Yesterday's Provincial by-election for Councillor representation in the Second District of Prince resulted in a victory for the Liberal candidate, Mr. Forrest W. Phillips, O'Leary, who received 1185 votes against 968 polled by his Progressive Conservative opponent, Mr. Allie McNeill. The total vote of 2153 was unusually large, both sides polling more votes than in the 1943 general election, when the then Liberal candidate, the late Hon. W. H. Dennis, received 985 votes as against Mr. McNeill's 813.

—HAD HAPPY BIRTHDAY— Miss Viola Heggarty, R.N., Mrs. Greta Coen, Mrs. Mary Doyle, R.N. and Mr. Frank O'Connor left for their homes in Jamaica Plains after spending a delightful two weeks the guests of their mother, sister, and Mr. Alan Semple. This is Mrs. Doyle's and Mr. O'Connor's first visit to the Island and they were quite overcome by the "Island hospitality", and have definitely decided to see "Spud Island" again next year for a much longer visit. While at home they held a very pleasant birthday party for their mother, Mrs. Lucy Heggarty, at her home in Clermont. They presented her with a beautiful saphire ring and many nice presents, also a substantial cheque from her brother, Mr. Thomas McKinnon of Arlington, Mass.

—The community of Central Bedeque was saddened when they learned of the passing of Ralph Johnson age 21 on Thursday evening, Sept. 12th, son of Mr. and Mrs. Melville Johnson, he was stricken about six weeks ago with a serious illness and was taken to the Prince County Hospital where he remained a week, returning home and hopes were entertained for his recovery but he gradually weakened until the end came, he was a very kind and obliging young man and was loved by the community and was an employee of the Dunk River Dairying Co., he was a member of the Bedeque United Church where he regularly attended and lived a very devoted Christian life, he had a friendly and kind disposition and was a general favorite. He leaves to mourn his sorrowing parents, one sister Ruth who is at home, one brother, Carmen who resides in Ottawa who arrived home by plane for the funeral besides a host of neighbors and friends.

—GOLDEN WEDDING ANNIVERSARY—On September 7, 1946, the friends and neighbors gathered at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard Gallant of Richmond, to celebrate with them, and to extend best wishes on this, the anniversary of their golden wedding. Two addresses,one in French and one in English were read to Mr. and Mrs. Gallant by Miss Arsenault of Urbainville, and by Mrs. Anthony Burke of Charlottetown. Mr. and Mrs. Gallant were the recipients of a beautiful parlour set from the family, and many other beautiful gifts from neighbors and friends, which shows, that they are held in high esteem by all. After the reading of the addresses short remarks were made by Mr. Herb Vessey of Charlottetown, Mr. Joseph Bolger and Mr. Emile Buote, extending best wishes, and many more years of prosperity and health. Dancing was then indulged in, the music being furnished by Mr. Bernard Gallant then gave a demonstration of how they are still able to step the light fantastic toe. About midnight every one left for home, and hoped that on September 7, 1956 that Mr. and Mrs. Gallant would be spared to celebrate their diamond wedding. (Patriot please copy)

—HAD DISTINGUISHED SERVICE — The following obituary of Flying Officer Stephen Pond, who was killed in the crash of a Dakota transport plane at Estevan, Sask., on Sunday, appears in the Montreal Star: "F.O. Pond had been associated with the R.C.A.F. since early in 1940, joining originally as an accountant in Montreal but later remustering to aircrew in 1942. He was commissioned at St. Hubert and went overseas in November, 1943. While overseas he was transferred to the Transport Command and during the war took aircraft to India, Australia, England and other destinations. He was posted to No. 124 Transport Command, at Rockcliffe in February of this year. Although born in England, he spent most of his life in Summerside, P. E. I., where his parents resided. He is survived by his wife, the former Constance Cronin, of Montreal; two sons, Gary, and Gregory, and his mother, now visiting relatives in England."

A sad gloom was cast over Northam and surrounding districts when it was learned that the pure gentle spirit of Miss Etta Mayo Stewart, beloved daughter of the late David Stewart and Mrs. Ida Stewart of Northam, had passed on to the Great Beyond on Saturday evening August 31st.

The late Miss Stewart had been a convalescent for the past year at the home of her mother, after undergoing very serious perations at the Prince County Hospital, during which time she was lovingly and tenderly cared for by her devoted mother and sister Glenn. Great hopes were held for her complete restoration to good health and during the first part of the summer she was able to attend church and social gatherings, but God willed otherwise, and it was with sinking hearts that her relatives and friends learned she was again stricken, with no hopes for her recovery. She bore the burden of her painful disease with Christian fortitude, never complaining, always thoughtful of the ones attending to her needs and received great spiritual comfort and sustaining strength by the almost daily visits of Rev. Mr. Meagus, of St. James Anglican Church, Port Hill of which she was a member, and also by the visits of Rev Mr. MacDowell of United Church, Bideford.
