An Adventure in Verse

met a young lady quite late,
Whose clothes and style were right up to date.

She had everything,
Could dance and could sing,
But, the seams of her stockings weren't straight.

Her name was "Miss Marjorie Nookit",
When I saw her first, I said "look-it,
She has grace, she has poise
But she's shunned by the boys

'Cause the seams of her stockings are crooked".

But, "Kaysers", so sheer and so light,
Would abolish this unwelcome sight,

For the Mir-O-Kleer way
Would then save the day
And her seams would always come right.

SMART SEAGULL

VICTORIA—Feb. 18—A seagull dines daily with Mrs. Margaret Salt at her office in the Victoria courthouse, knocking on the window with its beak, to announce its arrival for food.

One summons is usually enough. The window is opened and the gull is given a piece of bread, three times a day. When other seagulls are around, it does not rap for food until after they leave.

FINE SCOTCH CONCERT AT P.W.C. HALL

Variety Program Presented By P. E. I. Highland Pipe Band Greatly Enjoyed.

A fair sized audience, but not nearly as large as the excellent program warranted, attended the Scotch variety concert, presented in Prince of Wales College Hall last night by the Pipe Band of the Highland Regiment. The program, under direction of Mr. James Calder, included pipe selections, Scotch dances, vocal solos and a sketch, "The Relief of Lucknow." It was presented under the distinguished patronage of Col. the Hon. George D. DeLisle, Lieutenant Governor, the Premier Hon. Thane A. Campbell, and His Worship Mayor E. A. Foster.

Each number on the program was heartily applauded by the audience and artists were heartily encouraged. Three request numbers were added to the program. The dramatized and directed by Bertam Foster, gave variety to the concert and added greatly to the enjoyment of the evening. The Pipe Band is to be congratulated in taking the initiative this season in supplying a type of concert dear to the hearts of Scotchmen and others not so Scotch and who love Highland music and dances.

Last night's program was as follows: Selection by the Pipe Band, "The 42nd Highlanders"; Highland Fluir, Miss Mary Walsh. Vocal Solo, "My Ain Folk", James Calder.

Pipe Solo, St. M. Lawson, Highland Schottische, The Lawson Family.

Old Time Fiddler, Lem Jay Vocal Solo—The Scottish Blue Bells, Mrs. Francis Holl Trainor.

Sword Dance, Mrs. Josephine Leighton.

Selection, "MacKenzie Highlanders" and "Sweet Maid of Glendarduel", by the Pipe Band.

Vocal Solo, Where Has Scotland Found Her Fame, V. Leigh Dinwiddie.

Tan Dance, Edward Bourzault. Pipe Solo, Piner B. MacLaren.

Solo's Hornpipe, Miss Josephine Leighton.

Vocal Solo, "There's Nae Luck About the House", Mrs. Arthur H. Roper.

Highland Reel, The Lawson Family.

Selection, Orchestra. Request Numbers: Highland and Fluir, Peter Lawson and Major Burke.

Tan Dance, Mary Walsh. "The Road to the Isle", Pine Major Burke.

Sketch, Relief of Lucknow. Dramatized and directed by Bertam Foster.

Scene: Lucknow, 1858. Dismantled room. Emergency.

Scene of battle off-stage. Mrs. Mary Martin, (wife of Lieut. Martin—Alice Garrett).

Bugle Trumpet, (wounded boy)—Gerald Foster.

WHITE-FISH MEAL

ALL ROUND SATISFACTION

In every industry there is a product that stands out—that holds head and shoulders above the crowd. Into such a product is something that inevitably asserts its leadership.

With "FASTERFAT" it is the painstaking care exerted by the manufacturers to see that nothing but strictly fresh cuttings, heads, and bones of edible white fish is used in its manufacture. Daily tests are made to ensure that every bag of "FASTERFAT" conforms to the printed guarantee on the bag.

Experience has proven that poultrymen and livestock breeders appreciate the extra value in FASTERFAT White Fish Meal.

For dependability in quality and service "FASTERFAT" ranks high.

Send for a few bags and try it out for yourself, and we feel sure you will be convinced of the high feed value of "FASTERFAT".

Fresh supply always in stock, which we are offering at lowest prices.
