Men are not the only voters in this great automobile campaign. In this campaign women can vote as well as men, and they are waging a light along lines that would furnish pointers to the political war horse. This race is on a friendly basis, while the best of good feeling prevails, while the campaign progresses. Rivalry is getting more intense. Remember you have but a few more weeks yet, and you can do a lot of good, hard, systematic work in that time.

When anyone promises you a subscription to be paid on a certain date, write it down at once, and then when the time comes around you have the correct memorandum to refer to. The campaign is the best thing in the world to show whether you have many friends or not, but the records of votes

SUBMARINE IS PROVING FAILURE

Von Tirpitz Admits Some Other Weapon Must Be Found

AMSTERDAM, Nov. 14.—At a meeting of the new Fatherland party in Munich, Admiral Von Tirpitz, former German minister of marine, made a violent annexationist speech. He said the question whether Germany or Great Britain became the protector of Belgium would be the decisive issue of the war.

"Our only security lies in Belgium. It is the only way of obtaining compensation for our enormous economic losses."

The Admiral added that it would be a mistake to believe the submarine would prove sufficient protection against Great Britain, as some effective counter weapon was bound to be discovered. He declared Germany must have Antwerp, that Austria must become the principal protecting power of the mouth of the Danube and that Germany was interested in the settlement of the Adriatic question.

FRENCH MINISTRY DEFEATED AND HAS RESIGNED

By a Vote of 277 to 168 Premier Painleve's Government Was Voted Out of Office, Principally by the Socialists.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

PARIS, Nov. 15.—The Ministry resigned tonight. The resignation of the Ministry followed its defeat in the Chamber of Deputies by a vote of 277 to 168.

Ministry consisted of fifteen titular Ministers, four Ministers of State and eleven under secretaries, came immediately under the fire of the Socialists, who were opposed to M. Ribot as Foreign Minister. This cabinet resigned on October 22, but President Poincare refused to accept the resignation on the ground that the Chamber had voted confidence in the Ministry. M. Ribot was then eliminated from the cabinet, being succeeded by J. Louis Barthou as head of the Foreign Office. The reconstructed government received a vote of confidence 288 to 137. The opposition votes were partly from the Socialists and partly from Radical Socialists. The vote seemed to indicate hesitation on the part of the Chamber to defeat any Ministry by a direct vote during the war.

WHITE SLAVERY CAUSES ALARM

MONTREAL, Nov. 15.—An alarming story of white slavery in this city was related at a meeting of the Montreal presbytery this afternoon by Rev. Dr. George Hanson, pastor of the Episkope Presbyterian church. He cited a number of cases where girls and women were put into an unconscious state in department stores and moving picture houses by the use of hypodermic needles in the hands of white slavers and carried off by unknown people in automobiles and not heard of again.

LONDON, Nov. 14.—Reuter's correspondent on the Palestine front, telegraphing Sunday, says: "Although some of the officer prisoners show a sullen or truculent spirit, the majority of them are very depressed and say that all hope is gone. WHITE SLAVERY CAUSES ALARM

There were six cases in one local department store lately, Dr. Hanson said. One of the cases he related was that of a daughter, who while having ice cream in a department store, felt the prick of a needle and soon afterwards became unconscious and was saved from the clutches of a man by her mother, who happened to be in the store nearby.

Rogers, President of the Rogers Hardware Company, Ltd., handed him an application for $10,000 worth of Victory Bonds. THIS COAT SUITS EVE

The greatest obstacle which stands in the way of providing very young or new-born lambs with artificial coats or blankets to protect them from sudden changes in temperature or from storms until their own coats are heavy enough to serve the purpose, is the fact that the covering material is likely to destroy the lamb or by which the mother recognizes her offspring.

THE TOPSY-TURVY DOOM OF WAR

Here is something that actually happened: A mighty Australian Private Blank—recovering from wounds dealt among friends, played to them, sang to them, fascinated them with the conversation of a rich and cultured mind. He was very happy with them and overstayed his leave. On the Monday morning he had to appear before the major, a fine fellow but a mariner, who inflicted a just stern rebuke and a sharp penalty. Now the fun of it is that Private Blank, who took his punishment like a lamb, is, when at home, the owner of a huge sheep trot, as they call their ranches; and his implacable major is his foreman!

A DRY COUNTRY.

A map who drove across the country last summer to a little town in Western Kansas met a farmer hauling a wagon of water.

LAURIER MACHINE OPERATES IN HALIFAX

Laurierites Refuse Invitation of Conservatives for Joint Convention and Nominate Two Straight Laurierites. Halifax Chronicle Scores the Machine.

The Liberal Conservatives and the Laurier Liberals met in several conventions in Halifax on Wednesday. Before proceeding to nomination the Conservatives sent an invitation to the Laurierites to meet in joint convention. The invitation was ignored. The Laurierites proceeded to turn down Mr. A. K. McLean, the former Liberal representative and nominated Dr. Blackadder and Mr. G. A. Redmond as anti-Union candidates.

Convention would have been better advised had it followed the example of toleration set by the Leader, and nominated Mr. McLean. He is a Liberal from conviction, trusted and tried. Until the dissolution of Parliament he was the Liberal representative of this County. He is still a Liberal, as good and as consistent a Liberal as anyone who attended the Convention. He believes that a democracy should defend itself in the most effective way when it is attacked and that it should not leave another democracy to perish when it is threatened with annihilation. Mr. Maclean believes, and this paper believes, that a democracy can best and most fairly marshal its man-power to defend its very existence by means of the selective draft. Woodrow Wilson, President of the United States, the greatest leader of Democracy in the world, has put the reasons for this belief in words so clear and so simple that no man may fail to understand them. He said:

"The Liberal convention of Halifax, which met in this city last evening, nominated Mr. George A. Redmond and Dr. Edward Blackadder to contest this city and county as straight Liberal candidates. Mr. Redmond is a successful and capable business man. Dr. Blackadder is well known to the electors of the constituency through the splendid campaign he conducted in the General Election of 1911. Both are gentlemen of character, who are highly respected in the community."

"It is to be regretted that the Convention declined to accede to a request for a conference from a committee of the Conservative Convention, which met at the same time. This refusal was, in the opinion of this paper, not a courteous or in these troublous times, a proper way in which to treat a proposal to discuss matters of so much moment to the electors of this riding. The Conservative Convention, we think, committed a blunder in ignoring the courteous and amicable overtures of the Laurierites until this afternoon to nominate candidates. It is greatly to be hoped that now wiser counsels will prevail and that the conference refused yesterday will be granted today."

"The Convention, unfortunately, we think, allowed itself to be swayed by a mistaken sense of party regularity, the cardinal principle of Liberalism is toleration. Sir Wilfrid Laurier has announced that he will endorse the candidature of any Liberal even though he differs from him with respect to conscription. That is the only respect in which Mr. Maclean differs from the Liberal Leader. The

"There is a wealth of information and meaning in this statement of Mr. Wilson's. It should be read and re-read by the gentlemen who attended the Liberal Convention not only with respect to military service, but to parliamentary service as well. It would be a bold and uninformed man who would say that the State could be half as well served in Parliament by either of the gentlemen nominated, worthy as they are, as it would be by Hon. A. K. Maclean."
