Many Provincial friends sympathizing with Arthur E. Guild on the death of his mother Mrs George Washington Guild of Waterbury, Vermont, Mrs Moretown, Vermont, who were of Scotch and English ancestry, who leaves a husband and two sons, Arthur Ellsworth of Boston, Mass; and Franklin Warren of Waterbury, Vermont.

Among the visitors in this city yesterday were Rev John Macdonald, Kinkora, Rev. Ignatius McDonald, St. Teresas, Rev. Allan McDonald, Fort Augustus. Among the outward passengers were Rev L. C. McEwen, wife and family to Kearney, Nebraska, Miss Ida McCallum, Mt. Herbert, returning to Boston; Dr H. H. Smith, wife and family to Boston.

The attention of The Guardian has been directed to a series of petty robberies which have been taking place recently in the vicinity of Cumberland Street. The marauder has evidently been unable to resist the desires of a ravenous appetite for chicken and has been appropriating to his own use the property of others. If there are any more offenders of this nature the matter will be further proceeded with.

Pope W. Burke, Fulton, N. Y., who has been spending his holidays at his old home in Southport, leaves for Fulton, New York next week. While absent Mr Burke has been employed with the General Fire Extinguishing Company of Providence, R. I. (the largest company of its kind in the world) and may be classed as a successful Islander abroad. His brother Wilfrid, returns with him to take a position in the same company. All their friends join in wishing them every success in their chosen profession.
