MARRIAGE—1931 STYLE! thrilling, amusing, revealing!

MEN CALL IT Love

Adolphe Menjou Lelia Hyams Hedda Hopper

It's easy to talk of what you'd do if you found your husband in another woman's arms. But if you loved him, would you forgive and forget?

When Somebody Else's Wife Deceives — That's Different

"Chickens Come Home"

The laughs keep going from the opening shot to the closing sequences, and most of the time the ceiling is in danger of collapse. One of the best stories the funny pair have given to date and they know what to do with a real story. The two wives stage the battle when an old flame of one of them appears on the scene with unexpected and disastrous results.

Excellent Talkie At The Capitol

Comedy, youth and feminine pulchritude play the most important roles in the Fox Movietone production, "Girls Demand Excitement," which drew forth loud and long rounds of applause from the audience which viewed its initial showing yesterday at the Capitol Theatre. A battle of the sexes might well be called the theme of this entertaining comedy which revolves around the efforts of the boys at a small college to eliminate the co-eds from their alma mater. Out of the maze of politics which are played to gain a point comes a strange twist when the leaders of the masculine and feminine groups, played by John Wayne and Virginia Cherrill develop a romance. A most hilarious scene when Wayne and Miss Cherrill are forced to undergo a kiss registering scene in the psychology class and a spirited basket ball game between the girls and the boys with the girls using as an offense their charms rather than their skill are the highlights of the picture. Marguerite Churchill, who played opposite Wayne in "The Big Trail" is also featured. Included in the cast are such well known performers as Helen Jerome Eddy, William Janney, Eddie Nugent, Marion Byron, Marion Sleeper, Terrence Ray, George Irving, and Emerson Tracy. Seymour Felix directed.

"Girls Demand Excitement" is mighty fine entertainment for all classes of theatregoers, especially the youth of the land.

Men Call It Love

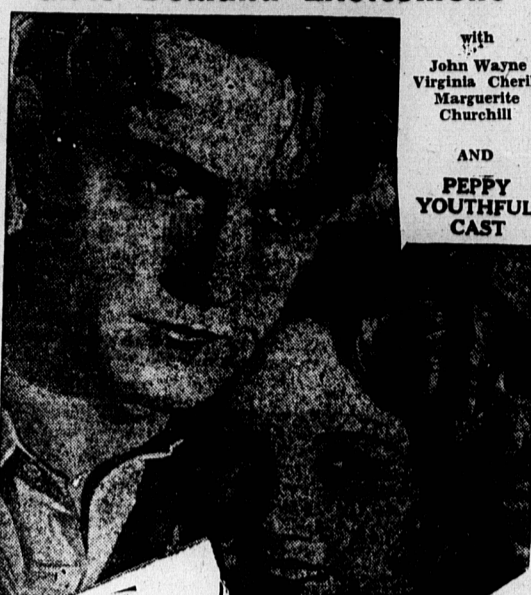

Adolphe Menjou specializes in understanding other men's misunderstood wives when he isn't winning golf championships, in "Men Call It Love," which opened yesterday at the Prince Edward Theatre, and does it so well that he falls madly in love with one. Thereby hangs the daring tale woven into this smart farce, one of the brightest and most entertaining yet to reach the screen in this intimate type of feature. Menjou is teamed with an excellent cast in the picture, including Lelia Hyams, Norman Foster, Mary Duncan, Hedda Hopper and Robert Emmett Keane. Here are sterling performers expertly cast and more than ordinarily convincing in rather difficult characterizations. As the golfing Don Juan, Menjou finds himself in whimsical mood. Leading the life of a philanderer, he is gallant upon discovering that the husband of the girl he really loves is faithless. When she comes to him, only to spite her husband, he gently and, we suspect, regretfully sends her home. He wants her love, but he wants it for himself—not revenge. The picture starts with a bang and goes into a swift pace that never slackens. It abounds with pictorial interest and the settings and costumes are lavish. Don't miss this saucy feature—Menjou!

MUSQUODOBOIT MERCHANT DIES H. G. Guild was a Well Known Resident At Musquodoboit Harbor The death took place Monday morning, June 14th, after a long illness of H. G. Guild, who was about 65 years of age. He had been ill for some time but was able to attend to business until about February 1, when he was seriously stricken and since then despite improvement that had been noted from time to time, had been unable to leave his home. He was a man of sterling worth, who was thoughtful and kind at all times, his gifts to the needy being unostentatious yet many. A staunch supporter of the Presbyterian Church, Mr. Guild was one of its most active workers and an elder. In politics he was a Liberal. He is survived by his wife, formerly a Miss Hunter, daughter of the late Alexander Hunter, of Strathcona, Prince Edward Island, and a number of nephews and nieces. One brother, E. B. Gould, resides in Musquodoboit Harbor. South Melville school is progressing favourably under the careful management of our teacher, Miss Kathleen Cusack. Mr. and Mrs. Peter Greenan spent the week end in Coleman, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. William Greenan. Minard's Lintment removes Ailms. Minard's Lintment relieves pains.

THE SUCCESSOR TO "Sunny Side Up"

THE LONGEST AND LOUDEST LAUGH OF YOUR LIFE. A TUNEFUL COMEDY RIOT FOR EVERYBODY.

Under the distinguished patronage of His Honour, the Lieutenant Governor, Provincial Patron and Mrs. Charles Dalton, the Prime Minister of the Province and Mrs. L. S. Prowse, the banquet was attended by 175 parents and associate members, who enjoyed the supper and the talk of the Chief Commissioner and the program put on by the Scouts.

The Provincial Council wishes to thank the Trustees of Zion Church for the use of their hall for this reception.

The banquet was in charge of the following Committee of ladies, under the leadership of Mrs. F. S. Chandler, Mrs. Gavan Duffy, Miss Josie Blake, Mrs. W. W. Owen, Mrs. Wm. Warren, Mrs. J. R. Burnett, Mrs. George Filiter, Miss Cotton, Mrs. R. C. Parent, Mrs. Walter Brown, Mrs. D. Jenkins and Mrs. C. H. Beer.

Scouts and Scout leaders were present from Bedouque, Freetown, Montague, Cardigan, Murray Harbour, Cross Roads. Charlottetown Scouts were very pleased to see the troop from Bedouque and Freetown. This troop made a great showing. In the report in the Press the splendid tug-of-war item contributed by the Church of the Holy Redeemer troop was regrettably omitted.

Gilwell Camp, July 14-21 The following men so far are planning to attend this camp: Rev. Alex Gibson, Montague; Rev. A. G. Crowe, Bedouque and Messrs. Wm. P. Bradley, Wm. Warren, Wm. Burnett, Clarence Walker, of Charlottetown. For further information write Provincial Scout Secretary.

6th Charlottetown Troop, (Church of Most Holy Redeemer) This troop of sixteen scouts appeared out in their new scout uniforms at the Commissioner's reception. The troop was organized in February. All the boys have passed tenderfoot, have complete scout uniforms, and have all applied for registration, which shows that Wm. F. P. Bradley, Scout Master, Rev. Joseph McGreel, Chairman, Mr. Jas. J. Leightizer, James Coyle, J. T. Hennessy, of the group committee are behind the scouts.

BURST WATER-MAIN DISRUPTS TRAFFIC This may look like a broken dam or tidal wave, or something, but, in reality, it's the result of a burst water-main at Nag's Head Junction, Holloway, North London, England. Needless to say, it diverted all traffic for some time.
