Those who want work of any kind or are looking for help of any kind should send their names and addresses with all particulars or call at The Guardian Employment and Information Bureau, New Prowse Block, Charlottetown, Telephone 1826. Those who do not desire to advertise will please send 25 cents with their request, which amount will be returned to them on application, less postage if sent by mail, if they do not get what they want.

ALTHOUGH the weather of the past few days has been delightfully fair and mild there has not been enough change of wind to loosen up the ice pack in the Straits sufficiently to enable the S. S. Minto to break away from the place where she is blockaded near Picton Island. At latest advices yesterday no change was reported in her position. The S. S. Stanley which is in Georgetown ready to start for Picton will probably not do so till the Minto is released.

THE annual meeting of the Cherry Valley Rifle Club was held at the residence of Capt. Jenkins on March 4th. The prizes were awarded to those who had won in the annual shooting held in November, 1906. The thanks of the Club was tendered by a unanimous vote to the Captain for the great interest which he had taken in the welfare of the Club. He was then re-elected. W. W. Murphy was re-elected Lieutenant, W. O. Judson, 2nd Lieutenant, and George W. Beers, Secretary. The thanks of the Club was tendered D. Nicholson, Charlottetown, for the valuable prize which he had given to be shot for last season.

Advance Showing of the New Ideas in Shirt Waists

TODAY THE initial showing of Charlottetown's finest range of shirt waists will be made, in our second floor annex. Of course we have many waists still to come, but the lot now here is worthy of your attention and we shall be very pleased to have you look through it.

This season practically all the white lawn waists come in buttoned back styles, with short or three quarter sleeves—they exhibit many variations of style in trimming and finish, and the prices range, so far, from 95c. to $2.45.

The coloured parake waists as a rule are made in button fronts, with long sleeves, and the prices run from 95c. up.

Two Notable Designs

A beautiful line of waists made of fine net over Javan taffeta, trimmed with val insertions, and edgings, yoke edged with handsome lace applique. $7.75

Japanese taffeta, with in cream, with yoke made of banding of val, three quarter sleeve, finished with val insertion and edge. $3.50

Monday's Apron Bargain

Too late for the White Carnival comes this lot of handsome lawn aprons—they were especially bought for the great sale to which we refer to, and hence the quantity is greater than for ordinary stock. The factory was late in delivery and the goods are occupying space that we want for something else. Aprons with bibs, aprons without, aprons trimmed with embroidery and aprons plain, aprons of every good sort of white lawn, all fresh and new.

300 Cases OF Spring Goods!

A record initial lot—a big, very big lot of goods for any sized store in any sized town! It should act as a gentle reminder to the people of this Island that the biggest business—and one that's constantly growing—is THIS one. Buying largely means buying cheaply. And our well known ability to sell cheaply is to a great extent a result of large buying. And besides, we believe in a great many sales at a small profit rather than the reverse.

Stylish Spring Mantles

ELEGANT advance styles in spring mantles arrived yesterday—not our entire stock by any means, but quite a number—and every garment a gem. Styles include swell short coats—box and semi-fitted styles—in plain cloths and tweed effects—long Tourist and Automobile garments in checks, shepherds plaids, overchecks, tweeds, etc., etc.

Elegant Raincoats

From the best makers in dark mixtures, tweeds, fawns, olives, and greys. Full and three-quarter length garments in all the different fabrics.

Stylish Skirts

Skirts of every description—skirts from famous makers—tailor made garments; exquisitely finished showing in every line the expert workmanship that produced them. Stylish models in red venetian with black braid trimmings—in navy—in tweeds of every sort and in black. Waistbands and lengths in every wanted size.

Muslin Blouses

A small but exquisitely beautiful lot of the celebrated "Salem" make blouses—mostly high grade garments—such as will be appreciated by the best trade. The latest styles—short sleeves, buttoned at back, in elegant exclusive designs, elegantly embroidered.

Tweed Dress Fabrics

AN EXTENSIVE range of exceedingly stylish spring dress tweeds came yesterday and in value compares favorably with offerings of other years. Colorings include many rich dark effects as well as a splendid range of medium light and home-spun weaves. Mostly fifty-four inch widths.

Handsome Embroideries

About two thousand yards of Lundsone new embroideries and insertions headings, flouncings, etc., are now awaiting your inspection. Many entirely new designs in both muslin and cambric.
