, Democrat, who voted against the Canadian reciprocity bill, attacked that measure today in a speech favoring the free list bill. He said he had been criticized for not abiding by the action of the Democratic caucus in favor of reciprocity, but explained that he believed it unfair to the farmers.

FRANKFURT ON MAIN, Germany, May 1—German pretensions to the benefits of the reciprocity agreement between the United States and Canada are increasing and which are now the subject of diplomatic negotiations, are reviewed editorially by the Frankfurter Zeitung, the leading financial organ here. The Zeitung holds that Germany is undoubtedly entitled to such benefits under the Washington note of February, 1910, promising the most favored nation treatment. The United States in the negotiations then definitely abandoned the old American interpretation, under which the most favored nation clause does not apply to concessions granted third nations for reciprocal concessions and demanded and received the benefits of the German minimum tariffs without corresponding concessions, the minimum having the life being more unfavorable than the Bingler rates.

The American customs court, says the Zeitung, now wishes to revive the former interpretation, but this is not acceptable.
