

IMPORTANT READING MATTER SELECTED FROM THIS WEEK'S NEWS FOR THE GUARDIAN'S SATURDAY SUBSCRIBERS

MONDAY. J. A. Henderson's speedy Meadowvale added another victory Saturday to an already lengthy list when he defeated Robert C. owned by J. George Carver in a match race for $100.

Meadowvale appeared on the ice for the first time and showed almost as much speed as he has done in the past on the turf. A very large crowd witnessed the race despite the gradually increasing snowstorm and great interest was evidenced in the outcome.

The race started at 2.30 p.m. with the officials in control whose names appeared in a recent issue. The course was from a point near Rocky Point Ferry to the landing at the foot of Richmond Street.

Meadowvale gathered in the stakes in three straight heats and at no time in either of the heats was he pushed enough to put forth his best efforts.

The other races scheduled were called off and will probably take place this afternoon.

Further particulars of the death of George McCormack are to the effect that he left Georgetown at seven in the evening to drive across the ice to his home in Boughton Island. It was blowing a gale at the time, with snow falling. He took the ice at Burnt Point, and would have about four miles to go before reaching his destination. The body was found near McAskill's Point at De Gros Marsh, about two and a half miles from McCormack's home and two hundred yards from the shore. The horse was found on the shore against a fence and in a snarl with the evidence of those who had found the body showed that marks were visible on the ice where the body had been dragged. The cuts on the head were evidently made by the horse's hoof. The deceased, who was about thirty-five years of age, was a strong, hardy man, who had spent his life on the farm.

Mrs. Golding Howard of Cornwall who is visiting her sister Mrs. Ayers, at 240 Queen Street, city, was called upon last week by her pastor, Rev. Hugh Miller, and presented with a purse of gold and the following address:

Mrs. Golding Howard. The congregation of the Methodist Church at Cornwall, remembering the many years of patient, faithful service, which you have given in the capacity of organist, desire to tender you their grateful thanks and beg you to accept this small gift as a token of their appreciation.

The work has been on your part a free and willing service without thought of reward, except the "Well done" of your Lord and Master. He has given you this talent and you have used it well. The purse is small when we think of the time and effort this work has cost you; but we assure you the love and esteem of the Cornwall people will be a reward.

Mrs. Howard was not looking for or expecting such a tangible expression of the good will and kindness of her former co-workers in the work of the church at Cornwall, but she appreciated very much the kind and friendly spirit that prompted their generous action, and that the memories of the hours of service spent in Cornwall Church, and especially in connection with the choir would not soon be lost, no matter where her lot might be cast.

Mrs. Howard expects to leave in a few weeks' time on a visit to her daughter, Mrs. (Rev.) E. A. Woulley of Vanceboro, Maine.

TUESDAY.

The death occurred at her home yesterday of Muriella, adopted daughter of C. R. and Mrs. Dickie, Muddy Creek. The deceased, who was 15 years of age, had been in good health up to about the first of January last when she contracted measles from which she suffered a relapse which resulted in lung trouble setting in and she slowly but gradually grew worse until the end came yesterday morning. The funeral takes place tomorrow (Wednesday) at 10.30 a.m. from her late residence to the Union Corner, Methodist Cemetery.

AT LAST, A CURE FOR RHEUMATISM

"Fruit-a-tives Cured Me" Says Mrs. Baxter.

"I was a helpless cripple from Rheumatism for nearly a year. All down the right side, the pain was dreadful and I could not move for the agony. I was treated by two physicians without help. The great 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised in 'The Telegram' and decided to try them. After I had taken one box, I was much better.

When I had taken three boxes, I could use my arm and the pain was almost gone. After taking five boxes, I was entirely well again. The cure was effected because all the doctors failed to even relieve me. 'Fruit-a-tives' cured me. Mrs. LIZZIE BAXTER.

The death of Mrs. John Kickham of Souris West, occurred yesterday at 11 o'clock after a brief illness of pneumonia. Her son, Dr. Emmet Mulholland, and daughter Mrs. Dr. Donald, arrived home from Montreal, but were a few hours too late to see their mother alive.

Horsemen of this city will be pleased to learn that Kandol, formerly owned by R. H. Sterns, city, has won several ice races in Amherst. Kandol, whose three-year-old record is 2.30, was sired by Kalol and was raised by G. H. Reddin, city, and is now owned by E. B. Harbutt, who is well known in this Province, as he at one time represented the Empire Tobacco Co. In all, Kandol won four races and the fastest heat this colt had to go was in 1.07. The following horses competed with him: King Sarron, Bertha C., Nelly Oakes, Clayton Jr., Doris B. and Simcoe.

Last night Frank M. Duchemin of Glace Bay received by wire the sad news of the death of his wife, which occurred at Truro some time yesterday. There were no particulars as to the cause of death, and the news came as a great shock to the deceased lady's husband and friends, as it was not even known that she was suffering from any serious illness. A few weeks ago Mrs. Duchemin went to Truro, on a visit to her father, the Rev. James Bleasdel, where she purposed remaining for a month or so. The deceased lady was widely known and had a large circle of friends in Glace Bay where her father was stationed as Methodist minister for many years. She leaves two small children. Mr. Duchemin will have the sympathy of many friends at Glace Bay, and elsewhere in his sad bereavement.—Sydney Post. (Mr. Duchemin is a native of Charlottetown.)

A recent despatch from St. John says: Rev. George D. Steel, of Shediac, formerly of P. E. Island, now of Newcastle, N. B., has left for home after spending two days in the city in the interests of the superannuated Methodist ministers and ministers widows fund. Mr. Steel was appointed at the last session of the New Brunswick and Prince Edward Island conference of the $50,000 required an investment in the whole maritime provinces and Newfoundland. A present only 83 per cent of the amounts rightfully claimed can be paid, and it is to supply the deficiency that the campaign was inaugurated. Rev. Mr. Steel reports that he has covered half of Prince Edward Island and the greater part of the St. John and Sackville districts in this province, and has $8,000 in sight. This is his second visit to St. John and he expects to come again before completing his canvass. The subscriptions are divided into $5. a month.

The body of the late G. Oliver McLeod, formerly of this city, buried in this city yesterday from Barbank Cal. The body was met at George town by Lauchlin McKinnon and Mr. McKay of the Montague Masonic Lodge and they accompanied it to this city. The remains were taken to the home of his aunt, Mrs. Philip Bridges, 20 Stewart Street, from which place the funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at two o'clock. The funeral will be under the direction of the Masonic and Oddfellows fraternities, while the Order of Railway Telegraphers, of which the deceased was a popular and highly respected member will attend in body. The pall bearers have been chosen as follows: Active—H. V. Buntain, from St. John's Lodge A. F. and A. M. W. N. Tanton, from Filley Lodge, L. O. F. R. W. McEwen and J. A. Kelly, of the Charlottetown Division of the Order of Railway Telegraphers and two members of Montague Lodge A. F. and A. M. Honorary—Wm. Batt, W. S. Stewart, Major Weeks, W. K. Rogers, G. S. Iman and P. F. McDonald, all of the Prince Edward Island Consistory of the A. F. and A. M.

The remains of Ronald McCormack are being brought home from Bangor, Maine, by her brother. The deceased was 32 years of age, and died of pneumonia.—J.

Three passed peacefully away in Charlottetown on December 31, 1910, at the age of 29 years, James A. Harris, son of George Harris, Charlottetown, after a short illness. Despite medical care and kind treatment he calmly breathed his last at his home, 136 Great George Street, and was laid to rest beside his three sisters and brother in the cemetery at Lot 48. The funeral services were conducted at the house and grave by Rev. Mr. McLean. The pall-bearers were: Walter Young, Bur Dwyer, Mac Beaton, Creel Constable, William McDonald and Daniel Curley. He leaves to mourn a sorrowing father and mother, besides a large circle of friends and relatives. To the bereaved family is extended sincere sympathy.

Bliss be the everlasting God The father of our Lord Be His abounding mercy praised, His majesty adored. When from the grave he raised His Son, And called Him to the sky, He gave our souls a living hope That they should never die. To an inheritance divine, He taught our hearts to rise In uncorrupted, undefiled infancy. In the sky, saints by the power of God are kept Till the salvation come. We walk by faith as strangers here, But Christ shall call us home.—Com. (Other papers please copy.)

The famine in China is at the present time at its most critical stage, and thousands are dying from starvation. Though the relief workers are unceasing in their efforts to alleviate the sufferings of the stricken people, it is estimated that the death toll will reach a million before any of the early crops can be harvested. The appeal for aid by missionaries and others in the famine districts is most urgent and heart rending. Canada is endeavoring to raise one hundred thousand dollars as its part of the universal relief fund, and a very general effort is being made throughout the Dominion to reach this amount. When it is stated by the proper authorities that two cents will keep a person alive a day, that two dollars will save a whole family from starvation, it becomes possible for all classes to aid substantially this work of relief.

The Ministerial Association of Charlottetown under whose auspices this appeal is made, sincerely hopes that the citizens of Charlottetown and Prince Edward Island will generously and without delay respond to this request. Notices have been placed in several places of business throughout the city and Province, where donations may be left. Contributions from the city and any section of the Island, will be received and acknowledged through press by His Honor Lieut. Gov. Rogers, who has kindly consented to act as Treasurer of the Fund.

On behalf of the Ministerial Association, Charlottetown, H. E. Thomas, President, Z. L. Fash, Secretary. Charlottetown, P. E. I. March 20, 1911.

The 6th session of the P. E. I. Baptist Conference was held within the Baptist Church at Murray River on March 13th, 14th and 15th. The air weather, the completeness of preparation and the presence of twenty-five delegates contributed to the success of the entire occasion. During all the sessions Rev. E. P. Calder, the presiding chairman, presided with grace and discrimination. The good people of Murray River, led by their pastor, opened their hearts, homes and churches to us, making us welcome to one of the most slightly and delightful rural districts in all P. E. Island. As over half of the delegates were entertained at the Cook Hotel, the intervening time between the sessions was full of social hospitality which was much enjoyed. The Conference, which assembled at 7.30 in the Baptist Church, was in order by the pastor of the church, who extended a brief welcome. After the singing of hymn "Simply Trusting Day by Day," the reading of the first Chapter of St. John and prayer by Rev. Z. L. Fash, the chairman, Rev. E. P. Calder, preached an introductory sermon from 1st Tim. 6:12. The preacher in a most interesting discourse sounded a clear key-note. Session closed with an evangelistic service conducted by Rev. Z. L. Fash. Tuesday morning's session opened at 9.30. An inspiring devotional service was conducted by Deacon Arthur Simpson, after which the meeting organized for business. The roll called was read by the secretary, Rev. W. M. Field. Reports were given from eighteen churches showing that much good work has been done and that now with four new pastors settled on important fields the outlook was bright for further advancement. The regular committees were appointed. This includes a committee to cooperate with the convention, as a pastoral committee to look after a pastorate churches. The report of A. W. Sterns, provincial treasurer, was read and heartily discussed. It disclosed the fact that over half the amount allotted to the churches of our Province was yet to be contributed and that the various interests of our denomination depend for their efficient management on regular, systematic contributions of the churches. The afternoon session commenced at 2.30, with devotional service led by Rev. G. F. Camp. A feature of the afternoon session was the presentation of an excellent and stirring paper on "The Pastor in His Study," by Rev. R. O. Morse. A lengthy discussion followed. The remainder of the afternoon was given over to the W. M. A. S. In the evening Rev. E. P. Dresser preached a helpful sermon, after which an evangelistic service was conducted by Rev. W. M. Field. Wednesday morning an old-fashioned conference was held by Rev. G. F. Camp in which a large number participated. Wednesday afternoon an Ecclesiastical Council called by the Baptist Church of Murray River to advise in the ordination of their pastor, A. A. Gates, Lic., organized by choosing Rev. E. P. Calder Moderator and Rev. W. M. Field Clerk. After the credentials of messengers were presented, the Rev. R. O. Morse was appointed leading questioner. After hearing the statements of the candidate, his Christian experience, his call to the church, his views of Christian doctrine, the Council advised the church to proceed with his ordination program was under introductory services, Rev. G. F. Camp; sermon, Rev. Z. L. Fash; ordaining prayer, Rev. R. O. Morse; charge to the church, Rev. E. P. Calder; charge to candidate, Rev. E. P. Dresser, hand of fellowship, Rev. W. M. Field; Benediction, Rev. A. A. Gates. Conference closed after a vote of thanks to the entertaining church, etc.

WOMAN ESCAPES OPERATION

Was Cured by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Elwood, Ind.—"Your remedies have cured me and I have only taken six bottles of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I was sick three months and could not walk. I suffered all the time. The doctors said I could not get well without an operation, but I could hardly stand the pain in my sides, especially my right one, and down my right leg. I began to feel better when I had taken only one bottle of Compound, but kept on as was afraid to stop too soon."—Mrs. S. A. WILSON, 2728 N. B. St., Elwood, Ind.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has cured thousands of women who have been troubled with such ailments as displacements, inflammation, ulcerations, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, indigestion, and nervous prostration.

A pretty marriage was solemnized, on Feb. 25, 1911, at Cranbrook, B.C., when Miss Carrie Haslam, Belle Plaine, formerly of Springfield, P. E. I., became the wife of J. G. Abbott of Joffray, B. C. The bride and groom were unattended and immediately after the ceremony, left for their new home in Goffray, B. C. The many presents from Belle Plaine, Prince Edward Island and other places, bespeak the popularity of the couple.

The races on the harbor ice yesterday were pulled off most successfully, the conditions being generally favorable.

The three classes furnished good sport for a large crowd who assembled to witness the races and a number of close heats provided a good deal of excitement. This was especially so with the first and third heats of the 2.25 pace and the first heat of the 3.00 trot which were neck and neck all along the stretch.

The following is the summary: 2.25 PACE. Bonanza Prince, owned by T. G. Edgett..... 1 1 1 Baby Boy G. Chandler..... 2 2 2 Lena Wood, R. J. Steele..... 3 3 3 Best time, 2.11 1/2.

The following is from the Lincoln County Times, Davenport, Wash., Feb. 24th: Martin McLean, cashier of the Davenport National Bank, has received the appointment of National Bank Examiner for Washington by the Comptroller of the Currency. The appointment was made last Monday. Mr. McLean will succeed E. T. Wilson, recently resigned. Martin McLean is a comparatively young man and has a varied banking education, having risen from a clerk in a country bank to the cashier of Davenport National Bank. He has also held responsible positions in several of the larger city banks.

Mr. McLean was honored with the endorsement of all the leading banks in Seattle, Spokane, and other cities throughout the state, besides the business men of Davenport, and the strong backing of the state Senators. All Davenport rejoices in the high honor conferred on one of her citizens, yet it is with regret that we must lose Mr. McLean and his estimable family from our midst. With the appointment of Mr. McLean and the fact that Dr. F. H. Luce, also a former Davenport citizen, holding a similar position, would indicate that our city produces some pretty good timber.

(Mr. McLean above referred to is a son of Wm. and Mrs. McLean, St. Avar's, and received his first banking instruction in the Merchants' Bank of Prince Edward Island in this city. Mr. McLean's many relatives and friends will read with pleasure of his success.)

On Thursday evening, March 16th, a number of invited friends with Miss L. M. Montgomery were the guests of Rev. John and Mrs. Sterling at the manse in Cavendish. As Miss Montgomery, on account of the death of her grandmother, was about to leave her old home, it was thought a fitting occasion by her friends to express their great appreciation of the deep interest she had taken in all matters connected with the welfare of the community.

A suitable address was prepared, and presented by the Rev. John Sterling, her pastor, which spoke in high terms of her helpfulness in connection with the different departments of Church work in the congregation.

The annual meeting of the P. E. Island Temperance Alliance was held yesterday in the Y. M. C. A. parlors, with the president, Rev. H. E. Thomas, City, in the chair. Present were: J. A. Lawson, City, Secretary; Lt. Gov. Rogers, Prosecutors, Jenkins, Queen's, Mosher, Kings, Gough, Prince, Albert S. Wright, G. W. P. O. T.; Rev. E. S. Weeks, Mt. Stewart; Rev. Jenkins, City, and others.

In submitting his annual report, referred to the discussion in the Senate on the Bill forwarded by the Alliance which provided for the Prohibition of the Importation of Liquors into this Province. He quoted the opinion of Senator Ross who claimed the province was within its rights in asking such legislation.

He went on to say "In view of this, our Alliance will have the privilege of asking our Local Legislature to perform that which we sought for at Ottawa. There may be some question as to the propriety of inserting here one's own private conviction, but in any case I wish to declare that in my judgment we have reached a day when this Province should have absolute Prohibition, except in Sacramental, Mechanical and Medicinal cases, and the simplest way to bring it about would be to repeal Sec. 37 of our Act, which permits bona fide transactions in liquor. This whole question is laid before the Alliance by the Executive for its consideration. During the year an action brought against the Charlottetown Club considerably exercised our minds and the minds of the people generally, with the judgement of the court which was given in favor of the Club we have nothing here to do, but with the evidence adduced, and the facts in the case we have much to do. When it is shown that a volume of business in strong drink is transacted in this club, which is almost equal to that transacted at the ordinary licensed bar, it certainly becomes time for every sober minded citizen to awake, and if the offender of the law on a back street is placed in the common jail, then every lover of justice and fair play will demand that the practice of many businesses, professional and public men, to enjoy under the cover of a gentleman's club, all the privileges of a bar room should not longer be tolerated. This question also is presented by the ex-gation, as organist and secretary of the Woman's Missionary Society. Miss Montgomery in her own modest way briefly replied, thanking the friends for the appreciation expressed and the accompanying purse, and said she would always cherish fond recollections of her native place, and the friends that had so large a part in her life.

Complimentary remarks were made by Walter Simpson, who referred to the great interest Miss Montgomery had always taken in the "Cavendish Literary Society" and the help she had given towards making the meetings of interest and profitable.

He also paid a high compliment to her great literary genius which has given P. E. Island a place in the literary world and gotten world-wide recognition for her as an authoress. G. R. McNeill also made a few complimentary remarks.

The evening passed all too quickly enlivened with music and social chat, after which tea was served by the ladies. Miss Montgomery is for the present residing with her aunt, Mrs. John Campbell, at Park Corner.

Miss Montgomery will be much missed here, where she occupied so large a part in the life of the place, and her unselfish devotion exhibited in tenderly caring for her aged grandmother—till death broke up the home—will not soon be forgotten.

Despite the request of a year ago to be relieved of office, you did me the honor of re-appointment, which I appreciated deeply and for which I would render my thanks as well as for the courtesy and kindness which in my two years of office you have graciously shown.

Though in a few months I will be a citizen of another Province, I will still be interested in every detail of your work here, and all the help that prayer and sympathy and interest can give to you in a warfare in which there is no discharge I will give gladly.

H. E. THOMAS, President. After discussion section by section the president's report was adopted. This was followed by the appointment of several committees on different branches of work. The reports of the three inspectors present were received and the Alliance expressed itself as favorably impressed with their work, realizing the difficulties and hardships experienced by them in the performance of their duty.

At the evening session there was a good attendance. A number of subjects came up for discussion which will be placed before the Local Government today.
