HORACE MCEWEN IS LAID TO REST

The memorial funeral service of the late Horace McEwen, formerly of Charlottetown, was held in the Chapel of Harron Bros. Funeral Home in Vancouver, B. C., on December 19th, 1940.

The service, which was very impressive, was conducted by Mr. John R. McLaren, of the "Brethren", a close friend of the deceased. The Chapel was filled with a great many friends and acquaintances, especially a large number of former residents of P. E. Island.

Many beautiful floral tributes were banked about the casket while the music and the worship were of an exceptionally high order. Interment took place in the Lawn section of Mountain View Cemetery, Vancouver.

The late Mr. McEwen was in his 84th year and enjoyed good health until shortly before his death. His widow relieves aches.

WAKE UP YOUR LIVER BILE

And You'll Jump Out of Bed in the Morning

The liver should pour out two pounds of liquid bile into your bowels daily. If this bile is not flowing freely, your food doesn't digest. It just clogs the bowels, and makes you feel sick. You get constipated. Harmful poisons go into the body, and you feel sour, sunk and the world looks pink.

A mere bowel movement doesn't always get at the cause. You need something that works on the liver as well. It takes these good, old Carter's Little Liver Pills to get these two pounds of bile flowing freely and make you feel "up and up". Harmless and gentle, they make the bile flow freely. They do the work of colonic but have no colonic or mercury in them. Ask for Carter's Little Liver Pills by name! Stubbornly refuse anything else. Etc.

URGENT CALL FOR MITTS — The Prince Edward Island Division of the Canadian Red Cross Society has just received the following telegram from Mrs. W. R. Campbell, National Chairman of the Women's War Work Committee: "Urgent demand for two-way mitts all colours including Airforce. All mitts and gloves greatly needed. Please press knitters to get these articles out in preference to everything else for next six weeks." Yarn for these articles is available at the Red Cross Office, 59 Grafton Street, Charlottetown.

CARRY ON CANADA CORPS — The organization and objectives of the Carry On Canada Corps is the subject of an interesting article in the December issue of the Maritime Advocate and Busy East by Mr. C. A. Beer, secretary of the original unit of the Corps at Charlottetown. From this unit, Mr. Beer writes, three other Corps have been organized within the province, and it is expected that before long nearly every part of the Island will be organized. Each Corps, as is explained, is an individual unit and there has been no demand for a Provincial-Command set-up so far. It was hoped that this movement would spread Dominion-wide so that the whole country would be organized for national service. Its value is well illustrated in Mr. Beer's account of its many war-time activities.

In Memoriam

MRS. EARL G. JENKINS

There passed peacefully away at her home in Cross Roads on Jan. 4, 1941, Mrs. Earl G. Jenkins, formerly Laura May Jones of Hazelbrook at the age of fifty-two years. The decease had been in her usual good health on New Year's day and spent the day happily with her family. That night she became suddenly ill and although medical aid was at once summoned, her condition gradually became worse and on Saturday evening passed away.

Her family were all at her bedside during her brief illness. In her early years she united with the Baptist Church to which she was loyally devoted. Her sterling qualities and cheery disposition was a source of joy and inspiration to those who knew her. She entertained many ministers and in their messages of sympathy spoke of the many pleasant hours spent in her home.

There are left to mourn the memory of a loving wife and mother sorrowing husband, three daughters, Elva, Mrs. Vaughan Murphy, Cross Roads; Mary, Mrs. Lloyd Vesey, York; Alicia at home and one son Winston also at home; her mother, Mrs. Henry Jones, St. Hazelbrook; and one grandson, Leon Murphy, Cross Roads.

Her sister, Jean, Mrs. W. H. Wood, Pownal, three brothers, A. Roy and Kent Jones, Hazelbrook; W. E. Jones in Cambridge, Mass., also survive.

The funeral, which was held on Monday afternoon was largely attended despite the inclement weather. The services were conducted by the Rev. D. K. Ross of the Pownal United Church. The hymns sung were "What a Friend We Have in Jesus," "Shall We Gather at the River" and "Come every Soul by Sin Oppressed," a favorite hymn of the deceased, so often sung at their family worship each morning.

Mrs. Harold Carver, niece of the deceased was the organist. The floral tributes were beautiful but due to the scarcity of flowers, many orders had to be cancelled.

The pallbearers were Messrs. A. Roy Jones, Kent Jones, Spurgeon Jenkins, Sr., Vaughan Murphy, Frank Wood, Lloyd Vesey, Interment in Alexandra Cemetery. (Patriot Please Copy)

New Treatment

Dr. Wilson, who was an army doctor in the last war, said considerable progress had been made in the treatment of venereal diseases. He said, "The most recent practice of sealing bomb wounds in plaster casts, rather than in a plaster cast, is keeping the casts in place for four to six weeks, thus eliminating the possibility of fresh infection. The patient is kept in bed, and the rest is healthy," he said, "is a policy you may say of careful neglect."

Another development, he said, is the use of a subcutaneous injection of the derivative of sulfanilamide, which relieves pain. He told also of the plastic surgery work that is being done in rebuilding the faces of young English soldiers. The operators wear fireproof clothing and their injuries when their planes catch fire are confined almost entirely to the face. We rebuild entirely new faces, including new noses, ears and cheek bones," Dr. Wilson said. He praised the work of the Royal Canadian Air Force, who is engaged in this plastic surgery, and also praised the work of his brain specialist, Dr. Delaney, who is treating bomb fragments that become lodged in the brain.

Specialists Needed

Dr. Wilson said that 30 more medical specialists were needed in England and that he was recruiting them and take them there.

Another passenger on the Excalibur was Arne Sunde, Minister of Shipping and Supply of the Royal Norwegian Government, who said that more than three-quarters of Norway's merchant ships came under the control of the British after the German invasion of Norway. He said Norway had 4,800,000 gross tons of shipping, of which 3,800,000 tons were turned over to England with comparatively small loss.

Mr. Sunde, who was accompanied by his wife, was prevailed upon to tell how he captured two Nazi officers and 45 soldiers, all parachutists, who had taken refuge in a mountain in the town of Dovre. Mr. Sunde, who is 57 years old, served as a major in command of a group of soldiers in the mountains north of Oslo.

Rome and Berlin commentators pictured the Axis maps as shipping decision — an early knock-out blow at Britain. Events since they met have cast fresh doubt on that explanation. They strongly indicate that the Axis is planning an effective Nazi rescue expedition which the Balkan flare-up is making increasingly difficult for Hitler to send.

German air intervention in the central Mediterranean has not materially helped Mussolini. It could not save Tobruk and its Fascist garrison from the British Army of the Nile. Australian shock troops entered the town yesterday. The Greeks have reported throwing back the most formidable Italian counter attack of the Albanian campaign. The peril of all Fascist

Food For British Prisoners Supplied From Canada

The Canadian Red Cross Society has opened a depot in Toronto to supply 5,000 parcels of food every week for British (including Canadian) prisoners of war in Germany. This undertaking was started at the request of the British Red Cross, whose work in England has been hampered by enemy air-raids. The parcels go by American export liners to Lisbon, where they are taken over by the International Red Cross, which guarantees their safe delivery to the prisoners in Germany. The parcels are taken from Lisbon by a Red Cross ship to Marseilles, where they are transferred to a Red Cross train bound for Geneva. The above picture shows Overseas Nurses of the last war at work packing the parcels. The Canadian Red Cross plans to open another depot to supply an additional 5,000 parcels a week.

New Italian defeats in Africa and Albania and an internal crisis of uncertain origin and scope in Rumania strike an ironic aftermath to the recent Hitler-Mussolini "victory" pow-wow.

Rome and Berlin commentators pictured the Axis maps as shipping decision — an early knock-out blow at Britain. Events since they met have cast fresh doubt on that explanation. They strongly indicate that the Axis is planning an effective Nazi rescue expedition which the Balkan flare-up is making increasingly difficult for Hitler to send.

German air intervention in the central Mediterranean has not materially helped Mussolini. It could not save Tobruk and its Fascist garrison from the British Army of the Nile. Australian shock troops entered the town yesterday. The Greeks have reported throwing back the most formidable Italian counter attack of the Albanian campaign. The peril of all Fascist

BAILEY'S MARES
SELL IN GUINEAS

NEWMARKET, England Jan. 20 —(CP)—One of the most important bloodstock sales in recent years was held when the late Abe Bailey's brood mares, foals, yearlings, horses in training, stallions and fillies out of training, were auctioned. The 84 horses sold realized 45,977 guineas. ($199,301).

The only horse kept was Sir Abe's old favorite, Son-in-Law, the founder of one of the most famous lines of stayers in the stud book. He will be 33 next year.

The stallion Tiberius, whose winnings included the Ascot Gold Cup, the Goodwood Cup, Newmarket, St. Leger, and Liverpool, St. Leger, brought top price of 5,200 guineas ($24,284).

REPORTED DEAD IN PRISON CAMP

LONDON, —(CP)—A prominent British sports figure taken by the Germans at Amsterdam, Holland, was Jack Reynolds, a great football player before the 1914-18 conflict. He is reported to have died in a concentration camp. Reynolds coached the Ajax Football Club at Amsterdam the last 20 years.

Food For British Prisoners Supplied From Canada

The Canadian Red Cross Society has opened a depot in Toronto to supply 5,000 parcels of food every week for British (including Canadian) prisoners of war in Germany. This undertaking was started at the request of the British Red Cross, whose work in England has been hampered by enemy air-raids. The parcels go by American export liners to Lisbon, where they are taken over by the International Red Cross, which guarantees their safe delivery to the prisoners in Germany. The parcels are taken from Lisbon by a Red Cross ship to Marseilles, where they are transferred to a Red Cross train bound for Geneva. The above picture shows Overseas Nurses of the last war at work packing the parcels. The Canadian Red Cross plans to open another depot to supply an additional 5,000 parcels a week.
