Perry Again Captures Singles Title

Dominates Final With Magnificent Display Of Tennis

Great Fred Perry Crushes Von Cramm In Straight Sets To Retain Wimbledon Singles Title. First Playing-through Champion To Successful Defend Crown.

By Gayle Talbot, Associated Press Sports Writer (By Guardian's Special Wire)

WIMBLEDON, Eng., July 5.—Great Britain's peerless Fred Perry set a mark for future tennis generations to shoot at today when he crushed Baron Gottfried von Cramm of Germany in straight sets, 6-2, 6-4, 6-4, and thus became the first playing-through champion in Wimbledon history successfully to defend the men's singles crown.

Other famous figures of the game including Big Bill Tilden, have won the great net international two or more successive times, but never since the tournament rules were changed in 1922 to force defending champions to play through the tournament on exactly the same basis as their challengers.

SPORT BRIEFS

Bob Pearce of Hamilton, Ont., champion three-mile sculler of the world, defeated Billy Miller, United States champion in three-mile events at Fort William last Wednesday. The official time was 18 minutes 13 3/4 seconds.

If James Braddock was consoled to his wishes he would find the sensational negro Joe Louis the first crack at the newly won world's heavyweight title. Braddock believes that a fight with Louis next summer will draw the biggest gate since that hot July day when Tex Rickard took over a million dollars in prize money through the drawing power and personality of Jack Dempsey pitted against the gorgeous Georges Carpentier, the champion of France.

Detroit turned out en masse with a specially selected welcome committee as spokesmen and a decorated automobile to convey Joe Louis to his home on his return after defeating Carpentier. Not finding Joe at the station some friends at home and sure enough when they arrived at Joe's home he was sitting at his mother's table.

The world's record for the standing high jump was broken at Saint Louis, Mo., last Monday by Harold Osborne, a veteran athlete, in an exhibition performance at the Saint Louis A. A. track meet. Osborne, a former world's champion, cleared 5 ft. 6 ins. to better the former world's record of 5 ft. 5 3/4 ins.

"Cooney" Welland who played great hockey with the Detroit Red Wings, has been traded back to the Boston Bruins together with Walter Buswell in exchange for Marty Barrie and Art Gervouis.

Tom Grattan won the three-year-old pace at Stratroy, Ont., last Monday, best time 2:11.2. The 2:28 trot action first division was won by Leona Grattan, best time 2:12 1/2. The second division by Shell Direct, best time 2:12 1/2. Sharkey Grattan won the 2:24 class, best time 2:12 1/2. The 2:20 class was won by Trickle G. best time 2:10 1/2. Trickle G. was one of the outstanding pacers last season and looks headed for another big year.

Nine representatives of the Workers Sports Association will visit Russia this summer, sailing from New York on July 25th, and will participate in several invitational athletic meets in Moscow and thereabouts.

A dead heat—a rare occurrence in racing—closed the meeting of the crack war canoes of Lachine and Cartierville, Quebec last Saturday. Both crews paddled almost to exhaustion in trying to win, but crossed the line absolutely even.

WOMEN-PLAYING HOCKEYISTS

MONTREAL, July 4.—(G.P.)—According to one tennis authority, Bob Foster, the best tennis-playing hockey star is Lorne Duguid, formerly of Montreal. But Duguid isn't allowed to play in open tournaments. Another expert, Colin Peter, says Gene Carrigan is the best. Carrigan plays at Edmonton and had reached the final of the Alberta amateur championship.

DOWN THE BACK STRETCH

Harry O'Brien holds the most ambitious horse racing meeting of his career next Wednesday afternoon at Alberton. Three classes with purses of $250, each is a lot of money to put up, but the classes are good and will draw the best horses racing in this province. Everyone is assured of a wonderful day's sport on a very fast track who attends the races there next week.

Murray Howe, the famous writer of years ago on the Horse Review, published an "excuse book" in which he compiled the various excuses given by harness horse trainers as to why they lose a race or heat. They were most amusing and ingenious; everyone and everything was blamed but the driver himself! The latest excuse put up by a Charlottetown horse trainer for a non-win at a recent race meeting is because a portion of the track at Charlottetown extending three feet from the pole was covered with a bit of straw and grass growth to prevent it going to sand before exhibition races. He claimed his horse went wide on the turns.

Recent workout at the Charlottetown Driving Park track are, Nancy Sue in Tom Holmes stable, trotted in 2:21 with the last half in 1:08 3/4. Alymer Worthy, green trotter, stopped in 2:22 1/2 with the last half in 1:10 1/4.

Orin Jardine worked Jerry Brino, green pacer in 2:21 and Peter Great-trot 2:08 3/4 (eligible to the 2:15 trot) in 2:22. Jardine has a new arrival in a Bud Awworthy that shapes up well. He went the last half of a 2:40 mile in 1:07.

The fastest workout of the week was Winnie Winkle's mile in 2:17 1/2. She seemed to be just coasting along and looked as though she could shave her record a bit if called on.

Raoul Raymond's two year old trotter has been named Raymondette.

The Charlottetown Driving Park grounds are beginning to look up. About a dozen men are engaged in making repairs, painting, whitewashing, cutting grass and "putting on the dog" for Exhibition. Last year the plant was beautifully clean and attractive and it is the intention to have it just as nice, if not nicer, this year.

Dr. Hugh M. Marshall, who started in as a veterinary then took up driving race horses as a hobby during summer vacations fifteen years ago, is today the top rank trainer of America. Unlike other trainers he never bothers himself about reports of fast work by his rivals but he pays strict attention to his own knitting, looking after even the slightest details.

"I have never been able to figure out what difference it makes what the other fellow is doing. I know what it takes to win a race and that is how I train my stable. If my horses are not good enough to win on what they show me in training, I never need even to look at the opposition to know when I am beaten."

The "Doc" expects to beat 2:00 with the three year old Laywens Hanover 2:02 and hopes to win the Hambletonian, the richest trotting stake in the world with him. If he wins with Lawrence Hanover this year he will be the only reinsman who has ever won it twice and will also stand out as the driver who won it two years in a row. Last season he won it with Lord Jim 2:00 3/4.

Guy the Tramp 2:02 3/4, raced in the Free for All last season, was 3, 3, 3, in a trotting summary last week. He was a much improved trotter over previous starts, due to his receiving a short period of training with them.

Monte Gerow, who for so many years has been the driving manager of the Charlottetown stable, is now at Gorham, Maine, with his six-horse stable which is owned by A. H. Hoyle, Manchester, Conn. Monte expects several additions to his stable soon.

We never had a floating track, but we had a floating house and it occurred this way. A very popular and enthusiastic horseman residing some miles from Charlottetown decided to move a house across the Hillsboro ice. He succeeded in placing it on the ice and no doubt would have fully accomplished his hopes of getting it to the other side but—the afternoon that he intended completing his task there was a race meeting on the course off Cut Street. If memory is right, he and his gallant steed were winners that afternoon, but, alas, the joy of victory was tempered with sorrow; for on returning home when he arrived at the spot where the house should be, it was not, but had gone floating down the river! "What's the difference," exclaimed this good sportsman, "we won the race anyway."

Paul Bowser, ex-wrestler and now wrestling promoter, together with his stable manager Dwight Baker, are receiving congratulations because they won most honors of any one stable at the Lexington, Ky., meeting, Calumet Dubuque 2:01 1/4, Dominion Grattan 2:02 1/4, and Tara (3) 2:03 3/4 each winning in a manner to indicate that they were outstanding factors in many other races before the year rolls by.

The Master (2) 2:09 3/4 is the fifth of the produce of that noted brood mare Margaret Arion 2:10 to enter the 2:10 list. He is sired by Peter Volo 2:02 and is therefore a full brother to two world's champions three year olds, Protector and The Marchioness, each with a tag of 1:59 1/4, and Princess Peg (3) 2:00 3/4 sired by Volomite 2:03 1/4.

His Majesty (4) 1:59 3/4 world's champion four year old pacer that was sold for a big sum of money last year but went lame, could not stand the prep again this season

BASEBALL'S BIG SIX

(By The Associated Press)

Despite the general lack of major league action yesterday there was plenty going on in the big six. Arky Vaughan continued his hitting streak and two American Leaguers moved up to take the place vacated by Charley Gehring, who failed to hit. Vaughan lifted his average another point to .406 with two hits in four times up. Gehring's average dropped three points and he dropped out of the points and he teamed, Pete Fox, connected three times in five attempts to tie the idle Joe Vosmik for the third American League berth. The standings:

PLAYER	G	AB	R	H	Per.
Vaughan, Pirates	59	216	86	89	.406
Medwick, Cards	68	287	55	104	.362
Wagner, A's	65	265	56	95	.358
W. C. C. A.	57	233	45	80	.344
Vosmik, Indians	59	284	36	97	.342
Fox, Tigers	59	231	37	79	.342
Terry, Giants	70	293	49	100	.341

FINAL FOR DIAMOND SCULLS TODAY

(G. P. Cable)

HENLEY-ON-THAMES, England, July 5.—Leander Rowing Club, the holders, will meet Pembroke College, Cambridge, in the final of the Grand Challenge Cup, the leading event for eights, at the Royal Henley Regatta winds up tomorrow.

Both this afternoon's semi-finals produced close races, Leander beating Thames R. C. by three-quarters of a length in 17 minutes 17 seconds. Pembroke eliminated Jesus College, Cambridge, by the same margin in 7:13.

Eton College smashed Oxford's hopes of getting into any of the finals when they beat Christ Church Fair a length in 17 minutes 17 seconds. Oxford eliminated Jesus College, Cambridge, by the same margin in 7:13.

The final for the Diamond Sculls will be an all-foreign affair for the second year in succession. Zavel of Czechoslovakia beat Winstone of Poland in the first semi-final and Fuffi of Switzerland eliminated his fellow-countryman, Studach.

TIP TOP TEAM WINS FROM ANCHORS 17-9

Jack Cameron's Tip Top baseball team landed the Anchors back on their heels Thursday night when they defeated the West end crew 17 to 9. The winners deserved their victory playing the better ball and outwitting their opponents. This latter fact was especially true of the second last inning when the winners landed the opposing hurler to drive twelve runs across the plate before being retired.

DODGERS ROUT NEW YORKERS 14-4

(C. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, July 4.—Brooklyn Dodgers, who have fallen into disfavor with their home fans, invaded Manhattan today and took out their grievances on New York Giants by smiting the league leaders 14-4.

Every one of 10 Brooklynites scored at least once and got one or more of the 21 hits off Fred Fitzsimmons. Frank Gahler and Leon Chagnon, meanwhile Johnny Babich gave the Giants only nine blows and pitched his first complete game since April 25. Jimmy Bucher led the attack with four hits.

Pirates Down Cubs 4-0

Pittsburgh's Pirates had a pleasant homecoming today after a long road trip, defeating Chicago Cubs 4-0 and chasing from the mound the principal individual thorn in their side this season, little Roy Henshaw had set the Pirates down with one hit one week ago today, to score his second shutout victory over them. He walked four men today and tossed a wild pitch before being relieved in the eighth.

SIX DAY MEET OPENS THURSDAY

THE STURBRIDGE MEETING

STURBRIDGE, Mass., July 5.—The Yankee Circuit meeting will be held at Cedar Lake Park on Thursday, Friday and Saturday of next week and the following one. All of the horses that appeared in the closely contested races at Northampton will start at the six day speed carnival. In the colt races Countess Zabetta looks like the best three year old notwithstanding the speed shown by Twinkle and the High Noon colt Day Spring. The result in the two year old trot will depend on Nelson Volo recovering from the lameness which forced him to be drawn after winning the first trip at his home town. In that heat he trotted the last half of the mile in 2:05 1/2. This colt was bred by W. H. Dickinson at the Connecticut River Stock Farm. He is by Dillon Volo out of May Nelson by Nelson Dillon and acts as if he would make a fast horse.

Will Bull also has a clever two year old in the Bunter filly Hanover Moccasin. She was beaten a length in 2:16 1/2. The other members of his stable include the star handicapper horse Mac Hanover and the reliable free for all pacer Cindy M. Jr. which won at almost a hundred to one at Northampton. The other leaders that will be out for the word at Cedar Lake Park include Lemac in the Rodney stable, Mildred May with Toole up, Gay Peter, Joan Bunter, Cash Counter, Lem Bunter, Orpha, Hilanna, American Hanover, Master Hanover, Sir Raleigh, Sam J. Napoleon, Gloria Hanover, H. Kay Worby, Partriford Peter, and Highland Worthy.

1st Ranking Player Withdraws

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

WIMBLEDON, England, July 5.—Dorothy Round, England's top-ranking woman tennis player, announced today she would not play with the British Wightman Cup team this year.

The British star, dethroned as all-England champion this week, said she was "simply tired" of tennis and still was suffering from a severe leg strain.

She was selected yesterday for the team which will meet the United States squad at Forest Hills Aug. 16-17 and the British Wightman Cup Committee was expected to make a strong effort to get her to reconsider her decision not to play.

Bisley Shoot Promises To Be Best In Years

By Thomas T. Champion, Canadian Press Staff Writer (By Guardian's Special Wire)

BISLEY CAMP, England, July 5.—This Surrey beauty-spot known to marksmen the Empire over, and particularly in Canada, was transformed tonight from a sleepy hamlet of a few permanent bungalows into a huge town of canvas dwellings, with thousands of marksmen on hand. All is ready for the opening of the 72nd annual meeting of the National Rifle Association, starting Monday and running two weeks.

The traditional preliminary services week, ends tomorrow and from then on the camp once again becomes the championship arena for the Empire's finest military shots.

The Canadian team of 18 shooting members has now been joined in camp by teams from the Federated Malay States, Kenya, the Sudan, the Gold Coast, Jersey and Guernsey. Individual shots have come from Ceylon, the Fiji Islands, Hong Kong, Johore, Jamaica and New Zealand and other parts of the Empire, while from every corner of Great Britain competitors are arriving for what promises to be the greatest, impetuous gathering for many years past.

Miss M. E. Foster, the only woman ever to win the classic marksmanship, the King's Prize, and her friend Miss Baddock will again challenge the men in that greatest test of the military shot. They are qualified as "past or present members of His Majesty's Forces" by having driven ambulances during the war. There are other women shots as well.

GREENBURG THREATENING RUTH'S RECORD

(A. P. By Guardian's Special Wire)

NEW YORK, July 5.—Hank Greenberg, the Tigers' clouting first baseman, fired a couple of shots at the home run records today when he belted two four baggers and led Detroit in a 16-1 rout of St. Louis Browns at Detroit.

The victory enabled the Tigers to reduce New York Yankees' lead to 1 1/2 games as the league leaders were kept idle by rain.

Greenberg's home runs were his 24th and 25th of the season, putting him only one circuit swing behind the pace Babe Ruth set at this stage of his famous 1927 home run hitting spurge when he established the major league record of 60 homers in one season. That year Ruth hit his 25th on June 30 and had only one more when he passed the July 4 turning point, getting no. 27 July 8.

In between his two boundary belts, "Handy" Hank connected for a pair of singles and drew an intentional pass for a perfect day at the plate. He scored on every hit he made.

NEW PRIZES ADDED

In all probability the entry in the Ashburton, famed shoot for the public school teams, will prove a record in this silver jubilee year. An interesting addition to the list prizes will be the King's medal for territorialists. This shoot will be fired between 50 regulars and 50 territorialists as before but instead of one medal there will be two—one for regulars and one for the territorialists.

Another innovation is rack rifle competition for special prizes, while to commemorate the King's Jubilee three special medals will be presented. One is for the visiting competitor resident overseas, eligible to be a member of a Kolapore team; another for a visiting competitor
