Corns Stop Hurting, Then They Lift Out With Fingers

No pain or soreness! Corns and calluses just shrivel up and lift off—Try it!

A noted Cincinnati chemist discovered a new ether compound and called it freezeone and it now can be had in tiny bottles for a few cents from any drug store.

You simply apply a few drops of freezeone upon a tender corn or painful callus and instantly the soreness disappears, then shortly you will find the corn or callus so loose that you can just lift it off with the fingers. Really! No humbug! No pain, not a bit of soreness, either when applying freezeone or afterwards and it doesn't even irritate the skin.

Hard corns, soft corns or corns between the toes, also toughened calluses just shrivel up and lift off so easy. It is wonderful! Works like a charm. Keep it on the dresser.

RUSTICO—The annual meeting of the congregation of St. Mark's Church was held on Wednesday afternoon (Jan 28th.) with an attendance of four men and two ladies and the rector. The rector reiterated what he had already said at Milton in regard to appreciation of the kindnesses received and welcome given. The treasurer's report showed a small deficit with some more missionary monies to collect. Here again the duplex envelope system was adopted and it is hoped that the ready response will be given to the appeal for increased support of what may be termed the "extension work" of the Master's Kingdom. The following officers and delegates were elected:—Churchwardens, Messrs. E. W. Bulman and Wm. Duncan. Vestry—Messrs. James Murch, Howard McKay, Sam Nelson, Albert Craswell, Thos. Craswell, Edmund Carr; with E. W. Bulman secretary-treasurer. Cyril Toombs was reappointed caretaker and Wm. Duncan, sexton. Delegate to D. C. S.—Mr. James Murch; substitute Sam Nelson. Delegate to Synod.—Mr. Sam Nelson, substitute E. W. Bulman. (Patriot please copy.)

ANDREW—SCOTT WEDDING.

A very pretty wedding took place at 8 o'clock Wednesday evening, Jan 28th, 1920 at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. J. Scott, Marshfield, when their eldest daughter Florence Jean was united in marriage to Mr. Frederick W. Andrew of East Royalty, by Rev. G. C. Taylor, of Charlottetown, in the presence of a large number of invited guests. The bride looked charming in a dress of blue silk and gold beads. The groom was in a tuxedo. The ceremony was performed in the parlor leading on the arm of her father to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march rendered by Mrs. J. T. Ferguson. The young couple were unattended. After the ceremony any customary congratulations, the guests repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous repast was served. The large display of eloquent and costly wedding gifts testified to the unusual popularity of the contracting parties. The groom's gift to the bride was a handsome fur coat. The bride, previous to her marriage, was waited upon and presented with a beautiful chair from the Marshfield Presbyterian Congregation as an appreciation of her service as organist during the past eight years. The bride was one of Marshfield's most popular young ladies and will be much missed by her many friends, and also in musical circles in which she took a leading part. After an evening pleasantly spent the young couple left amidst the best wishes of their friends for their future home.
