Head Offices in New Prowse Block—Charlottetown

The latest news, first of all.

Justin McGrath, City, is spending a few days in St John at the Dominion Exhibition.

Misses Mary Wood, Ethel Duggan, and Enid Smith of Pownal were among the visitors to the City on Saturday.

Miss Ethel McArthur, Halifax, who has been spending the summer in this City, is at present visiting in New Glasgow, the guest of Mrs M. H. Layton.

Mrs William Farquharson, Miss Rhea A. Wall and Master Jack Farquharson, Cape Tormentine, are guests of Voss and Mrs Allan, Muddy Creek.

Mrs Roach, Miss Majorie and Master Beverly of Sussex, who have been spending an enjoyable week in this City, the guest of Supt Sharpe, left Saturday on return home.

Mrs J. Edward Cronin of New York has been the guest of Thomas and Mrs Morrow at their home Sunny Hill, St Catherines. Mrs Morrow is the daughter of George Gorveatt, South Shore.

Mrs. John Brougher and little daughter have left for their home in New York, after a month's very pleasant visit with A. A. and Mrs. Moore, Pownal. Mrs. Brougher was delighted with the beautiful scenery the bracing air and kind hospitality of the people.

At the Police Court in this city Saturday the prohibition case against P. J. Doyle, steward of the Charlottetown Club, was further adjourned for one week. Edward Collins and Stephen Coyle were each fined $100 or three months for an infraction of the prohibition act.

The Wesleyan says: "At a special meeting of the Methodist Ministers of St John held in Exmouth street Church Vestry with Rev T. J. Deinstadt in the chair, it was decided that Rev G. A. Ross, pastor of Fairville church, should represent them at Dr Stewart's funeral at Sackville, and that Rev Dr Robt Wilson should send a letter of regret to Mrs Stewart, who was formerly Miss Carrie Jordan of this city. It was during Dr Stewart's pastorate at Exmouth St. (1855-1858,) that the present church edifice was erected." Mr Ross is a native of this City.

A unique interest attaches to the September number of Busy Man's Magazine because in it is to be found a striking prophecy about the future of the Hon. Richard McBride, Premier of British Columbia, based on the extraordinary likeness he bears to three great political leaders. These three men are Benjamin Disraeli, Sir John A. Macdonald and Sir Wilfrid Laurier. This striking likeness is brought out clearly in the portraits of the four men which illustrate the article and which are placed together for purposes of comparison. Richard McBride is still a young man but even to-day he bears a marked resemblance to all three men referred to and in his mannerisms he is astonishingly like Sir John A. Macdonald. All interested in the political situation in Canada, Conservative and Liberal alike, should not fail to see this convincing prophecy.

The travelling public are always quick to note improvements, and visitors stopping at the Hotel Dufferin, St John, have from time to time noted with pleasure the many marked advancements made in that favorite hotel during the regime of John H. Bond as manager. Everything is systematically arranged and runs in perfect harmony, the guests' comfort and convenience being the manager's first thought. Then the cuisine is unexcelled. Take for instance the dinner on any ordinary day, and the menu will include soup of at least two varieties, lettuce, tomatoes, sliced cucumbers and fish, with the different sauces approved by first class cooks. The entrees are always promptly served and of many varieties, while the removes have all the meats in season, with their different sauces and vegetables. The cold meats include domestic ham, beef and ox-tongue with the relishes from numerous first-class manufacturers. The sweets are never forgotten with a variety to choose from that is bewildering, the dessert alone including pears, oranges, bananas, walnuts, almonds, layer raisins, grapes, McLaren's Roquefort and Imperial cream cheese and soda lunch biscuits with buttermilk, tea and coffee as beverages.

E. A. Foster, Central Drugstore, Sunnyside.

Miss Enid Smith and Miss Ethel Duggan of Pownal spent Sunday in Alexandra.

D. S. Reid, Amherst, who has been spending a couple of weeks in this province has returned home.

Mrs Dunlap, Moncton, has returned having spent the summer at the seaside cottage of Mrs McLean, Bay Fortune, P. E. Island.

Mrs Rev. H. E. Thomas and children, City, are visiting in Moncton, the guests of J. S. and Mrs Rayworth, Weldon street.

Edgar L. Godfrey has returned to Garden, Mass, after spending two months on P. E. I. the guest of his aunt, Mrs Geo Lewis, "The Point."

Davis & Fraser announce in their ad which appears in this issue that they are receiving dressed hogs at their new premises,—The Island Cold Storage Company's plant.

Mrs David McDonald, Miss Mildred, Masters Joseph, David and Louis McDonald, left on Saturday morning for their home on Parker Hill, Roxbury, Mass, after a very pleasant visit of six weeks in this Province.

Among the recent contributions to Campbellton Fire Sufferers were the following: One case of clothing from Margate Methodist Circuit; one case from Charlottetown; and one bale from the Ladies of Darnley and Sea View Auxiliary.

In a recent issue of the Montreal Star there appears a splendid cut of W. Halfpenny of this city clearing the bar in a pole vault. In another column is an articie referring to the M. A. A. A. weekly handicaps in which it is stated that Halfpenny leads in points having 27 while his nearest competitor has 20. There are three more handicap meets before the season is over.

The Methodist people of Campbellton are undertaking the erection of a brick church to replace the one which was destroyed in the fire. Plans have been prepared and tenders are to be called for at once. It is expected that the church will cost considerably more than it had been intended to spend on its erection as under the town's new building regulations it was impossible to put up a wooden structure. In place of the parsonage which was burned Rev George Morris B. A., the pastor of the Campbellton circuit, has a small shack in which to live. He and Mrs Morris took possession of their new residence last week. Before long, in all probability, a new building will be erected to replace the parsonage.—Sackville Tribune.

What condition are your eyes in?

You owe it to yourself to find out---if you can't see as well as you ever did-- if you have spots in front of your eyes, if your head aches when you read, or any one of a thousand things that indicate failing vision, you should have your eyes examined at once and fitted with proper glasses. We can attend to any case of defective sight and in most cases succeed in restoring it to normal conditions by scientifically fitting correct lenses. We are certified opticians.
