MISTLETOE, A TREE PARASITE worry about conserving the country's supply of mistletoe. For this Despite its popularity as a attractive plant, with its shiny, Christmas green, there is little dark leaves and waxy white berries, grows as a parasite high on the branches of trees and does considerable damage to its host trees. Science has revealed that the mistletoe seeds are carried from tree to tree by birds.

LECTURE ENJOYED — A very charming lecture was delivered in Cornwall Hall under the auspices of the W. M. S. on Tuesday evening, Dec. 8th, by Mr. Edwin Johnston, B.A., of the Dominion Life Assurance Co. The subject of the lecture was a trip to Europe, particularly England, Scotland and France, with particular reference to the unveiling of the monument at Vimy. The lecture was delivered without manuscript and in an attractive conversational style, and was listened to with rapt attention by all present. The description of Buckingham Palace and the trip through Scotland and through the canyons in France, and the unveiling of the monument at Vimy were all told in a way that made a lasting impression on the minds of the audience. The solos by Miss Wood of Charlottetown, accompanied by Miss Saunders, were much appreciated. The readings by Alice Howard and Mildred Hyde were both very good. A duet by Bertie Miller and Jack McMillan, and instrumental music by Charlie McKinnon and Melvin Hyde were also well received. The Cornwall Y.P.U. gave the opening chorus, Mrs. Geo. McMillan at the piano.

.. and a bag of REGAL

"All set, Jim. Everything's aboard, including that bag of REGAL you're so scared of leaving behind. Oh, I know! If you reached home without it you'd get an awful bawling out and have to come right back for it. Well, you can't blame your wife at that, Jim, when you think of the dandy bread she bakes with REGAL."

Y. P. U. CONDUCT SERVICE.—The Y. P. U. of Cornwall took charge of the service on Sunday, Dec. 13th, and put on a splendid program. The first part of the service was the reading and life printed program prepared by the United Church of Canada, the subject of which was "Give attendance to reading". The purpose of this service was to magnify the ministry of literature by acquainting the church more fully with the publications, and setting forth the opportunities for wide knowledge and deep thinking available today. The second part of the program was a presentation of the pageant "The Seven Lamps of Service." The lamp of prayer by Jean Frizell; the lamp of sacrifice, by Chas. McKinnon; the lamp of truth, by Erna Bain; the lamp of healing, by Ruth Stone; the lamp of helpfulness, by Marion McEachern; the lamp of knowledge, by Harry Miller; the lamp of security, by Dorothy Walker. These seven lamps of service presented to the audience the entire work of the United Church in Canada and in the mission fields of the world. The orations were all memorized and delivered without manuscript, and were exceedingly effective as a presentation of the church's work. The president, Elmer Frizell, presided. A solo was sung by Bertie Miller and Leah McKinley was organist for the Y. P. choir.

Mrs. J. H. MacCallum of St. Peter's Bay, P. E. I., arrived here yesterday to spend the holiday season with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Robb. Mr. MacCallum will join her later.—Moncton Transcript.
