EASTERN GUARDIAN

"HALE AND HEARTY AT NINETY-SIX." — The numerous friends of St. George's "Grand Old Man" Mr. Gregory MacLean, brother of the late Father MacLean of Souris, will be glad to learn that he is still mentally alert and interested in life though ninety-six years of age. In company with his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Frank MacPherson and grand daughter Mrs. Earl Burke of Charlottetown he motored to Souris last Sunday week to visit his brother and sister. With his remarkable evening he enjoyed the view of the old familiar farm homes and landscape beauties along the journey with the same zest as in the physically active period of his life.

Miss Edna MacDonald of Summerside has returned from a visit to Moncton. — S
