manent employment to those who now went to work at the plant was not a true statement. "The Government has, according to its own statement, only taken the plant over temporarily," Mr. Jones said. "When the strike is finally settled and the plant reverts to Canada Packers, not one man working there now, apart from the members of Canada Packers staff, will be allowed to stay."

In concluding Mr. Jones said the only solution he could see for the present deadlock was for the farmers to put such pressure on the Government as would force it to grant the Union a living wage so that "we will be able to raise our children as decent citizens of the community." Canada Packers, he said could easily afford the wage demand. The price they got for the castings, liver, heart, and blood, and bristles from one hog paid four union men for one hour's work. Yet the farmer was paid nothing for them.

Mr. Borsk

Mr. Adam Borsk, assistant director of the U.P.W.A., said he had returned to "this historic Province" for a brief visit before returning to Winnipeg. It was something of "an irony of fate" that "here where our forefathers labored to give birth to Confederation in order that there might be government of the people, for the people, pressure was brought on me not to return and threats were made that if I did, I would be arrested. I could not stay away very well even at the temporary loss of my own personal freedom when I knew that boys who had fought against Fascism abroad were not on the picket lines here fighting against Fascism at home."

Only once, apart from the above statement, did Mr. Borsk touch directly upon the local situation. That was when he said there was a difference of 12 cents an hour in favor of the Moncton packing house workers against the Charlottetown workers for unskilled labor and a difference in favor of Moncton of 35 cents an hour for skilled workers.

During his address he made no direct reference to the Provincial Government nor to Premier Jones. Mr. Borsk gave a general survey of the "packinghouse workers strike from a national viewpoint and told the audience that Canada Packers had made a profit of over $2,059,644 in 1946 which, he said, represented an increase of $242,863 over the year 1945. In the last 20 years, Mr. Borsk said, they had made a profit of more than $37,000,000 apart from the millions they had paid out in dividends.

He read a statement which, he said, had been recently made by Mr. J. S. McLean, president of Canada Packers, to the effect that the employees of the Company were entitled to the first call upon the earnings of the company. Mr. Borsk said that, notwithstanding that statement, Mr. McLean was the first to refuse the request of the Union for increased wages to meet the rising cost of living.

Two provincial governments, he said, had taken over meat-packing plants and were doing all in their power to break the strike. He said Premier Duplessis of the head of one but did not mention the name of the other.

Farm Prices Increase Except in Maritimes

OTTAWA, Oct. 13.—(CP)—The rising cost-of-living was reflected today in a Bureau of Statistics report on prices received by Canadian farmers throughout the country for agricultural products at AUG. 15.

The average was nine points higher than at the corresponding date last year. The index number of prices received for all products, on the base 1935-1939 equals 100, was 196.7 compared with the 1946 index 187.7.

By Provinces, a considerable variation exists. Index numbers for the Maritimes were lower than 1946, due principally to marked declines in prices received for potatoes, poultry, eggs and fruits.

Index numbers for other Provinces registered increases due to higher prices for livestock and dairy products.

Urges Canada Boost Exports To United States

NIAGARA FALLS, Ont., Oct. 13.—(CP)—M. W. MacKenzie, Deputy Minister of Trade and Commerce, tonight urged that Canada try to increase her exports to the United States to help rectify her unbalanced external trade position "which is a matter of profound importance on Canada's whole economic position and upon her outlook for the future."

Unless some way can be found by which the United States will buy more Canadian products, it is difficult to see how Canada can continue to be such a valuable customer of the United States, he said.

In an address prepared for delivery to a meeting of the Electrical Manufacturers' Association here, Mr. MacKenzie said that the Canadian problem arises from the fact that she is dependent on the United States for some 75 per cent of all imports for which she must pay cash while her exports are largely to countries which are able to buy here because of Canadian credits extended to them.

national conciliator, Mr. Borsk said, and would continue doing so. Canada Packers was an organization of national scope and no Union could deal with its satisfactorily except on a national basis.

There was, Mr. Borsk said, an attempt being made to create ill will between the farmers and the packinghouse workers. That effort had failed because none of the "large farmers" organizations had spoken against the workers. The Unions, on their part, had stood up on more than one occasion for the rights of the farmer. He cited as an example the refusal of the Alberta Farmers' Union last year to make delivery of cattle at the prevailing prices. "Thousands of our men were thrown out of work," Mr. Borsk said, "but we did not protest for we knew the farmers had a just grievance."

Mr. Wellington McNeil, who presided, briefly addressed the meeting. He recommended that the farmers get busy and demand that the Government make an immediate and satisfactory settlement of the strike. He told the farmers present that at the present rate of plant operations their hogs "would be old sows" before they could be taken care of at the plant. The workers were entitled to a just wage and the sooner they got it the better it would be for the Government, the farmers, and every other person in the Province.

Mr. H. D. Balcom, Canadian National Railways, Charlottetown, said he had been impressed by the statements made by Mr. Borsk and Mr. Jones. He accepted their statements at face value for he believed the Union had a just cause. At the same time, he would have liked to hear "the other side". He was surprised that no Government officials were present. Premier Jones should have been present. "The Premier, Mr. Balcom said, had proven in the past that he had a real interest in the welfare of the Province. He was a fair man and if he had been present tonight to have heard the Union side of this strike, I believe he would do something about it," Mr. Balcom said.
