Directions for relieving colds

To stop aches and sore throat almost at once... do as these pictures show

1 To Relieve Headache, body discomfort and aches, take 2 Aspirin Tablets and drink a full glass of water. Repeat treatment in 2 hours.

2 For Sore Throat from a cold, dissolve 3 Aspirin Tablets in ½ glass of water and gargle. This eases pain and rawness.

3 Check Temperature. If you have a fever and it does not go down, if throat pain is not quickly relieved, call your doctor.

This is a really fast way to relieve a cold that millions are now using and recommending. The way that relieves the pains, aches and sore throat almost instantly. Simply use Aspirin as shown above. For Aspirin is said to be among the fastest and safest reliefs ever known for pain.

Aspirin works fast because it disintegrates as soon as you take it. Within 2 seconds after touching moisture, it's ready to start work. Hence relief comes very quickly.

Try this safe, quick-acting relief for your cold at once. Ask for "Aspirin," and be sure you get it. Aspirin is made in Canada and is the trade-mark of The Bayer Company, Limited.

Less than 1c a tablet in the economy bottle

W. C. T. U. NOTES

THE UNION JACK

It's only a small bit of bunting,
It's only an old colored rag;
Yet thousands have died for it: honor,
And shed their best blood for th flag.

Its charged with the cross of St. Andrew,
Which of old, Scotland's heroes have led;
It carries the cross of St. Patrick,
For which Ireland's bravest have bled.

Joined with these is old England's ensign,
St. George's red cross on white field;
Round which, from King Richard to Wolseley
Britons conquer or die, but ne'er yield.

It floats o'er the Island of Malta,
O'er Canada, the Indies, Hong Kong.
And Britons, where'er their flag's flying,
Claim the rights which to Britons belong.

We hoist it to show our devotion,
To our King, to our country and laws;
It's the outward and visible emblem
Of advancement and liberty's cause.
You may say it's an old bit of bunting;
You may call it and old colored rag;
But freedom has made it majestic
And time has ennobled the flag.

END MAY COME SUDDENLY

Many have predicted this fight is going to be long, possibly three or four years more. Personally I have a feeling the end will come suddenly and unexpected before the end of 1942. In any case I predict the Allies will march victoriously into Berlin before the end of 1943.

This road to victory is hard and difficult and is costing many millions of valuable lives. It is costing countless millions of dollars for all necessary war supplies. What are we, who are staying home and enjoying the comforts of life, doing to assist in the protection of our homes and families? We must all realize our responsibilities and do everything we can in assisting our beloved Empire, and our Allies in this titanic struggle to the very best of our ability.

A PLEDGE

But best of all, let each and every one of us pledge himself or herself not to touch, taste, or handle intoxicating liquor for the duration of the war. Many millions of dollars could thus be saved by our Canadian people; and many thousands of dollars saved to the people of Prince Edward Island.

I suggest, and strongly urge that the clergy of all the churches in our province present each member of his congregation with the following pledge, namely:

"Rev. . . .

(Address)

"I, ... of . . . . . in . . . . . County in Prince Edward Island, hereby pledge myself not to touch taste, or handle intoxicating liquor for the duration of the present war.

(Signature)

Witness:

A wholehearted response to a pledge of this kind would serve a double purpose. Besides saving many thousands of dollars so badly needed for war and other purposes, it would get rid of the greatest curse we have in Canada, at least for the war period.

Let us again do without that new fur coat, the new dress and the new suit of clothes we intended to buy. Let us make our old clothes serve our needs for another year at least. Let us deny ourselves of the many luxuries we have been accustomed to enjoy.

By carrying out these suggestions we will be doing a great service to our country, and also to ourselves.

If we are loyal, if we are patriotic why should we hesitate do all this, and as much more as possible? Let us then do our full duty. Surely we could not expect to do less.

Let the people of our province "go over the top" in the purchase of war savings certificates and war savings stamps.

My each one of us assisting to the limit of our resources, is the only safe way of making sure "There'll Always Be An England."

From Judge Saunders' address to the Grand Jury at the Supreme Court in Summerside P. E. I., Nov. 25, 1941.

A CALL TO ACTION FOR DEFENCE OF THE HOME

The brewing industry's assault upon the American woman and the American home is nothing new. It has been on a steady increase in volume and in audacity ever since beer came back by sanction of Congress before repeal, but never until last month did it land us paid propaganda on the pages of a prominent publication designed especially for feminine consumption. At that time in the October issue of the "Woman's Home Companion" (delivered in September) and in many other magazines, the very intelligent face of a lovely young woman looked out of a full-page advertisement for the United Brewers Industrial Foundation, and beside it was the psychologically clever challenge, "How should an intelligent woman feel about beer and ale?"

"Every modernminded wife and mother" was urged to "form an honest and unbaised judgment as to the place it (beer) should hold in her life."

Under the large-type heading, "Beer and Young People," this modern-minded woman was told that:

"If a mother is truly wise, she will make home so attractive to her young people . . . that they will enjoy entertaining friends in their home" . . . and "kindly mellow beer can be of great help. Served with a mother's approval and understanding it becomes an asset in . . . friendly gatherings of young people."

In conclusion, to use the beer maker's own words:

"The brewers of America are eager to have beer win the place it deserves in the confidence of forward-looking women: A beverage of moderation for the nation as a tolerant and modern minded woman, won't you help with understanding and support of the brewers' 'cleanup or close up' program to prevent abuses wherever they may occur in the retailing of beer and ale . . ."

Unfortunately, thousands upon thousands of modern-minded women have no means of reaching the magazine readers of this country with their version of how "an intelligent woman" should feel about beer and ale, but they can write to the publishers of the magazines in which the brewers' ad appeared and protest such an assault upon the American home. They can write also to the advertisers who have paid for the space on the reverse side of the beer ads and explain that those pages have been delected before the magazine went onto the library-table for family reading.

Every woman who fels that this audacity of the brewers is an insult to American women should write at least to the publications which sent it into her home.

On the reverse side of the sheet that carried the brewers' ad in Collier's was a milk advertisement. The milk company should be informed immediately that its ad had to be deleted before the magazine was read by the family.—Union Signal, Oct. 4, 1941.

In Memoriam

MRS. JAMES LIVINGSTONE

The subject of this obituary Mrs. James Livingstone was born Christy Ann MacNevin, daughter of John MacNevin and Margaret MacKay. She was born at DeSable on June 15th 1878. She was married to James Livingstone on Nov. 27th 1907, by Rev. James MacDougall, and came to live at Clyde River where she lived as a beautiful wife and mother. In her early years she was converted and united with the Church of Scotland and continued a devoted and faithful member until her death with firm confidence in the Saving and Keeping power of her blessed Lord. Six weeks before her death her health broke down, but she bore her suffering with Christian fortitude and despite all that could be done she peacefully passed away to be with her Saviour on Oct. 2nd.

The funeral services were held on Oct. 4th and were conducted by Rev. J. Harvey Bishop, assisted by Rev. T. W. Goodwill, after a short service at the house the public service was held in Burnside Presbyterian Church, Clyde River, where a very large gathering of people met to pay their last tribute of respect to a noble woman, a kindly neighbour, and a sincere friend. Burial took place in the Burnside Cemetery. There are left to mourn, her husband, an only daughter Mrs. Keith Young and Bruce, Anna May, and Baby Young grand-children Mrs. John MacQuarrie, Colman, Mrs. Thomas Baird Lowell Mass., and Hector MacNevin California. To all of whom The Guardian extends Sincere Sympathy.

SCRAP BUYS KITCHENS

Hundreds of R. A. F. men Land in Canada

Group Includes Both Instructors And Students.

(By The Canadian Press)

Hundreds of Royal Air Force men, including a complete training school to be established somewhere in the Dominion, now are in Canada.

They consist of men to be trained and the experienced fliers who will train them after getting their own seasoning in the aerial struggles over western Europe. The school is under the command of Group Capt. D. Iron.

Among the instructors are FO. H. R. Thomas of Toledo, Ohio, who has been in the R. A. F.'s bomber command for a year and a half, FO. R. L. Brown of Vancouver who went overseas to join the R. A. F. two and a half years ago and PO. R. B. Barker, Vancouver, a R. C. A. F. officer who went overseas seven months ago.

With the blue-clad aviators came many of the pilots who have been ferrying bombers to Britain from the new world, among them Clyde Pangborn and Hugh Herndon, the Americans who encircled the world by air in 1931.

Another well-known person was Lieut. Robert Montgomery, Hollywood star who joined the United States navy and was sent to London. He told the deskman at his hotel, after going out to tell reporters "I'll see them but I can't tell them anything."

The insignia of the Eagle Squadron on his arm FO. T. H. Tucker of San Francisco will take a 3 1-2-months navigation course in Canada. He said he hoped to get leave for a visit home before settling down.

The airmen were accompanied by many Canadian soldiers either invalided home or sent back to Canada as instructors after service in Britain. There were also men of the merchant marine and the Royal Navy as well as wives and children of British servicemen now stationed in Canada.

Pat Ussher, the veteran of the London staff of The Canadian Press, was among the arrivals. Ussher, who has been writing the news of Britain for four years of peace and war, has returned for duty in Canada. He was accompanied by Mrs. Ussher, a Welsh girl whom he married in the old country.

STOP BLIND WATCH

EDINBURGH— (CP) — The board of management of the Royal Blind Asylum passed a resolution that blind employees must not fire watch after learning that some sightless men had been on such duty.

ABOUT CHAMPAGNE

Champagne was accidentally concocted some 200 years ago by a Benedictine monk. Dom Perignon, who was trying to save a batch of wine that was turning out badly.
