Camping at Canoe Cove

Friday night brought to a close one of the biggest and best Boys' Camps ever held on the Island. In all there were 72 boys and fifteen leaders under canvas for ten days, ten days, during which was staged some of the finest work ever done at a boys' camp.

Staff

The staff was headed by Rev. W. E. Aitken, St. Peter's Bay, who has directed boys' camps for the past four years. With him was associated Mr. Ray Pendleton of the Y. M. C. A., as Business Manager for the Camp. Mr. Pendleton was kept busy providing food for as hungry a bunch as ever gathered anywhere. On the quality of the "eats" a good deal of the success of a camp depends.

The group leaders included the following: Rev. E. J. Chisholm, M. A., Hazelbrook; Rev. J. B. Wilson, B. D., Summerside; Rev. L. P. Archibald, Bedeque; Rev. D. M. Sinclair, M. A., Valleyfield; Rev. W. L. Outhouse, Charlottetown; Rev. W. A. Patterson, M. A., Cavendish; Rev. Carlyle Waterworth, Summerside; Mr. Garland Brooks, D'Leary; Mr. Jack Sheen, Summerside; Mr. Roy E. Webster, Marie; Mr. Roy Vessey, York; Mr. William Henry, Charlottetown, and Mr. Harold Lawton, Pownal.

The boys ranged from the age of twelve to eighteen. There were a couple of boys under twelve who came with older brothers, but the camp age does not as a rule drop below twelve. The boys came from all parts of the Island, from Alberton to St. Peter's Bay. The largest delegation came from Charlottetown, about thirty boys. Others were there from O'Leary, Summerside, Bedeque, Borden, Victoria, Carleton, Cape Traverse, Covehead, York, Dunstaffnage, Mt. Herbert, Millview, Vernon River, Kinross, Morell. Two boys, George Lockhart and Buddy Sweet, came all the way from Antigonish, N. S.

The boys were divided into six equal groups, with two leaders in charge of each group. This system of leadership has been proved to be the very best. It means no break in the continuity of the work no matter what happens, but at all times everything goes smoothly and well, and at no camp has this been truer than at the one just closed. The Director was free to keep things moving at all times; the business manager was free to provide the necessaries in his line; and there was no hold-up anywhere.

life saving, but not as many as would have, had conditions been better.

Of necessity athletics occupied a major part of the time, though not to the neglect of other things. The boys tried their mettle on the volleyball court, the baseball diamond, at quoits, horse shoes, the running high, and the running broad jump, the dash, the potato race, the baseball throw, and the shot put.

There was food and rest, study and recreation for every boy. The aim was to experiment with life in its four-fold features, physical, mental, moral, and spiritual, and the task was full of pleasure and profit both for leader and lad.

On Sunday, services of worship were held on the camp grounds at 11 a. m. and at 7.30 p. m. At the morning service, Mr. Roy Vessey was chairman. He was assisted by the boys, and the sermon was preached by Rev. L. P. Archibald, Bedeque. In the evening, Mr. Jack Sheen was in charge and the boys assisted him. Mr. Garland Brooks was the speaker. At the evening service about eighty people from the community surrounding, came in to worship with the boys. The services were conducted amid the trees, God's great temple of the out-of-doors.

The following is the daily program of the camp. 7 a. m., rising whistle; 7.05, "P. T." 7.15, Morning dip; 7.45, Breakfast, followed by chapel service, in which the boys assist; 8.45, Putting out blankets to dry; 9.00, Tribe Meetings and Life Study Problems. (The boys were divided Junior and Senior for the study period); 10.00, Volleyball series; 11.45, Swim; 12.30, Dinner; 1.00 p. m. Canteen (the boys were allowed to spend 10c daily for candy and fruit); 1.15-2.15, Rest Hour; 2.30, Tent Inspection; 3.00, Athletic Instruction; 4.45, Swim; 5.30, Supper; 6.30, Softball series—two double endings; 8.15, Games; 9.00, Camp Fire, Sing Song, Camp Paper, Stunts, Good night message, Taps; 9.45, Retiring; 10.00, Lights out.

The groups were evened up according to ages and ability in athletics so that they would be as nearly as possible even, with the idea of making the competition the very keenest. In each group there were so many twelve year olds, so many thirteen, so many fourteen, so many seniors.

The six groups bore good old North American names, Sioux, Iroquois, Pawnees, Crees, Sarcees, and Incas. Each tribe had its own Little Chief. The Little Chiefs were, respectively, John Knox, Victoria; Richard McQuarrie, Victoria; Gordon Batt, Charlottetown; Harold Stewart, Charlottetown; Maurice Brady, Charlottetown, and George Lockhart, Antigonish, N. S.

In the standing for tribal honors, which included Tent Inspection, Athletics, Volley Ball, Soft Ball, Conduct, Fatigues, Evening Tattler (the Camp Paper, contributions to), Tribal Minutes and Yell, the Crees took first place, the Iroquois second, Pawnees third, Sarcees fourth, Sioux fifth, and Incas sixth. One of the outstanding items of the Camp is the Hall of Fame. It is a vote of the boys themselves, taken during the last day of camp.

Each fellow votes separately on a separate sheet. The following is the standing according to this vote.

- Most Popular Boy, Buddy Sweet.
Most Popular Game, Soft Ball.
Most Popular Eats, Prunes.
Most Generous Boy, Jack Farquharson.
Most for Camp, Gordon Batt.
Biggest Eater, Alfred Block.

- Best Camper, Senior, Buddy Sweet.
Best Looking Boy, Buddy Sweet.
Best Nurtured Boy, George Lockhart.

Badges were awarded for running, throwing, jumping, swimming, life saving.

These badges were awarded according to a graduated scale which takes into consideration, age, weight and distance. A white badge means between 70 and 80 per cent., a blue badge between 80 and 90 per cent., and a red badge over 90 per cent. They are a genuine test. For running there were granted 9 white badges, 15 blues, and 15 reds. For throwing, 18 whites, 19 blues, 2 reds. For jumping, 14 whites, 7 blues, and 3 reds. For swimming, 12 Trail Ranger Badges, and 10 Tuxis Badges. For life saving, 9 badges. In all there were awarded 130 badges. These badges which are won by the boys are paid for out of the Camp funds, and are mailed to the boys in about a month's time.

In the athletic field the Camp rose to new heights. Island records were broken and broken again, and six new Maritime records were made. Four of these were in the 60 yard potato race. Kenneth Archibald set a new Maritime record for Class I. of 15.4 secs.; Allan Harding in Class II. a new record of 14 1-2 secs.; Harold Stewart in Class III. a new record of 13.4 secs.; and Spurgeon Jenkins in Class V., a new record of 14.3 secs. A new Maritime record was made in the 75 yard dash, Wendall Turner covering the distance in 9 secs. flat. In the 8 lb. shot put, John Knox beat his own Island Record and made a new Maritime Record by throwing the shot 42 ft. 4 inches.

These records are also new Island records. In addition, the following records were made: Kenneth Archibald raised the broad jump for Class 1, to 13 ft. 5 inches. In Class I. Allison Harper threw the baseball a new distance of 162 feet. For Class III. Harold Stewart ran the 100 yard dash in the fast time for a boy of 11.2 secs. For the same Class Art. Green ran the 60 yard Potato Race in 14.4 secs. In Class III. in the Broad Jump, Art Green made a new record for the Island of 15 ft. 5 inches, and a little later Harold Stewart added 6 inches to it making it 15 ft. 11 inches. In Class V. Spurgeon Jenkins made a new Island record for the 100 yards, of 11.2 secs., and threw the 8 lb. shot to a new record for his class of 37 ft.
