

NEWS of the WORLD in PICTURES

BRICKLAYING MADE EASY—The "first real improvement in five centuries in the method of laying bricks" is demonstrated in Montgomery, Ala., by coed Kitty McGlynn. The device, invented by engineers Paul H. Sommers and John S. Hodgson, is said to speed bricklaying four times the normal pace. Acceptance by the building industry could mean great savings in construction costs — especially in the building of low-cost homes.

It has been reported that Lady Bridgett Poulett, London social queen, has been married secretly for 15 months to Colombian diplomat Louis Robledo. "We have tried to keep the marriage secret for family reasons," Lady Bridgett was quoted. She told the newspaper she had been married since June 22, 1948.

Beauty at the battle between Queen's University and University of Toronto football squads includes the U. of T.'s new drum major, Stella McCord, shown strutting her stuff as the game commenced.

Harold Lusher, 22, of Port Credit, Ont., was killed when his taxi skidded off highway near Oakville, Ont., and snapped off six trees. Provincial police said the taxi was being driven by 15-year-old Kathleen Boyar of Lakeview, Ont. They said the cab had skidded on wet pavement. Miss Boyar escaped with a shaking up.

Sixteen-year-old Gordon Graham (above), of Alderwood, Ont., has been acquitted on charge of manslaughter in death of his father on Aug. 5. The jury had deliberated nearly five hours before returning a verdict of not guilty. The boy had been charged with the manslaughter of his father, Douglas Graham, 38, who was shot in his home with a .22 rifle he had given the youth for Christmas. In his defence young Graham claimed that he had seized the weapon to protect himself during a family argument, that he didn't know the gun was loaded until it had gone off accidentally.

Premier Henri Queuille of France, has resigned as a result of the problems in wages and prices growing out of devaluation of the franc. Queuille has held together a coalition of Radical Socialists (Conservatives), Socialists and members of the Communist Movement Republican Populaire for 13 months, the longest life of any French government since the Fourth Republic was formed after the war. Queuille threw in the sponge when Daniel Mayer, Socialist labor minister, wrote what was described by well-informed sources as a virtual ultimatum demanding wage increases for labor well beyond what Queuille was prepared to grant.

Donald J. Conley, a 28-year-old race-track groom from Windsor, Ont., died in Toronto, and two others were injured when Little Action, a 30-to-1 shot, bolted and plowed through the rail during the fourth race at Long Branch, Ont. The three horsemen, standing at the outer rail, were struck by a flying two-by-four scuffling. George Coady, 46, of Montreal, also a groom, suffered head bruises and face cuts, while William Jewell, a 16-year-old stable boy, also from Windsor, received a cut chin and a bruised left knee. Jockey Robert Fisher was injured. As the horse bolted for the rail, he jumped clear.

CHINESE STEWARDESSES FOR CANADIAN PLANES: A new and charming addition to the ranks of Canadian air lines stewardesses are these three Chinese girls, slated for duty on the Canadian Pacific Air Lines flights from Vancouver to Tokyo and Hong Kong. Shown being welcomed at Vancouver airport by their Canadian colleagues, the girls will soon shed their picturesque Oriental costumes for C. P. A. stewardess uniforms, and will share duties with Canadian girls on the 6,500-mile run, one Chinese and one Canadian girl to each plane. On the C.P.A.'s Australian service, Australian and Canadian stewardesses share duties. Left to right are Lorraine Ngu, Shanghai; Minerva Dunkerley, Vancouver; Joyce Lam, Hong Kong; Barbara Aycliffe, Fort Albert, B. C.; and Gloria Woo, Hong Kong. A fourth Chinese lass, Dulcis Hall, of Hong Kong, arrived in Vancouver earlier.

RED CAPTIVES COME HOME — Two American college boys who had been held prisoner by the Russians in the Soviet Zone of Germany for almost a month are greeted by parents as they arrive by air in New York. Left to right: Mrs. Edward Oelsner and her son, Warren, 20, of Oyster Bay, N. Y.; Peter Sellers, 19, of Radnor, Pa., and his father, Lester H. Sellers.

At the R.C.A.F. station in Trenton, Ont., government representatives of United Kingdom, Australia and New Zealand, gathered to present hand-wrought memorial gates to Canada to commemorate the men to fight in war against Germany and Japan. In return the R.C.A.F. presented Sterling silver plaques to the air force representatives of three commonwealth countries. Here Air Marshal W. A. Curtis, chief of the air staff, R.C.A.F., is seen as he presented plaque to Lord Tedder, marshal of the Royal Air Force.

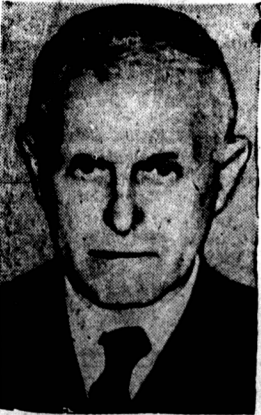

Prof. Lucien Gravel (above), Laval university chemist, assembled a simple alarm-clock mechanism during a 10-minute court recess at Quebec on Wednesday. Then, before a tense courtroom, he demonstrated how an airplane could be blown up in flight at a designated moment by a time bomb.

Three happy Yanks, who had a major share in beating the Brooklyn Dodgers 4 to 3 in third World Series game played at Ebbets Field, in New York, are shown in their dressing room after the game. Left to right: Johnny Mize, whose pinch single at the top of the ninth inning drove in two runs to break one-all deadlock for the Yanks; Pitcher Joe Page, whose great hurling gave the Yanks enough edge to beat out the Dodgers 4 to 3, and second baseman Gerry Coleman who drove in the Yankees' fourth and, as the outcome proved, winning run.

This youthful farmette, pretty blonde Lella Howley, 17, of Caledonia, is seen here with her prize Holstein calf she raised. Lella, a member of Haldimand County Calf club, had calf on exhibit at two-day fair held recently at Caledonia. The youthful farmette raised animal in spare time, as she works regularly in dairy office.

Professor Barker Fairley (above) head of the German department of the University of Toronto, has been barred from U.S., where he was to deliver a series of lectures at Bryn Mawr college, Bryn Mawr, Pa. This was disclosed by Dr. Katharine E. McBride, president of the college. As a result, she said, Dr. Fairley's lectures have been cancelled. U. S. immigration authorities gave no reason for refusing to let him enter the country. Dr. Fairley, in a written statement said he had been denied a hearing before a board of special inquiry.

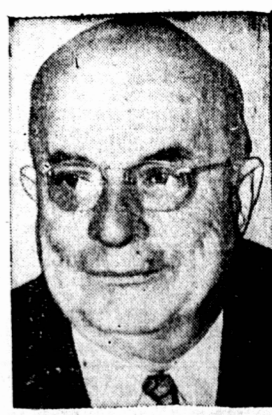

Canada will soon be host to Pandit Nehru, Prime Minister of India. Mr. Nehru is scheduled to arrive on October 23 in Ottawa, where he will be received by Prime Minister Louis St. Laurent. Following his official visit in the Capital, the Indian statesman will return to the U. S. and later visit Vancouver before going home. A close political and personal friend of the late Mahatma Gandhi, with whom he is shown in serious discussion (far left), Pandit Nehru has played a great part in the achievement of India's nationhood. In May, 1949, Mr. Nehru was in London where he visited George Bernard Shaw (second from left). The gift of delicious Indian Mangoes he brought with him were much appreciated by "G. B. S." During a recent visit to Kashmir Pandit Nehru took time out to play billiards (right centre). A great believer in relaxation, he rides and swims frequently. Always fond of children, the Indian Prime Minister is shown in a charming study with the small daughter of Sir Archibald and Lady Nye. Sir Archibald is the United Kingdom High Commissioner to India.

The United States government has backed Kaiser-Frazer plans for a new low-priced automobile with a $34,400,000 loan to the company. The Reconstruction Finance Corporation announced the big loan with the stated purpose of helping K-F complete their line of cars. The concern, a post-war venture of big-builder Henry F. Kaiser, is reported to have asked the funds to tool up for 1951 models. The R.F.C. said the loan will run 10 years. Interest will be four per cent. annually.