CALEDONIAN GATHERING

Next Wednesday, August 25th, the annual gathering of the Clans will take place on the grounds of the Charlottetown Driving Park Association.

Caledonian Club Day, an annual institution for any year, is with good reason regarded as the great sport and social event of the year and is always looked forward to with pleasure.

The unwavering popularity of the Scottish Gathering is not founded alone upon the excellence of its sports and other attractions; the aims and objects of the Caledonian Club, under whose auspices it is held, charity and benevolence, are never lost sight of in this charitable province of ours.

Next Wednesday's gathering promises to be a large as well as an enjoyable one as more than ordinary preparation has been made for it.

MR. LEA'S MEETING AT TRYON

The Commissioner of Agriculture, Hon. W. M. Lea, very nearly met his Waterloo on Thursday night. He planned a big coup to put it all over the disgruntled Liberals and dissatisfied farmers generally and for the purpose selected as his ground, Tryon, the poll which gave him his largest majority and which he naturally expected would rally to his support against his critics and alleged detractors.

Perhaps the most interesting interlude in the proceedings was when Mr. D. M. McDonald convicted the Patriot, out of the mouth of the Commissioner, of misrepresenting the government's tax policy. Referring to the editorial in the Guardian dealing with the tax of $80. imposed upon Mr. McPherson, Mr. McDonald asked whether such a tax was possible.

A HITCH IN NORTH YORK.

Efforts of various kinds have been made to persuade Mr. R. W. E. Burnaby, the U. F. O. candidate opposing Hon. MacKenzie King in North York to retire from the field in order to allow the Liberal leader to secure the seat Mr. Burnaby positively declines to do so and the election of Mr. MacKenzie King in that riding is becoming a very doubtful proposition.

LITTLE CAUSES OFT.

Like "Fuzzy-Wuzzy," the Poles are good fighting men. For hundreds of years they have fought for freedom. Fighting is in their blood. Many of them would rather fight than eat. It was the love of adventure which lured them to outer boundaries, and brought the Russians upon them.

CURRENT COMMENT

A terse saying credited to the great Napoleon was that "rascality has its limits; stupidity is boundless." This truism is exemplified, not in Liberalism itself as an abstract quality, but in its party performances, and in the latter aspect perhaps more pronounced than in the former.

After a long rest the Hon. MacKenzie King has ventured to launch some tariff utterances. The old Liberal platform of free trade he has at last been constrained to let go by the board. The protectionist views of the Hon. W. S. Fielding have prevailed, and the Ottawa Conference declarations are placed in reserve, possibly to be used later, at a convenient season, in the West.

Then he cites the precedent of Sir Wilfrid Laurier in 1911, when the celebrated Reciprocity pact with the United States was an active question, dissolving the House and going to the people, as a cogent argument in favor of a present appeal to the people.

What is it you are wavering between? Dust and ashes and a crown of glory that fadeth not away. In our right hand is Christ, heaven, and an immortality of blessedness; on your left hand is disobedience, rebellion, discontent, remorse, despair and an immortality of misery.
