Here is the Reason

We are not going out of business, but just going after more business. We find we have considerable more merchandise than we should have.

In our desire to always offer the public complete and varied assortment, we have overstepped the bounds of judicious buying. It means we have a lot of money tied up in our stock that is not earning common bank interest.

We are determined to put this to work. We are going to close out at least one-half of this big stock in 10 days' time.

This will be your opportunity to buy clothing, furnishings, etc., at a mere fraction of cost.
