REPAIRED SPINE - - AFTER 46 DAYS

CAPE TOWN, Feb. 20—A man who had his spine "pulled back into place" after a motorcar accident has made a remarkable recovery here.

He is E. M. Jeffers, secretary of the Eastern Provinces Trades Council. On arrival in Cape Town recently by airliner, he had to be taken from the airplane to the ambulance by disconnecting the seat from the machine and carrying him on it. Mr. Jeffers was suffering from "paralysis and a clot of blood on the spine" as result of a motor crash.

For 46 days he lay in hospital at Port Elizabeth in great pain and eventually it was decided that he must be removed to Cape Town. The day after his arrival he was operated on by two doctors who successfully manipulated the spine into position. He was able to get up two days later.

There will be no permanent injury but the patient will require further massage to keep in shape.

ANY DAY A FISH DAY

Canadian Stars Will Appear On London Boards

(By I. Norman Smith Canadian Press Staff Writer).

LONDON, Feb. 21,—(CP)— Marie Tempest is opening a new play at the Haymarket Theatre—"Mary Goes to See." In 1902 she played there in a revival of "Castle" and it was there she created the part of Janet Fraser in "The First Mrs. Fraser" which proved so successful.

The play will be of interest to Canadians as the second appearance of Carla Lehmann of Winnipeg. Miss Lehmann was in J.B. Priestley's "People at Sea" but that play didn't meet with the approval of that author's "Time and the Conways" and "I Have Been Here Before," two leading successes of the year.

"Mary Goes to See" produced by Campbell Gullan, finds Dame Marie as "Mary" living a quiet life in England until her brother's family gets in a mess in Connecticut which she goes over to clear up.

Dame Marie Tempest is 71 and celebrated her golden jubilee nearly three years ago. London is in a mood to keep on adoring the popular veteran and it may be that Carla Lehmann's second run will be a long one.

The third Gielgud play of the season "The Three Sisters" opened at the Queen's Theatre Jan. 28 with Gielgud taking the part of the middle-aged Col. Vershinin, wearing a pince-nez and beard. The Tchekov work is in the hands of Producer Michel Saint Denis who will be remembered in Canada as an adjudicator for the Drama Festival.

With Gielgud is Michael Redgrave, Peggy Ashcroft, Carol Goodner, Angela Baddeley and Marie Wright. Gwen Ffrangcon-Davies who played with Gielgud in the long run of Richard of Bordeaux, is also in this production.

Raymond Massey comes back to London about March 31 to play in "Idiot's Delight." He is to produce and act in the London showing of the Pulitzer prize play that won further fame in New York for Alfred Lunt and Lynn Tontanne. Tamara Geva, young Russian actress who has been successful in America, will play opposite Mr. Massey. It is said Tamara Geva is delaying taking up an important Hollywood contract to make this London appearance.

Talking of the value of a great exchange of plays and actors between England and America, Mr. Massey recently stressed that close attention must be paid to the difference between the two audiences: "In America the Theatre is an integral part of the people's lives, whereas here most people go to a play not through force of habit but for special festive occasions.

The D'Oyly Carte Company has resumed a six weeks season of Gilbert and Sullivan at Golders Green Hippodrome, causing half a dozen English newspapers to comment on the combination of hilarity and good sense which has retained for these musicals a unique popularity. Each critic tried to place his finger on the reason of their immortality— and each found a different secret.

Eugene O'Neill's "Mourning Becomes Electra" has been showing to popular price audiences for the first time in London and to mixed feelings. Val Gielgud, brother to John and prominent in London's entertainment circles, found it "intolerable turgidity of expression of the increasingly obvious."

Celebrating its 50th birthday, the London Star stopped to think about the stage highlights of a half-century ago: Tree was appearing at the Haymarket in "Partners"; Forbes-Robertson at the Lyceum in "A Winter's Tale"; H.M.S. Pinafore was the rage at the Savoy; "Dorothy" was a great musical at the Prince of Wales with Marie Tempest; pantomimes were all over the place.

BIRTHS EXCEEDS DEATHS

VICTORIA —(CP)— Births exceeded deaths in British Columbia by about 3,000. Altogether, 12,254 births were registered as against 7,211 deaths, but among the births were about 2,000 Doukobor born in previous years but not registered before.

"TRY TO GRASP THE OTHER PERSON'S POINT OF VIEW" SAYS DALE CARNEGIE

Author of the famous book "HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE"

① "Any psychologist will tell you not to condemn people who disagree with you. If you do, you will find yourself becoming like the old Quaker who said to his wife: 'Everyone is queer except thee and me—and sometimes I think thee is a little queer, too!'
"Remember that there are two sides to every question."

② "There is always a reason why men and women think and act the way they do. But, to discover it, you have to put yourself in the other person's place.
"The ability to do that is rather rare. That is why those who possess it acquire a reputation for exceptional skill in handling human relationships."

③ "There is no better way to acquire that skill than in dealing with children. Children look at everything in a way of their own.
"Next time your boy wants to build a bonfire on the front lawn, for instance, don't just order him to 'quit that foolishness!' "

④ "Instead you might say something like this: 'Bonfires are a lot of fun. I like to build them myself. But they are out of place and dangerous here. Some day we'll find a safe place and I'll help you to build a real fire.'
"What a difference that kind of technique makes!"

HAVE YOU SMOKED A TURRET LATELY?

IT would be a funny world if everybody agreed on everything. They never will, of course, and that is why there will always be many brands of cigarettes from which to choose. But, because Turrets please so many other smokers who have definite ideas of what they want, Turrets may please you, too. Turrets, you know, are made from fine Virginia tobaccos in an original and unique blend. And for your convenience, there's a handy pocket calendar on the back of every package. VARIETY CONCERT AND DRAWING FOR PRIZES AT LOT 7

A Variety Concert was held in St. Mark's Church, Lot 7, on Wednesday, February 16th., in aid of the Church. The entertainment consisted of two parts. The first "A Burton Social Evening", featured the local talent of Burton and vicinity, paying a social call at a typical Burton home. Each of the visitors, in turn, responding to the invitation of Mrs. Wilfrid Dalton, the hostess, and Mr. Bennett Howard, the host, performed according to his or her own particular talent and delighted the large audience present with song, recitation, dialogues, stories, step-dancing and instrumental music of various kinds.

The second part was a screamingly funny farce entitled "Nobody's Crazy Now". There was good dramatic talent displayed in its presentation. This part of the programme literally "brought down the house." A very interesting feature of evening's entertainment was the drawing for prizes in the Grand Lottery, postponed from December 15th, last. The following tickets were drawn by little Miss Loraine Howard in the presence of the parish trustees:

First prize: A 1938 Philco Radio, donated by Mr. Frank Doyle of Boston, Mass., won by Mrs. Michael Doyle of Glengarry, P. E. I., ticket number 146.

Second prize: Parker Pen and Pencil Set, donated by Redding Bros., Charlottetown, won by Mrs. John J. Dalton, Burton, Lot 7, ticket Number 4134.

Third Prize: Bed Spread, donated by Prowse Bros., Charlottetown, won by Hon. Peter McDonald, Rumford, Maine, ticket Number 416.

Fourth Prize: Gentleman's Sweater donated by Moore and McLeod, Charlottetown, won by Patrick Doyle, 23 Stewart St., Charlottetown, ticket Number 3189.

Fifth Prize: End Table donated by Dr. J. E. Blanchard, Charlottetown, won by Master Pat McDonald, 204 Fitzroy Street, Charlottetown, ticket Number 2748.

VERNON RIVER WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

The February meeting of the Vernon River Women's Institute was held at the home of Miss Rose Foster on Tuesday evening 8th. Eight members and three visitors were present. Recession In U. S. Is Not Felt Here Convention Told

TORONTO, Feb. 21—"Our results have proved that the conditions disturbing the United States for the past five months will not affect you in the year to come."

This was the definite statement of R.H. Langlois, treasurer of Tip Top Tailors Limited who was one of the speakers to outline Canadian conditions to a four day convention of Tip Top Tailors store managers which just concluded here.

In making his forecast for the year, Mr. Langlois said that business of the company during the first six weeks of 1938 showed a healthy increase over the same period one year ago, this in spite of the fact that 1937 volume of business was one of the largest in the company's history.

"Intelligent aggressiveness in gaing after sales is the difference between an order-taker and a salesman," said President David Dunkelman in welcoming the convention. He warned that manufacturers, this year, more than ever would be fighting more aggressively for the consumer's dollar.

The recession in the United States, Mr. Dunkelman felt was due to large inventories purchased in anticipation of further inflation and labour troubles.

To-day the average well-dressed man needs at least five suits, said A M. Talbot, company sales manager, with navy blue again a necessity for "dress up" wear. For business the more conservative patterns were being favoured, while loose fitting, comfortable tweeds are essential for holidays or leisure periods. Rounding out the well balanced wardrobe should be the formal "tails" and a sports ensemble.

Approximately 50 store managers, from as far west as the Pacific Coast and as far east as Sydney were in attendance during the four day session.

SUCCESS WOMEN'S INSTITUTE

Success W. I. Grahams Road met Tuesday evening, Feb. 15th, at the home of Miss Margaret MacLean. Meeting opened with Creed, followed by the minutes and Roll Call was answered by eight members. There were also five visitors present. Business arising out of the minutes was the making up of the Orphanage Quilt. There were no bills to be paid. It was decided to send a variety box to a family in the district. (Program) Questionnaire on Legislation was filled in and a Contest was put on by Miss Annie MacLeod. One membership fee was paid. Collection was taken amounted to 50c. Meeting closed. The March meeting to be held at the home of Mrs. Bert MacKay, Roll call an "Irish Joke". A dainty lunch was served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. McKinnon.

Maritimes To Receive New Export Benefit

General Motors to Route Increasing Share of Antipodean Traffic through Canadian Ports—

OSHAWA, Ontario—February 21—The intention of General Motors to divert a large share of its Export traffic through Canadian Maritime ports of Halifax and Saint John is announced by J.A. Lane, Export Manager of General Motors of Canada.

Whereas in the past, General Motors care for Australia and New Zealand have been shipped through the Port of New York, a recent decision will greatly increase the number which will be diverted and routed through Maritime Ports.

This move, Mr. Lane stated, is no experiment, but may be taken as an indication of a trend of the General Motors policy. Already General Motors uses Saint John and Halifax for its shipments to the British Isles and the British West Indies, and fresh impetus will be given Canadian shipping with the acquisition by Halifax and Saint John of a share of the Antipodean trade.

This policy will materially benefit traffic on Canadian Railways and further, means considerable additional employment for Maritime Ports.

W. R. MACDONALD, 14 YEARS WITH WEST KOOTENAY, PASSES

William R. MacDonald, master mechanic for the West Kootenay Power and Light company at South Slocan for 14 years, died in Kootenay Lake General hospital Friday afternoon after an illness of about a year. He was 53 years of age.

Before joining the employ of the company he was interested in mining at Phoenix, and was with the Granby Smelting company at Grand Forks. Born in Prince Edward Island, Mr. MacDonald came to British Columbia about 30 years ago, and was well known throughout the district.

He is survived by his wife, four sons, Roy in eastern Canada, David, Allan and Gordon at home, one daughter, Betty, at home, one brother, Gordon MacDonald at Coleman, Alta., and one sister, Mrs. Herdman McLeod at Mercole, Alta.

Friends from Trail, South Slocan and many other district points as well as from Nelson completely filled Trinity United church Monday afternoon when funeral services were held for William Russell MacDonald, master mechanic of the West Kootenay Power and Light company at South Slocan, who died Friday afternoon in Kootenay Lake General hospital.

At the church Rev. J. A Donnell conducted the services while at the graveside, the Masonic lodge, led Dr. C. E. Bradshaw, took the service. The Masons attended in a body. Hymns sung by the congregation were "Lead, Kindly Light" and "Abide With Me." Floral offerings numbered nearly 100 pieces, and a special conveyance was necessary from church to cemetery.

Pallbearers were: Messrs. G. Thompson, J. E. Carter, W. Shave, W. W. Bennett, W. T. Fotheringham and J. H. Jerome.

Besides his wife and family, Mr. Macdonald is survived by his mother, one brother and four sisters, living in Prince Edward Island.

TRIBUTE FROM P. E. ISLAND

The passing of the late William Russell Macdonald so vividly and fittingly portrayed above was most keenly felt by his many relatives and friends in Prince Edward Island.

Born at Peters Road in the year 1885, he was the eldest of the family of the late David Macdonald and Mrs. Macdonald, Peter Road, where the bereaved and sorrowing mother and Roy, a son of deceased resides.

In our brief tribute to the late Mr. Macdonald, we can truly say that his life was highly exemplary—one whose good qualities and high moral character were well known and appreciated in the Community. Leaving home for the West at an early age, after trying out several centres en route, he finally arrived in British Columbia. Here he found his ideal field of action. His marked energy and ability soon brought him into prominence, and amid the industrial activities of B. C., then in early formation, he found his ambition fulfilled. His adaptation to such conditions caused him to rise rapidly to positions of responsibly and in due time he attained the enviable position of Master Mechanic as already stated.

Besides the sorrowing mother and his son Roy there is one brother, George A. Macdonald, Peters Road. There are also four sisters, Mrs. Willard McLure, Murray Harbor North, Mrs. Samuel Gillis and Mrs. Chester Reynolds, Murray River and Mrs. Margaret Higginbotham, Cambridge. The rest of the family whose names are fully mentioned in the Western News attached, reside in the West.

The deep sympathy of friends in this Community is extended to the bereaved family.
