THE QUEEN'S COUNTY GUARDIAN

Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news first of all.

The City Court meets at ten o'clock this morning.

Mrs. James Stewart, Mt. Herbert, is visiting friends in this City.

There were very few leaving by the mail train for Georgetown last night.

Frank McDougall, representing Stanfields Ltd., Truro, is in the City.

Rev. George E. Ross, City, was a passenger on the Murray Harbor train yesterday.

J. J. Hughes, Souris, and A. B. Warburton, City, left yesterday, the former for Montague and the latter for Souris.

Any girl desiring to learn ad and news setting should apply at this office at once. A good chance for the right girl.

Mrs. L. B. Tompkins and Mrs. O. M. Bernard of North Rustico are visiting in the City, the guests of Mrs. James C. Brodie.

Prof. A. W. Seaman, of the Prince of Wales College faculty, Charlottetown spent his holidays in Sackville and has returned.

On Monday Railway Police Officer Mathieson went to Poodia to straighten out some irregularities. He made a clean job of it and has returned to the City.

The coldest temperature registered Monday night was thirty-three degrees above zero, and it has steadily become warmer, till at nine o'clock last night it registered thirty-five degrees.

To avoid all delays, shippers of smelts and eels in this Province are asked to write to Barclay, Clements Co., commission merchants, 176 Atlantic Avenue, Boston, as they are fully prepared to handle large consignments for which they will at all times make strenuous efforts to secure the highest market prices and make prompt returns.

Among the New York commission dealers soliciting consignments in this Province is Robert W. Cole, at 100 Beekman Street, whose transfer agents are S. B. Wiley & Son, Boston. Mr. Cole will find a ready market for all goods sent him as he at all times shows them off to the best possible advantage, thus securing the highest market prices.

One of the brightest entertainments ever given in this City was presented to a good audience in St. Peter's schoolroom last evening. The several songs and the choruses in costumes were most entertaining and were of equal merit and all received much applause. The dialogue entirely two Lunatics was intensely funny and caused much mirth while Mrs. J. J. Reid's waxworks were simply grand and most realistic. Altogether the young people are deserving of much credit and should they repeat their fine entertainment will no doubt have a crowded house as they well deserve.

Among the graduates at Mt. Allison University, Sackville, are the following well known in this Province. In Sophomore class Miss Stewart, Sun, meride; Evidences of Christianity, George Morris, Granville, Ethics, George Morris, Freshman mathematics, Mr. Lodge, son of Rev. W. W. The Y. M. C. A. Directors held their monthly business meeting last night. The work of the Association was discussed and the business transacted with dispatch. E. D. Sterns, chairman of the finance committee, reported collections to date for the two months, to be $348.29 as compared with $143 to same date last year. Bills to date amounting to $544 were passed. The special committee appointed to secure pledges for salary of an assistant Secretary to do special work among the Boys, reported that they had secured pledges for $275. The Directors expressed themselves as being in hearty sympathy with the plan but owing to the lateness of the season deemed it wise not to engage such a man until early next fall. In the meantime an endeavour will be made to make the committee work more effective. The estimates of receipts and expenses for the year were passed. A printed financial report of last year has been published, and may be had by anyone wishing it.

The marriage takes place at high noon today of Colin H. Calbeck, son of Wm. W. Calbeck of Linkletter, and Business Manager of The Patriot, to Miss Carrie Warren, daughter of T. A. and Mrs. Warren, North Rustico. The ceremony which will be performed by Rev. J. McLeod will take place at the bride's home in the presence of only the immediate relatives of both families. The young couple will be unattended, and intend residing at 8 Stewart Street, City. Mr. Warren, who has for some years worked with Messrs Paton & Co., is a most pleasing young lady who has made many friends in this City. Mr. Calbeck is also one of the rising young men of this City and he with his fair bride will receive a hearty welcome as residents in this City. On Monday evening the employees of the Patriot Office presented Mr. Calbeck with a parlor lamp as a memento of the high esteem in which he is held. The Guardian extends its warmest congratulations to the young couple.
