Before stropping (magnified) After stropping (magnified)

SMOOTH AS BABY'S FACE

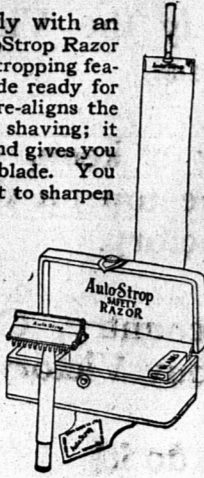

THAT'S the result of the shave you get with an AutoStrop Razor. Its clean, sure stroke, adjustable for light or close shaving, removes the beard quickly and thoroughly, leaving the face soft and smooth.

Such comfort is possible only with an AutoStrop Razor. Why the AutoStrop Razor in particular? Because with its stropping feature there's always a sharp blade ready for use. A few turns on the strop re-aligns the saw-like edge that results from shaving; it keeps the blade free from rust; and gives you for each day's shave a keen-edged blade. You do not need to take the blade out to sharpen it, nor do you have to take the AutoStrop Razor apart to clean it.

Self-stropping, shaving and cleaning are all done without removing the blade from the razor.

Everywhere—razor, strop and 12 blades, complete for $5.00.

Fred Fraser, Halifax and Capt. A. R. Brennan, Summerside. The three representatives who attended the Augusta (Maine) convclave reported their experiences in the following order—Dr. Ira J. The first vice president, John Dyer, a farmer from Indiana, was the principal speaker. He is the most eloquent speaker, with the exception of Leslie Pidgeon, the representatives had heard. Next day the ladies were driven round the city and a special service held for them, while the Rotarians went into business session. One of the results of the visit was that a bunch of live wire Americans Rotarians intend coming to Charlottetown for the district meeting in April. The President announced that the following definition of Rotary was to be memorized and repeated by each new member on admission—"Rotary is a fraternity without ritual, password or secrets; a business organization without commercialism or personal gain; a religion of service and good fellowship without church or creed." The vocalist for the day was Mr. Charles Earle, accompanied on the piano by Miss Earle.

There passed away at Mt. Hope, P. E. I., on Sept. 27th, one of the early pioneers of the Province, in the person of Mr. Samuel Nicholson, who had reached the ripe age of 103 years and four months.

He was born in the Isle of Skye, Scotland, on June 1st, 1816, and in the year 1840, emigrated with his parents and six sisters to P. E. I. He first settled in Rose Valley, where he married his wife, Christy McLean, who made a comfortable home.

He was a man of a deeply religious nature, and splendid qualities of character, and was never known in the community to say a bad word or do a wrong deed. He loved the predeceased him ten years ago. In 1862, he moved to Mt. Hope, where he lived the rest of his long life and Lord's Day and the Lord's Word, and his life was a benediction to all his acquaintances, and all classes spoke of him with affectionate veneration. In early days, he was a notable figure at the Communions in Dundas Valley, field and Strathbyn, like Barnabas, he was a "good man, full of the Holy Spirit and faith."

As an octogenarian, he recited correctly to his pastor, the whole of the shorter Catechism, and for this and his higher standing as a Christian, his friends presented him with a suitable gift.

He lived the "simple life" and never required any medical aid. He retained his mental vigor and natural health, till within a few weeks of his death, "the silver cord was loosed and the golden bowl broken and the spirit returned to God who gave it."

Two of his nephews were well known: the late D. N. Forbes, of the Valley and the Rev. James Forbes, of N. Y.

At his own request, the funeral service was conducted by Rev. J. M. McLeod, of St. Peter's, assisted by Mr. Heron, and interment was made in Dundas cemetery.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord" is the death of his saints.

Cape Traverso, P. E. I., sustained a deep loss in the death of Mr. Robert F. Lord, who passed away Tuesday 19th at the age of 71 years. Mr. Lord had been a remarkably active man until about the first of last December when he suffered from a stroke of paralysis. His recovery was only partial, and although he was able to drive and occasionally attended church services during the winter; he never regained his accustomed strength. Mr. Lord was born at Tryon, March 29th, 1848, where he was a successful farmer and mill owner, for many years. On March 17th, 1875, he married Anna B. Dobson (sister of the late Rev. Dr. Dobson. From this marriage the following children are living: Mrs. Brenton Lea, Tryon; F. W. Lord, of Tryon; Mrs. H. H. Lea, Jarvie, Alberta; John D. Lord, Calgary, Alta.; Misses Lottie and Amy Lord of Edmonton.

In June, 1907, Mrs. Lord died and in November of 1915 the deceased was married to Mrs. Matilda Nuttall of Cape Traverso.

Mr. Lord was a life-long member of the Methodist church, and for many years a prayer leader and superintendent of the Sunday School in the Tryon Methodist Church. After he came to Cape Traverso he took up the work in the Methodist Church there. Right up to the time of his last illness, he was assistant supt. of the Sunday School, and exhorter and teacher of the Men's Bible Class. Our brother was one of the men whose passing away leaves the community and church poorer.

Besides his children the following relatives are left to mourn a widow, one sister, Mrs. Alexander Morrison of Tryon. Two brothers, William of Boston and Rev. C. S. Lord of Fenelon Falls, Ontario.

The funeral services both at his late home and the Tryon Methodist church, were conducted by Rev. Geo. N. Somers, assisted by Rev. P. A. Fitzpatrick of Tryon, and Rev. James MacDougall, of Cape Traverso Kirk of Scotland.
