

October, November and Rheumatism

Paine's Celery Compound Has Never Once Failed to Cure the Dread Disease.

Sufferers from rheumatism, sciatica and neuralgia who have had experiences with our Canadian weather in October and November will tell you that they dread the uncertain, raw and capricious days of these two autumn months.

It is in October and November that the sharp twinges of pain, and long days and weeks of agony make thousands wish for death as a relief from suffering. October and November are the months most fatal to rheumatic mortals. It is the time when death reaps its richest harvest. Just here the statement cannot be too plainly submitted, that Paine's Celery Compound is the only reliable cure in the world from all forms of rheumatism, and that ninety-nine out of every one hundred who have died from the disease could have been cured if the great compound had been used in time.

The prime cause of rheumatism, as of so many other diseases, is a lack of nerve force. When this weakness of the nervous system gains ground, the digestive organs are deranged; the food remains too long in the stomach, it turns sour, and the resulting acid enters the blood. Nature tries to get rid of this acid through the urine or perspiration. The patient gets a slight cold in some way, and the acid cannot be expelled. There are chills, pain in the back, quickened pulse, coated tongue, constipation, extreme thirst, poor appetite and sediment-laden urine. So on the joints swell; usually the knees, elbows and wrists, and great suffering ensues. This is how rheumatism originates.

For long years it has been a recognized fact that celery freely eaten has given relief to rheumatic sufferers. Physicians now rejoice in the discovery of Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., the great physician, who gave the world and suffering humanity what is known as Paine's Celery Compound, a prescription which combines celery with other valuable vegetable remedies, the whole making up a perfect cure for agonizing rheumatism, sciatica, gout and neuralgia.

If you are a sufferer from rheumatism or kindred troubles your duty is plain. You must begin by furnishing the body with nervous energy as fast as you can, and get a richer and purer blood supply. There is no way known to medical men in which this restorative process can be so swiftly brought about as by using Paine's Celery Compound. In short, Paine's Celery Compound expels all poisons and acids from the blood; it builds up the system, regulates the nerves, increases strength and gives that true health that makes one feel happy and joyous.

Paine's Celery Compound is superior to all other medicines and pills as strength is better than weakness. If you suffer, follow the advice and example of thousands who have found a new life—use Paine's Celery Compound during October and November; it will banish your rheumatism and you will never have any return of the terrible disease.

TALMAGE'S SERMON.

A few cases where there are hundreds. Families keep them quiet to avoid the horrible conspiracy. Physicians suppress them through professional confidence. It is a very, very long roll that contains the names of those who died with baptis- m on their lips.

Still the crime rolls on, up through parlors, up through chandeliers with lights all ablaze and through the pe- cored corridors of clubrooms, out through busy exchanges where cash meets cash and down through all the haunts of sin, mingling with the rattling dice and cracking billiard balls, and the laughter of her who has forgotten the covenant of her God, and round the earth a seething, boiling surge flings its hot spray into the face of a long suffering God, and the ship captain curses his crew, and the hack driver his horse, and the traveler the stone that bruises his foot or the mud that soils his shoes, and the de- fective that hinders him to take the rail train. I arrange profane swearing a day, a day, two names for the same thing, as being one of the gigantic crimes of this land, and for its ex- tirpation it does seem as if it were about time for God to arise.

Then look for a woman at the evil of drunkenness. Whether you live in Wash- ington or New York, or Chicago or Cin- cinnati or Savannah or Boston or in any of the cities of this land, count up the saloons on that street as compared with the saloons five years ago, and see they are growing far out of proportion to the increase of the population. You people who are so precise and particu- lar, there should be some imprudence and rashness in attacking the rum traffic: will have your son come night piddled into your front door drunk, or your daughter will come home with her chil- dren because her husband has by strong drink been turned into a demoniac. The drink field has despoiled whole streets of good homes in our cities. Fathers, brothers, sons, on the funeral pyre of strong drink! Fasten tighter the victims! Sir up the flimsy! Ple on the corpse! More me, women and children for this sacrifice! Let us have whole generations on fire of evil habit, and at the sound of the cornet, flute, harp, soubret, psaltery, and dulcimer let all the people fall down and worship King Alcohol, or you shall be cast into fiery furnace under some political platform!

Others are ruined by the common and all destructive habit of treating custom- ers. And it is a treat on their coming to town, and a treat when the the pur- chases is made, and a treat as he leaves town. Others, to drown their troubles, submerge themselves with this worse trouble. Oh, the world is battered and bruised and blasted with growing evil! It is more and more entrenched and fortified. They have millions of dollars subscribed to moral and advance the alcoholic forces. They nominate and elect and govern the vast majority of officeholders of this country. On their side they have enlisted the mightiest political power of the centuries and behind them stand all the myrmidons of the net her world satania, apolyonic and diabolic. It is beyond all human effort to overthrow this Bastille of de- cayers or capture this Gibraltar of rum jugs. And while I approve of all human agencies of reform I would utterly de- spair if we had nothing else. But what cheers me is that our best troops are yet to come. If all hell is on our side. Now "Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered."

Then look at the impurities of these great cities. Ever and anon there are in the newspapers explosions of social life that make the story of Sodom quite respectable, "for such things," Christ says, "were more tolerable for Sodom and Gomorrah" than for the Chorazin and Bethsaida of greater light. It is no unusual thing in our cities to see men in high positions with two or three families, or refined ladies willing solemnly to marry the very swine of society if they be wealthy. The Bible all aflame with denunciation against an impure life, but many of the American ministry uttering not one point blank word against this inquiry lest some old liber- tine throw up his church pew. Machi- nery organized in all the cities of the United States and Canada by which to put yearly in the grinding mill of this iniquity thousands of the unsuspecting of the country farm-houses, one pro- cess confessing in the courts that she had supplied the infernal market with 150 victims in six months. Oh, for 500 newspapers in America to swing open the door of this lazar house of social corruption! Exposure must come be- fore extirpation.

The evil is overshadowing all our cities. By some these immorities are called peccadilloes, gallantries, eccen- tricities, and are relegated to the realms of jocularity, and few efforts are being made against them. God bless the "White Cross" movement, as it is called—an organization making a mighty assault on this evil God forward the tracts on this subject distributed by the religious tract societies of the land, God help parents in the great work they are doing in trying to start their chil- dren with pure principles! God bless all legislators in their attempt to prohibit this crime!

But is this all? Then it is only a question of time when the last vestige of purity and home will vanish out of sight. Human arms, human pens, human voices, human talents are not sufficient. I begin to look up. I listen for artillery rumbling down the sapphire boulevards of heaven. I watch to see if in the morn- ing light there be not the flash of des- cending scimitars. Oh, for God! Does it not seem time for his appearance? Is it not time for all hands to cry out, "Let God arise, and let his enemies be scattered?"

I got a letter asking me if I did not think that the earthquake in one of our cities was the Divine chastisement on that city for its sin. That letter I answered by saying that if all our American cities got all the punishment they deserve for their horrible impurities the earth would long ago have crack-d, open- ing crevices transcontinental and taken down all our cities so far under that the tip of our church spires would be 500 feet below the surface. It is one of the Lord's mercies that we have not been consumed.

Not only are the affairs of this world so a-twist, a jangle and racked that there seems a need of the Divine ap- pearance, but there is another reason. Have you not notice that in the history of this planet God turns a leaf about every 2,000 years? God turned a leaf, and this world was fitted for human residence. About 2,000 more years passed along, and God turned a leaf and it was the deluge. About 2,000 more years passed on, and it was the Nativity. Almost 2,000 more years passed by and he will probably soon turn another leaf. What it shall I cannot say. It may be the demolition of all these monstrosities of turpitude and the establishment of righteousness in all the earth. He can do it and he will do it. I am as con- fident as if it were already accomplished. How easily he can do it my last sug- gests. It does not ask God to hurl a great thunderbolt of his power, but just to rise from the shore on which He sits. Only that will be necessary. "Let God arise!"

It will be no exertion of omnipotence. It will be no bending or bracing for a mighty lift. It will be no sending down of heaven or rambling war chariots. He will only rise. Now he is sitting in the majesty and patience of his reign. He is from his throne watching the mustering of all the forces of blasphemy and drunkenness and iniquity and fraud and Sabbath breaking, and when they have done their worst and are most surely or- ganized he will bestir himself and say: "My enemies have denied me long enough, and their cup of iniquity is full. I have given them all opportunities for repentance. This dis- cussion of practices is ended, and the fifth of the good shall be tried no longer." And now God be- gins to rise, and what mountains give- away under his right foot I know not; but, standing in the full radiance and grandeur of his nature, he looks this way and that, and how his enemies are scattered! Blasphemers, white and dumb
