HIGH TEA SUCCESSFUL — The Annual Autumn High Tea in aid of the Charlottetown Hospital under the auspices of the St. Charles Auxiliary was held in Holy Name Hall on October 12th and 13th. The decorated cake on lottery was won by Mr. T. W. L. Prowse who very generously donated it to the Hospital. The attendance both evenings was exceptionally large and the tea tables won high commendation for excellence in quality and tastiness of meals and for courteous, efficient service. The President and the other indefatigable Auxiliary members are pleased to know that their labors met with success both in well-satisfied patrons and in monetary returns, which will be higher than in recent years. A big factor in the satisfactory result of the teas was the generous response made by the people of the country sections where the ladies solicited contributions. Great demands are being made daily on the charitable services of the hospital, indicative of the too prevalent unemployment and straitened circumstances of many people. He who promised to reward a cup of water given in His name will bless all who assist the hospital to care for the poor sick.

Lawton—Birch Wedding

On Saturday evening October 1st, at 8.30 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wilfred Lawton, Pownal, was the scene of a very pretty wedding, when their daughter Edythe Claire was united in marriage to Jack Roscoe Birch, Colchester, England, now residing in Montreal. The bride on the arm of her father entered the living room, lead by little Priscilla Griffith, flower girl and followed by Betty Hamm, cousin of the bride, as page boy, to the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march played by Mrs. Beatrice Judson.

The marriage took place under a white arch, decorated with flowers of snap dragons, marigolds, dahlias. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Mr. Hayter of Hazelbrook Baptist Church, assisted by the Rev. Mr. Ross of Pownal in the presence of immediate relatives and friends.

The bride looked very charming in floor length gown of brocaded silk lace, made in Princess lines with shoulder length halo veil and carried talisman roses and maidenhair fern. She was attended as matron of honor by Miss Helen Judson who wore a peach crepe-de-chene trimmed with mauve and a turban to match, carried a bouquet of gladiolus. The groom was supported by Wilfred Lawton, Jr., brother of the bride. Mrs. Lawton, mothe. of the bride, wore black lace with corsage of orchid.

While the signing of the register Mrs. Harold Carver sang with pleasing effect "I Love you Truly."

After the ceremony the guests were ushered in the dining-room by Mrs. George T. Binns, aunt of the bride, to a buffet lunch. Mrs. J. J. Larabee poured tea, Mrs. Arthur Brown, cut the ices. They were assisted in serving by Miss Bertha MacKee, Miss Jean Hamm, Mrs. W. H. Griffith.

The bride who has been an efficient school teacher, was tendered a number of pre-nuptial showers and had received many lovely wedding gifts.

Mr. and Mrs. Birch left Monday morning for Montreal. The bride's going away costume consisted of a dark grey coat with squirrel collar, dress nave blue with accessories to match.

The many valuable and useful gifts which the young couple received, testify to the esteem in which they are held by a wide circle of friends.

The Guardian joins with numerous friends in the country and city in extending heartiest congratulations.

Two-day Course For Nurses Is Completed

The sessions of the Refresher Course were concluded yesterday.

Dr. Simpson discussed the onset, general course and complications of Scarlet Fever and Diphtheria. The doctor said that fortunately there were few cases of the latter disease (thanks to the Public Healths Departments program of immunization treatment). Dr. Simpson gave valuable advice to the nurses, saying that many times a nurse is called to see children with suspicious sore throats before a doctor, and the efficient nurse will see that due precautions are taken and insist on the summoning of the doctor.

Miss McLennan (Royal Alexandra Hospital, Montreal) discussed the nursing care in these diseases and their complications and also in other infectious diseases. A two-reel film, "Nurses in the Making" portrayed the highlights of a modern nursing curriculum. Beginning with a survey of the fields of service open to the nurse today, it then shows the new student arrive at the hospital and the different steps in her nursing education as the course progresses through the carefully planned stages of increased knowledge and increased responsibility.

At the afternoon session a symposium on Obstetrics was held —Miss Mary Reid discussed prenatal care; Miss Helen Solomon assisted by Miss Katherine McCloskey gave a practical demonstration on caring for a patient in her home.

"Recent Advances in Drug Therapy" was treated by Dr. J. W. McKenzie. The benefits of sulfanilamide and the newer insulin, called protamine zinc insulin were interestingly described. The last topic was "Budgeting Food Values on Limited Income", on which Miss Marjojrie White, Dietitian, Prince Edward Island Hospital gave an informative paper, of interest to the general public as well as to nurses. It will be published in Saturday's Guardian.

Miss Lavers, Superintendent of the Prince County Hospital moved a special vote of thanks to Miss McLennan which was seconded by Miss Mae King and heartily approved by the applause of all present. In accepting Miss McLennan spoke of the privilege she felt in taking part in this first Refresher Course, saying she had never addressed an audience that appeared more appreciative.

In her closing remarks the President thanked the Refresher Course Committee, thanked again those who had taken part in the program, thanked Miss Mair, Superintendent of the Prince Edward Island Hospital for the use of the Cundall Home and expressed the satisfaction of the promoters of the course in the results achieved exceeding even the most optimistic expectations.

Local Pianist Heard Last Night In Fine Concert

Last night in the Canadian National Hotel the Women's Music Club presented Miss Marion Morris in a delightful recital of piano music. Miss Morris is the daughter of Mr. Fred Morris, a most talented pianist as all who have been fortunate enough to hear him will testify. She is her father's pupil, and she has acquired his fine technique and sound musical discernments.

The well chosen programme which Miss Morris played was as follows:

Sonatina No. 6—Clementi
Perpetual Motion—Carl Weber.
Moonlight Sonata—Beethoven.
Waltz in E Minor,
Minute Waltz.
Waltz in A Flat Major—Chopin.
Rondo Capriccioso—Mendelssohn.

In addition to these selections, in response to enthusiastic applause, Miss Morris played as encores, A Waltz by Mischa LeVitzky, Liszt's Liebestraum Le Cavalier Fantastique of Goddard, and by request, the Donkey's Serenade from the motion picture "Fire Fly."

The delightful Clementi Sonata was very tastefully played by Miss Morris, and her noteworthy technical accomplishment was well displayed in the final movement of the Beethoven Sonata, as also in Weber's "Perpetual Motion", the Rondo Capriccioso and Le Cavalier Fantastique. The slow movement of the "Moonlight" she played beautifully with a rare appreciation of its musical values, and the same may be said of her rendition of the very familiar "Liebestraum."

Miss Morris also played the Chopin group excellently well, particularly the very charming Waltz in A Flat Major. The ability to play Chopin rightly is generally held to be the touch stone of the true pianist, and Miss Morris here excels.

In a word, the large audience was fortunate to have had the privilege of hearing this brilliant young pianiste, and the Women's Music Club is to be congratulated on having presented her.

The Serenaders, a chorus of ladies, members of the Women's Music Club, sang very beautifully the following pieces: Silent Hill by Von Fielitz, These Delightful Pleasant Groves by Purcell, Little Boy Blue by Nevin, and Song of the Pedlar by Williams.

Mrs. G. E. Full played the accompaniment and she as well as the ladies of the chorus are to be complimented on the excellence of their rendition of these lovely songs.
