Hardy-MacCaull Wedding

The Presbyterian Church in Tyne Valley was the setting for a pretty summer wedding on Wednesday evening at 7 o'clock when Audrey Frances, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter MacCaull, Ellerslie, was united in marriage to Edgar Stanley Hardy, son of Mr. Wilbur Hardy and the late Mrs. Hardy. The church was beautifully decorated with gaily colored streamers, snap dragons and lighted by candles. The bride stood under an arch of greenery with flowers, while Rev. W.A. Young performed the double ring ceremony.

To the strains of the wedding march played by Mrs. Kaye Hansen, Summerside, the bride entered on the arm of her father, by whom she was escorted. She wore a corsage of Starlette roses. Upon their return they will live in Ellerslie.

The groom was supported by Mr. Robert MacCaull, brother of the bride, and Messrs Harold Phillips and Sinclair MacCaull ushered the guests to their seats.

During the signing of the register, Miss Patricia Clark sweetly sang "My Promise to Me." Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, where the bride party was assisted in receiving the guests by Mrs. Peter MacCaull and Mrs. Ivan Hardy. The bride's mother wore a floor length gown of turquoise blue crepe with a corsage of Dream roses; and the groom's grandmother, Mrs. E. A. Hardy, was attired in black taffeta with black and gold accessories and a corsage of Killarney white roses.

The rooms were artistically decorated to give a pink and white effect and the bride's table was lighted with tapers and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake. Tea was poured by Mrs. (Dr.) J. A. Stewart and Mrs. Henry Muirart. Assisting in serving were Misses Phyllis Woodside, Miss Wilma MacNevin, Mrs. Harold Phillips, Mrs. Erwin Dennis, Miss Melba MacCaull and Miss Millicent Stewart.
