A brilliant wedding took place in St Mark's church, Kensington, on Wednesday evening, the 19th inst, when Hammond W. Cannon, of Summerside, and Eleanor Jane Delores Walker, of Kensington, were united in marriage. The church was beautifully decorated in honor of the joyous occasion. Mendelssohn's wedding march was exquisitely played by Mrs John Walker, sister-in-law of the bride. The bride wore a gown in duchesse satin with a veil of Brussels net with orange blossoms and a sunburst of pearls the gift of the groom. The maid of honor, Miss MacKenzie, of Summerside, wore cream silk with cardinal trimmings and picture hat to match, and carried a bouquet of American Beauty roses. Percy N. Enman, of Summerside, ably supported the groom. The ring-bearer was little Miss Vivian Nicholls, daughter of the rector, who was prettily gowned in white and carried a basket of flowers. The nuptial knot was tied by Rural Dean Nicholls. Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr and Mrs Thomas Walker, the happy couple received many beautiful presents among them being a piano from the bride's father and a handsome check and complimentary address from St Mark's church where the bride has been organist for a number of years. The address spoke in terms of praise of the bride's work in connection with the musical portion of the services and her indefatigable efforts in St Mark's Guild. The firm of Brace, McKay & Co., where the groom is employed also sent a handsome gift, and the employees of the firm contributed a valuable offering. The hosts of friends of both bride and groom wish them many years of happy wedded life.
