

FRUIT-A-LIVES CLEAR THE SKIN

The skin mirrors faithfully the state of the blood, and the blood shows how well or how badly the liver, bowels, kidneys and the millions of tiny glands in the skin are doing their work. If these organs are not properly clearing out the waste matter, the blood will be poisoned and the skin sallow, "muddy" and sprinkled with pimples. Plenty of ripe fruit helps more than any other food to cure this condition, but even more effective, as well as less expensive, are "Fruit-a-lives." These are little tablets of concentrated fruit juices, combined in such a way as to many times increase their action on these organs that eliminate impurities. One or two "Fruit-a-lives" a day will keep the blood pure and give the skin the clear glow of health. 25c for trial size box—50c for regular size—6 for $2.50. Dealers everywhere should have both sizes. If you are unable to obtain "Fruit-a-lives" in your neighborhood, they will be sent on receipt of price. Fruit-a-lives Limited, Ottawa.

...Friday last was a busy day at Millour, preparations for an extensive character were made for the on-stage treatment that would eclipse efforts along that line and how successful these efforts were made clear by the result. Although these preparations covered a period of several weeks it was not till Friday morning that the place began to take on an appearance of general activity, which became more marked as the day advanced. That the community began their work in time and did it well was made evident by the ease and dispatch with which the finishing touches were given to the final arrangements. Those in charge of the theatrical part of the program had been creating a stir for several weeks previous, but little was known about the operations except by those who attended the rehearsals. The work of preparing the eatables was begun on Thursday morning and the succeeding days were occupied by this task, the women having to work overtime. On Friday afternoon the flag was run up on the building which was the scene of action and this was taken as a signal for the assembling of an army of workmen, who soon put things in order for the reception of visitors. People began to arrive as early as seven o'clock. At eight-thirty the house was full and the curtain went up. Several selections on the phonograph in charge of Lemuel Riley were the first amusements provided and it struck the key note of a very enjoyable program. The singing and reciting by the scholars, the drill by the ten school boys and the acting of pupils Ezra and Ira Stewart were creditably performed. The tent scene from Shakespeare's Julius Caesar and the reading "Spartacus to the Gladiators" were among the numbers that were well received. At the close of the program an address to the teacher was read by Miss Marie Rapson on behalf of the pupils. This was accompanied by an appropriate preface. In the course of the reply to the address reference was made to the new school building, the work of grading and three plantings, and the start that had been made in the flower growing. The meeting was presided over by P. M. Grant, late Principal of the Stockbridge High School, Mass. After the toothsome contents of the baskets had been disposed with the aid of hot coffee and good cheer, dancing was begun and was kept up with much zest for some hours. The spacious dancing booth was an ideal place for this amusement, and melodious music and the good spirits of the company helped to improve the quality of the performance very considerably. After "And Lang Syne and God Save the King" had been sung the gathering dispersed.

A VALUABLE PRIZE CONTEST

The Guardian Has Secured the Right to Offer Subscribers a Bible Study Competition Without Cost to Competitors

The Charlottetown Guardian has secured the right to use the International Newspaper Bible Study Club Lessons each week for the term of one year, commencing with the lesson for August 23rd, 1908. But one paper in each town can use these. The Guardian takes pleasure in being able to present to its readers such a valuable help along the lines of Bible study. They will be published each week in the Morning Daily and the Rural Daily. Only paid-in-advance subscribers to either paper are eligible to join this club. There is no fee for entrance, and no conditions other than those stated below. Everybody stands the same chance and has the same opportunity to get the valuable prizes without the investment of a cent. There is one condition that must in every case be complied with and that is, that every one entering the contest must be a regular subscriber as above.

GOLD AND SILVER MEDALS, BIBLES, BOOKS.

Persons may join the club at any time during the year, but must, of course, answer the 52 questions hereinafter explained, to qualify for the prizes. Sunday School teachers, Bible questions be answered as the lessons are studied.

The International Newspaper Bible Study Club is for the purpose of promoting, in an unlettered way among the masses, a wider study of the Bible, the basal truths of Christianity, and the problems which enter into every man's life. It is composed of all those who join a Local Club, and take up the single course herein outlined, barring out "7" ordinary clergymen. Although with their sympathetic co-operation, it is not considered fair to have them compete for the prizes. It is however desirable that Bible Class scholars, and church goers generally, may belong to this newspaper Club, also non-churchgoers, of all shades of opinion. All such who have not joined are warmly invited to do so and compete for the prizes. The Guardian has secured the right to publish the International Sunday School Lesson questions by Rev. Dr. Linscott, D.D., which have aroused so much interest elsewhere, and they will appear weekly. One of these questions each week is to be answered in writing, and upon these answers the prizes are to be awarded.

The Guardian is authorized to form a Local Newspaper Bible Study Club for its readers, and guarantees to all who join and fulfill the conditions, that everywhere here promised shall be faithfully carried out.

CONDITIONS OF THE CONTEST.

1. Each contestant, or his or her family, must be a paid-in-advance subscriber to The Guardian, during the continuance of the contest, in order to qualify for membership in the International Newspaper Bible Study Club and the Local Club.
2. Each contestant in this Local Club must answer each of the written questions for 52 consecutive weeks, commencing for Sunday, August 23rd and the answers must all be in possession of this paper within two weeks of the close of this period, which allows two weeks grace after the close of the contest.
3. Each question must be answered separately, and the paper written on one side only. No answer must contain more than two hundred words and may be less. It will be a convenience if students will write their answers on letter paper about 8 1/2 inches by 11 inches.
4. Each answer must have the name and address of the writer at the bottom of the answer, together with the date label of a current issue of The Guardian so it can be identified, giving a number, registered, and then the name will be cut off so the examiner may know it by number only.
5. Students should be careful to understand the question before answering. To do this the lesson text must be read and especially the verses or verses, upon which the question is based.
6. The answers from this Local Club must be delivered to The Guardian office, and they will be collected at the close of the contest and forwarded to headquarters for independent examination by competent examiners. The prizes will then be awarded according to the highest number of marks, won by members of The International Newspaper Bible Study Club, and prizes which may be awarded to members of this local Club will be given out from this office.

Stanfield's Underwear (Chapter 3) When wool reaches the Stanfield mills from farmers, who have sent us their best wool for years, it is thoroughly washed. Then it is rendered absolutely unshrinkable. Combing the Wool Then it is COMBED. This process consists in passing the wool through a machine that combs out all the short lengths, weak threads and snarled strands of wool—something like one combs the hair. After the wool has been combed, all the fibres are the same length and strength. The Stanfield Combing Machines are mighty particular, too. They comb only WOOL—and they comb out everything but the longest, strongest strands. Most Underwear is made of CARDED wool. Now, carding consists in tearing the fibres into short lengths. Mills, using carding machines, put the whole wool through—short wool, weak fibres, even cotton and shoddy—the carding machines make no distinctions. The "cream" of the best wool—rendered absolutely unshrinkable by the Stanfield process instead of being "eaten" with lime—combed instead of carded—knitted with a lock stitch that prevents raveling—is it any wonder that Stanfield's Unshrinkable Underwear wears so well, and is so thoroughly satisfactory? All sizes from 22 to 70 inch chest measure. 3 weights—RED label for light weight—BLUE label for medium—BLACK label for heavy weight. Your dealer has all sizes and weights, or can easily get them for you. STANFIELD'S LIMITED TRURO, N.S.
